THE DELEGATE ELECTIONS.

THE period for electing delegates to nominate Republican candidates for the various local offices is rapidly approaching, and the necessity of forming good tickets cannot be too strongly impressed upon the body of the Republican voters as well as the wire-pullers.

It is not unkindly to say that the preliminary proceedings will be greater than usual; that public-spirited citizens will make zealous efforts in every ward to secure the election of honest and intelligent delegates, and that an earnest determination will be evinced to choose nominees that will worthily represent a great and noble political organization.

While the case of such a denial salvation to all but their exclusive set is a bad one, and well calculated to do great injury to religion, yet we must give the palm for excessive inconsistency to those who belong to the second class of our Pharisees.

There are very few persons who cannot afford to give at least a dollar, if not more, to such an object as this, and if all who can give will do so, there will be no difficulty in raising all the money needed.

and sympathies to such only as are professing members of some church. Of the first class we need not look far for daily examples.

THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF DESIGN. The National Academy of Design is not the only institution of the kind in the country. The National Academy in New York is also the subject of an agitation for reform which promises to produce good results in making it a really progressive school of art.

THE NATIONAL ORPHANS' HOMESTEAD AT GETTYSBURG. In another column we publish an appeal for aid from the directress of the Gettysburg Homestead for Soldiers' Orphans.

OUR MODERN PHARISEES. THERE are in existence at the present time numerous classes of professing Christians—men who would have made broad their philacteries had they lived in the days of the Pharisees—who are doing incalculable injury to the cause of religion by their bigotry and intolerance.

private contributions, and it has received no assistance whatever either from the National or State Governments, except the charter granted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania.

NEW CASTLE. The Pilory and the Post—The scene on Saturday Last. The Wilmington Commercial of yesterday contained the following interesting account:

NEGRO JUSTICE. This is the way, as given by the Naxabachie (Texas) Argus, that justice was meted out to an offending negro, and a "Looker-on in Vienna," who chose to object to the proceeding.

SPECIAL NOTICES. FOR THE SUMMER—TO PREVENT sunburn and all discollocations and irritations of the skin, bites of mosquitoes or other insects, use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
