assurances, and hoped that the present friendly relations between the two countries would long be maintained.

Mr. Washburne called on Prince Napoleon on Monday, and met with a hearty welcome.

HAVANA, May 25, via Key West, May 27.—Dulee is dangerously ill of a cancer, and is hourly expected to die.

A riot occurred at Fort Cabanos on Saturday night on the detention of the prisoners captured on the schooner Galvani, for Spain.

The volunteers tried to stop their embarkation, and in the melee which followed cried "Death to Dulce." Further outrages were prevented by the supplications of the Governor of the fortress, and the honor of the bay.

A Spanish steamer, in the Bay of Nipe, fired by mistake into some Spanish troops on shore, and it is reported that forty men were killed.

The Spaniards are greatly excited by frequent reports of the landing of filibustering expeditions.

HAVANA, May 27.—The iron-clad Victoria has arrived. A detachment of volunteers is expected on June 4.

Intelligence has been received from St. Thomas to the effect that the Peruvian monitors have sailed for Madrid.

LONDON, May 27.—The Alabama claims still form the great theme of conversation and newspaper comment. The Times of to-day has an article on the communications of Sir Francis Pickens, which have recently been published here.

The Times says Mr. Sumner's assertions of England's hostility to America is met by the testimony of American officials. Amuses much the reports of the state of the feeling in the United States, for the popular feeling of the State of New York is admitted to have more than countenanced the Fenian expeditions to Canada.

The Messrs. Laird, of Birkenhead, who built the Alabama, have recently published a letter giving legal opinions and extracts from documents and speeches, to prove that the building of the Alabama was not illegal. The letter has been extensively copied, and is thus commented on by the press to-day.

The Lairds are not to be guilty, but that England cannot escape the penalty is the verdict of the best authorities, and is a foregone conclusion.

The Standard says Laird's vindication condemns the Government. The inadequacy of the law is an insufficient excuse for a breach of international obligations. England's obligations were broken for the North as well as the South. The Americans were equally guilty of a breach of national obligations in the case of the Caroline, and in the case of the Fenian drillings and organizations. The final reckoning will give a heavy balance to the debit of the United States.

PRESBYTERIAN REUNION.

The Plan Adopted by the Two Assemblies in New York—Full Text of the Joint Committee's Report.

This is the plan agreed upon by the joint committee of the Old and New School Presbyterian Assemblies now in New York as a basis of reunion. Last evening it was adopted.

PLAN OF REUNION.

"Believing that the interests of the Redeemer's kingdom would be promoted by the healing of our divisions, and that the two bodies bearing the same name, having the same constitution, and each recognizing the other as a sound and orthodox body, according to the principles of the confession common to both, cannot be justified by any but the most imperative reasons in maintaining separate and, in some respects, rival organizations, we are now clearly of the opinion that the reunion of those bodies ought, as soon as the necessary steps can be taken, to be accomplished upon the basis hereinafter set forth:

one who died as nobly as those who lie buried in the graves marked by monuments and tombstones, and we trust will be placed in the same glorious position.

This year the members of the post will assemble at 2 o'clock in Spring Garden Hall, whence a procession, including 250 or 300 men, will march to the Soldiers' Orphan Home, where an address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Neill, and appropriate hymns sung.

Business firms throughout the city will close at an early hour to-morrow to give their employees an opportunity to participate in the ceremonies. All of the Government offices will be closed in the afternoon.

Urgent requests are made by all the posts of the Grand Army of the Republic and the organizations and citizens intending to actively participate in the ceremonies for donations of flowers, wreaths, garlands, bouquets, all are desired. Let this request be abundantly answered. It probably is not in the power of any one to tender to the veterans of the men who died to save us as a nation, a few grateful roses.

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

Yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, a serious affray occurred in a tenement house No. 912, 11th street, occupied by seven families.

