COMMON SENSE rules the mass of the people, whatever the misnamed and misanthropic philosophers may say to the contrary. Show them a good thing, let its merits be clearly demonstrated, and they will not hesitate to give it their most cordial patronage. The masses have already ratified the judgment of a physician concerning the virtues of HOPSETTER'S BITTERS, as may be seen in the immense quantities of this medicine that are annually sold in every section of the land. It is now recognized as greatly superior to all other remedies yet devised for diseases of the digestive organs, such as diarrhoea, dysentery, dyspepsia, and for the various fevers that arise from derangement of those portions of the system. Hopsetter's name is rapidly becoming a household word, from Maine to Texas, from the shores of the Atlantic to the Pacific.

These celebrated STOMACH BITTERS have done much to create much sensation in the community for their remarkable cures as many persons a prejudice exists against what are called patent medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as HOPSETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS? Physicians prescribe it; why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their families; why should you reject it? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of the afflicted. The BITTERS are pleasant to the taste, agreeable in their effects, and altogether valuable as a tonic or remedy for indigestion.

"HOLD ON! I have a joke worth a thousand dollars to you," is a remark made by a patient this morning, who had just taken the gas and had a tooth extracted at Dr. Colton's, No. 277 Walnut street. But before he could tell the joke he had forgotten it.

"GOOD, BETTER, BEST."—Messrs. Wamsmaker & Brown, early in their business career, demonstrated the possibility of supplying the people with good clothing at low prices. And every year they have added to the excellence of their clothes and subtracted from the usual charges. This good work still goes on at Oak Hall, the garments growing "good, better, best," and the prices "low, lower, lowest."

JEWELRY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 S. Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine Jewelry and Silverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American Western Watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and profit.

ODD FELLOWS PARADE. The bands of music all the time. Played while Lodges formed in line. And countless numbers from afar Came on by steamboat, stage, and car.

The thousands filling up the street, Dressed in regalia rich and neat; And in the distance you could hear The bagpipes sounding loud and clear.

The line was formed, and soon the street Resounded with the music of many feet. While about on shout, and clapping hands, Soon joined the music of the bands.

Rich banners to the breeze were flung. As by this mighty host moved on; And many a wailing standing by Gazed on the sight with tearful eye.

And said, God speed ye, noble men, Who to the widow's weeps attend. God bless this Order, all will say. And never will forget this day.

When brothers met, hands clasped they took, Where joined in Philadelphia, LOUIS, AND TRUTH.

HALLEY, DAVIS & CO'S PLAINES possess the most superb action, with unusual purity of tone, which is one of lowest softness and great brilliancy. This agency, No. 277 Chestnut street, exhibit thirty-four specimens of all others.

LADIES' DAY.—It is to be hoped that the ladies will appreciate the day (Saturday) of this week when Mr. J. W. Wamsmaker has set apart for their special use, in respect to his new and extensive stock of boys' clothing. Experience has shown that in the other departments of his new establishment he has worked wonders in advancing style and standard of clothing, and doubtless just as great an advance has been made by him in this department, which most needs improving. It is a fact that many ladies have been compelled to buy their boys' clothing in New York because they could not find here the style and general character of clothing they desired their sons to wear. They will see that the day for that is past; if they will examine the new stock of Mr. Wamsmaker.
