

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

The City Amusements. At the Academy of Music Miss Clara Louie Keizer will appear in a grand concert on Wednesday evening, supported by Madlle Allie Todd, Signorio, Kenna, Sunst, Barill, and Mr. Rudolph Henning. Solos from Rossini's Meas. Solenne will be performed, with other first-class selections.

At the Walnut Mr. Joseph Jefferson will appear this evening as "Rip Van Winkle." This is one of the really great performances of the day, and it requires no commendation for those who have ever witnessed it.

At the Chestnut the Elise Holt Troupe will conclude their engagement this week. The burlesque of Paris, or the Judgment, will be performed this evening with several new features. W. H. Donaldson and H. Gilbert will make a velocipede ascension upon a tight rope from the stage to the gallery.

At the Thimble Comedy Miss Susan Gilson will have a benefit this evening, when the third act of Florette will be given, to be followed by Goussin's Fantasi, in which Miss Gilson will appear as "Marguerite."

At the American the celebrated De Lave family of gymnasts have been engaged, and this evening the sisters Lilla and Rose will appear in a number of remarkable feats. An entire change of programme will be given this evening.

At the Chestnut Street Rink this evening there will be a grand fancy-dress carnival and masquerade of velocipedes, which promises to be the grand event of the season. A large number of the best riders of the city will be in attendance, and among the great features of the exhibition will be a political race between two office-holders. This affair will probably afford an infinite amount of amusement to all who attend.

Miss Anna E. Dickinson will lecture at the Academy of Music this evening on the subject of "Nothing Unreasonable" in connection with woman's suffrage. There is no doubt that Miss Dickinson will give an eloquent discourse, and as she is about to leave for California, we hope that a full audience will be in attendance. Tickets, 50 cents.

GRAND ENTERTAINMENT in aid of the Washington Monument Fund, by the pupils of the First School district of Pennsylvania, will be given at the Academy of Music on Wednesday evening, June 3. The performance will consist of anthems, choruses, songs, recitations, dialogues, etc. Tickets, 50 cents.

WHILE WAITING FOR A COUGH "to go as it came," you are often sowing the seeds of Consumption. Better try at once JAYNE'S PECTORAL, a sure cure for all Coughs and Colds. Sold everywhere.

A RARE CHANCE.—Messrs. Mundy & Hoffman, of Cooper's Point—just off the river, in Jersey—offer for sale "State rights" of a newly patented and valuable invention. It is a natty thing, will prove the delight of the housewife, and save her much vexation. To the keepers of hotels and restaurants, also, it is absolutely indispensable. By using it, too, you can rescue your temper from many a ruffian, a thing very likely to happen if you chance to be sewing with a dull knife. Now what is this desirable article? What else could it be than a contrivance for the slicing, cutting, and chopping of delicate, cabbage, and other such things? No family can do without it, and consequently they sell like hotcakes at a fair. Here's just the chance for any enterprising and wide-awake person to get hold of a fat thing. Of course, by the purchase of "State rights" in the patent, you alone will have the right to sell it in the State. A mint of money may be reaped from such a chance.

SCIENCE ADVANCES.—As soon as an article purporting to be of utility has been tested, and its merits endorsed by public opinion, unprincipled parties endeavor to replenish their depleted purses by counterfeiting, and substituting a spurious for the genuine article. Some time since, mercury, in the disguise of pills, powders, etc., was given for all diseases of the stomach and liver, while quinine was freely administered for the chills. At length HOSIETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS made its advent, and an entire new system of healing was inaugurated. The beneficial effects of this valuable preparation were at once acknowledged, and mineral poisons referred to sink into that obscurity to which an enlightened age has consigned them. There have been many spurious Bitters palmed upon the community, which, after trial, have been found perfectly worthless, while HOSIETTER'S has proved a blessing to thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health; and for many years we have watched the steady progress of HOSIETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS in public estimation, and its beneficial effects as a cure for all complaints arising from the stomach of a morbid nature, and we are free to say that it can be relied upon as a certain relief and remedy. Its proprietors have made the above preparation, after years of careful study and sitting, and are now reaping the reward claimed by this valuable specific, and which they so richly merit. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases, and it therefore demands the attention of the afflicted.