Mr. Field has been in the insane asylum with his wife, got into an altercation with Miss Mary Jane Smith, a girl of fifteen years of age, who, with her widowed mother, occupied the story above. The dispute was about a ring, which, it was alleged, Sharkey had, and which belonged to Mrs. Smith.

It is alleged that Miss Smith armed herself with a hatchet, and struck Mr. Sharkey on the head, fracturing the skull. It is believed by the physicians at the hospital, to which the wounded man was removed shortly afterwards. Mrs. and Miss Smith were arrested and held to await the result of the injuries to Mr. Sharkey, who last evening lay in a critical condition.

Benjamin Fliege, aged about fifty years, yesterday went into the barber shop N. E. corner of Fourth and Branch streets, and applied for a bath. He was shown into a room, and soon after he was seen to be in a violent struggle with the proprietor of the establishment entered the room and found Mr. Field leaning over the tub bleeding profusely. On making an examination it was found the ball from the pistol had grazed the right side of his head, inflicting a severe flesh wound.

Frankford, during the past two years, and left that institution on Wednesday last. His mind was affected, it is supposed, in consequence of losses by the failure of merchants at the South after the Rebellion broke out. He was taken to his residence, in Walnut street, above Eleventh.

The Reading Hose and Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 1, arrived in our city yesterday morning from Reading, Pa. They brought with them their handsome steamer, also an excellent fire engine, and a complete outfit of apparatus. The Reading Hose Company, whose guests they are, and escorted through a number of our principal thoroughfares to their headquarters.

The General Synod of the Reformed Church, which is to meet next month, embraced 448 churches, 474 ministers, and 37,000 families. During the past year there have been received into the Church 3904 persons on confession of faith and 2294 on certificates. The total communicants in the Church are 128,828. There are 47,828 scholars connected with the Sunday schools. The contributions during the past year, for religious and benevolent objects, amounted to $204,492.83.

The Committee of Ways and Means of Congress, in their report yesterday at the Continental Hotel. The witnesses examined were William Harbeson, late Surveyor of the Port, and Sigmund H. Horstmann, of the firm of William Horstmann & Son; the former as to the customs department, and the latter as to matters relating to the duties of the close of the investigation the committee was conducted by the committee of the Industrial League through the iron works of Morris, Tasker & Co., the locomotive works of M. Baird & Co., and other prominent manufacturing establishments.

Domestic Affairs.

Gold closed yesterday at 139 1/2. Customs receipts, last week, $2,673,451. Internal revenue receipts this month, $10,822,272. General Badeau has been placed on the retired list.

The Southern Presbyterian Assembly dissolved yesterday. The retiring monitors sailed on the 29th instant, for St. Thomas to Martinique. The Rhode Island Senate has adopted the fifteenth amendment by a vote of 22 to 11.

General Sickel has received his commission as Collector of Revenue for the Fourth District. The anniversary meeting of the New England branch of the American Tract Society was held yesterday in Boston.

A convention of colored men to consider the question of their exclusion from office met in Richmond yesterday. Hon. John Allison, Register of the Treasury, left Washington yesterday on a brief visit to his family, in Mercer county.

The Nova Scotians have moved in Assembly another address to be presented to Her Majesty, praying that the independence of that province may be established.

The Schopp murder trial, now proceeding at Carlisle, Pa., three and a half days have already been occupied by the prosecution, and they have but one more witness to examine, when the defense will open. The direct testimony of the persons concerned during the trial, which the body of the witness examined, and that the body of the witness examined, proved that she died from a violent cause, either taken by herself, or administered to her by the prisoner. Dr. Conrad, of the Baltimore Infirmary, testified that he had made the post-mortem examination, and that the body of the witness examined, proved that she died from a violent cause. Prof. Aiken, of the Maryland University, testified that he analyzed the stomach of the deceased, twelve or thirteen days after her death, and found faint but unequivocal traces of prussic acid. Dr. Dittmar, of Carlisle, who was present during her illness, testified that in his opinion her condition indicated that she died from a compound of prussic acid and morphia. Drs. Kieffer, Dale, and others testified, in answer to hypothetical cases presented to them, that she died from the disease. The opportunity and motive are clearly proven, and the question rests entirely upon the sufficiency of the medical testimony. On this subject the counsel for the defense feel very hopeful. One of the strongest arguments in proving the motive was the production of a will, dated and executed a very short time previous to her death, which bequeaths her entire estate to the prisoner, and to which he and his father are the only subscribing witnesses.

Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, May 27.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Olway, Under-Secretary of Foreign Affairs, said that the Emperor of the French had expressed the case of the Alabama would shortly be laid upon the table.

(Continued from the First Page.) Post 163, to Mount Moriah, and on returning home, to the Woodland Cemetery. Will leave Twentieth street at 10 o'clock, at noon, on Sunday, may 30, dressed in black suit.

Upon approaching the different cemeteries, a detachment will be sent on in advance with small flags, which are to be placed on the graves of our soldiers. The post may know which mounds to strew with flowers. Upon arriving at the gates the posts will march into the cemeteries and halt at a central point suitable for the delivery of the oration and the conducting of the religious exercises, and at the termination of which the men will be divided into four sections, and proceed to the graves of the soldiers of the cemeteries, the band playing dirges all the time the strewing of the flowers is going on. At the sound of the Bugle the men will reassemble and march from the ground.

A resolution was passed soliciting the citizens to display their flags at half-mast on the day of the parade. Citizens residing in the vicinity of the cemeteries to which no posts have been delegated, are respectfully requested to perform the pleasing task of decorating the graves and undecorating the graves.

The Orphans' Demonstration.

A very interesting and attractive feature of the ceremonies of the occasion will be the part taken by the children of the various Soldiers' Orphan Schools in and around the city. The children of the following schools—about seven hundred in number, and comprising nearly all the orphans of the State—will be in the city on the day of the parade. The children of the Lincoln Institution; Church Home; St. John's Orphan Asylum; Catholic Home; Northern Home; Soldiers' Orphan School; Soldiers' Orphan School; Soldiers' Orphan School; and the Bristol Soldiers' Orphan School. At half-past 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, the various orphans belonging to these schools will assemble in Independence Square. They will all be neatly uniformed, and will parade with their flags, banners, and musical accompaniment. The parade will be in the following order:—Up Chesnut to Twelfth, down Twelfth to Walnut, up Walnut to Broad, up Broad to Chesnut, down Chesnut to Congress, up Congress to Chestnut, up Chestnut to the scene of a very interesting meeting. The school children will occupy the stage and the front benches, the remaining portion of the hall being reserved for the general public. Ex-Governor Curtin will occupy the chair, and the assembly will be addressed by him and by the Rev. Phillips Brooks, Rev. A. S. Johnson, Rev. E. M. W. Brown, Rev. J. M. Smith, and other prominent ministers. The doors of the hall will be thrown open at 10 o'clock for the admission of as many of the general public as the hall will accommodate. The required for the accommodation of the participants in the demonstration.

To-morrow's Ceremonies.

As has already been mentioned, some of the posts in this city have determined to perform a ceremony of decoration to-morrow—others on Sunday. The following order has been issued by Post No. 19:—HEADQUARTERS POST 19, G. A. R., DEPARTMENT OF PENNSYLVANIA, May 14, 1869.—Comrades of Post 19:—The day set apart for decorating the graves of our fallen comrades will be to-morrow, and the decorations in the State in numbers and activity, much is expected from us. On the day of the parade, the success of the day depends on the success of the encampment. Four hundred men, properly equipped, are expected to march in column, and to perform the duties of the day. The parade will be held at 10 o'clock, and will be in the following order:—Up Chesnut to Twelfth, down Twelfth to Walnut, up Walnut to Broad, up Broad to Chesnut, down Chesnut to Congress, up Congress to Chestnut, up Chestnut to the scene of a very interesting meeting.