PAIN PAINT. I want to know who owns a dog Whom sick will physic drive. Or above me where there lives a hog. A cow, or mule, or mink, or snake. That lives in field or house, That drinks a drop or can be taught To swallow else but food. And every human being ought Above what is not good. False education is the bane Leads people heading down. For not a child, unless in pain, But hates it in this town. A million men may say 'tis right; A million lies will tell. And in this battle that we fight, The truth it will prevail. God gave us instinct at our birth, That instinct can't be wrong; What else condems us of no worth, In stomach's choice of food to eat? Men die when doctors do attend, They can but feel the without. The more you use the poisons send, They kill; there is no doubt. If everybody only knew How little doctors know, They'd scorn to let their hands be few. Short cuffs longer grow. Yelps will learn music, Greek or French, At all the schools of the world. If deathly sick, the blackest French, May save that man or wife. The humble poor, or middle class, Have more of mother wit, Than riper Ten, who, like an Ass, We should be wiser to be. The time will come, the child shall know, Before his A, B, C, The laws of health, and useful grow, And better men will be. What is your knowledge, silly strut? A drink from the wrong cup Is death. Or accident, or for wealth, The grave will close right up. Take care of life and know thyself, The first great aim should be. The first great aim should be. Then other branches, or for wealth, Or you a slave will be. The inflammation causes pain, No person will deny, and proper exercise Pump out the fever, and obtain Relief for which you sigh. Don't heat the place already hot, But cool the fever down. Extract all fever from the spot, And health your efforts crown. The flesh is oily, won't drink up, Absorbents will not fill, Unless there's some activity in the cup, Plain water never will. PAIN PAINT will never smart or stain, A child might drink it free. If you have longed for medicinal aid, In carriage come and see. Now throw your physic to the dogs, Your nightmare from your brain. Cheer up, not be like stupid logs. For health will come again. No dose are allowed or prescribed for any complaint; nothing but good food, water, air and proper exercise can make blood, bone or muscle. Does not make or purify one drop of blood; does not increase costiveness, and will sooner or later ruin the digestive organs and leech out the gastric juices and vitality of the whole system. Patients are taught in the plainest language how to restore and preserve their health. There is more wisdom displayed in preventing sickness than in the most elaborate system of curing diseases after invented. CASTLETON, Vt., March 11, 1868.—Dr. R. L. WOLCOTT, New York.—Dear Sir.—I enclose five dollars ($5) for which send me by express, as per your advertisement (free), one pint bottle of "PAIN PAINT," one fifty cent bottle of "ANNIHILATOR," one fifty cent bottle of "PAIN PAINT." You will remember sending me a bottle of "PAIN PAINT" last week. This I used on the leg of my neighbor, one of whom has kept his bed for the last three weeks with rheumatism in his leg. He had two physicians, with no benefit from either. Within fifteen minutes after the application of the PAINT he was free from pain, and could walk as well as ever. The other case was that of a man who keeps one of MY boarding-houses. He has had neuralgia in his head and neck for several days; his neck had become stiff and his head drawn over toward the left shoulder. Hearing that I had a bottle of this medicine, he wanted I should apply some, and I did so, and in five minutes the pain was gone and his neck straight. He was the happiest man I ever saw when he found he could hold up his head again. The pint bottle I send for today I want for a woman who has a cancer on her breast, and a very bad one, too. The fifty cent bottle is for an old woman who is little crippled, and thinks fifty cents' worth is enough to begin with. Since beginning this letter a dollar has been handed to me for one bottle of ANNIHILATOR, for catarrh, making the order as follows: One pint bottle PAIN PAINT..... $5.00 One fifty cent bottle PAIN PAINT..... .50 One fifty cent bottle ANNIHILATOR..... .50 One dollar bottle ANNIHILATOR..... 1.00 One fifty cent bottle ANNIHILATOR..... .50 Total..... $7.50 Send as soon as possible, and oblige O. H. BROWN, Yours truly, O. H. BROWN. Six pints of Annihilator for Catarrh or Goids in the Head, or one Pint of Pain Paint, double strength, sent free of express charges, on receipt of $5; or one gallon of Pain Paint, double strength, for $25. Small bottles sold at all Drug Stores. R. L. WOLCOTT, Inventor and Sole Proprietor, No. 181 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. Test them, free of cost, at No. 822 Arch street. Private rooms for ladies. 11
