

FIRST EDITION THE JUBILEE.

inauguration of the Great Musical Demonstration in Boston—The Programme and Proceedings of the First Day—"Let Us Have Peace" with a Vengeance.

Our Own Correspondent. BOSTON, June 15. The day has at last come. I say the day. You will course understand that I am speaking of Tuesday, June 15, the day set apart for the beginning of the great musical festival, the greatest that has ever taken place in the entire civilized world, and undoubtedly also in the entire uncivilized.

As early as 7 o'clock you might have seen people, carrying their music or some musical instrument, finding their way to the Coliseum. The rehearsal was to come off at 9 o'clock, but it was fully 10 before the enormous chorus of the colossal orchestra were seated in their places. I have been informed that the entire mass of musicians have remained in their places all day till the beginning of the concert at 8 o'clock, when I say it—the sight was one of almost sublime grandeur, and one that will forever linger in the memories of those fortunate enough to have been present.

The south end of the building was occupied by more than ten thousand singers and an orchestra of 150 performers, the grand processions being placed in the center of the orchestra. The auditorium was comfortably filled, but not over-crowded. Admiral Farragut and suite's entrance was greeted with great applause.

The inauguration ceremonies opened at 3, with a prayer by the Rev. E. E. Hale. This was followed by a short address of welcome by his Honor the Mayor of Boston, after which guns were fired by battery. Then came a most able address by the Hon. A. H. Rice, which elicited loud and continued applause. It is needless for me to dwell upon these pleasant discourses, as doubtless you will receive them through the regular press despatches, and the speakers had retired, Ole Bull and Carl made their appearance, and took seats at the desk next to the conductor's stand. Their reaction by the chorus, orchestra, and audience was immense, and must have been highly flattering to them. It is not necessary to say how highly the value their artistic services.

Mr. Gilmore next mentioned the conductor's stand, it was greeted with overwhelming applause. The special part of the performance then began with Luther's choral, "God is our Castle and Defense," sung by the entire chorus, with orchestral organ accompaniment, Mr. Gilmore leading the choir. The effect was electrifying, and paper, and were entirely inadequate to describe it. The time as perfect as could be desired by the most fastidious. The organ added greatly to the effect by its vigorous bass notes. Great applause greeted the performance of this piece.

This was followed by Wagner's overture to Tannhauser, played by the select orchestra of six hundred, Mr. Eichberg conducting and keeping the forces under admirable control. The figurative accompaniment of the violin, both the melodic and finale, was splendidly given, while the brass instruments first forth with the glorious "Pilgrims Chorus" with great effect.

The third piece in order was Mozart's Gloria, from the "Twelfth Mass," Mr. Terrahn conducting. When that gentleman made his appearance the applause was deafening, nearly the entire chorus singing and waving their handkerchiefs. Then came the signal and Mozart's sublime composition was sung in a manner as it never has been before, and probably never will be again, the tenor voices singing together admirably. Madame Parapara-Iosia's appearance was a signal for another outburst of applause. She was most appropriately attired in a white silk dress trimmed with red and blue velvet and buttons of gold, and her hair was styled in the latest fashion.

The first part was then concluded with the "Star-Bangled Banner," sung by the entire chorus of ten thousand voices, accompanied by the bands and the brass instruments, the great organ, and third voice, also by salvos of artillery. The effect was electrifying. At its conclusion about upon about through the vast building, and an encore was demanded upon and given.

A second part opened with the Hymn of Peace, then for the occasion by Dr. O. W. Holmes, to the music of Keller's American Hymn. Here are the words, which I think might be considerably improved upon:

Angels of Peace, thou hast wandered too long! Angel, while our voices are blended in song— Speed up our ark on the wings of the dove— Speed up our ark on the wings of the dove— Speed up our ark on the wings of the dove— Speed up our ark on the wings of the dove—

SECOND EDITION LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

The Great Peace Jubilee—Today's Programme—Boston Exhibition—Arrival of the President—He Meets with an Enthusiastic Reception.

Affairs in the West—McCoolle Declared the Winner of Yesterday's Fight—Tennessee Politics.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Revival Among the Negroes. FORTRESS MONROE, June 16.—Quite a revival has occurred among the freedmen at Slabtown, about two miles from the fort. Thirty-four converts were baptised by immersion on Sunday last, in the presence of about a thousand spectators.

Produce for Northern Markets. These freedmen and their families generally are doing a thriving business in raising vegetables for the Northern markets, and so large has the trade become that the steamers are unable to carry all the freight offered.

A New Watering Place. The old Hygeia Hotel has been fitted up as a summer watering place, and is conducted by Captain Henry Clarke, an old army officer.

The steamer N. P. Banks has been put on the line between Norfolk, Chenystown, and Yorktown, in place of the Echo, which has proved to be too small to accommodate the travel during the summer.

The Practice Squadron. The practice squadron from the Naval Academy, consisting of the frigates Savannah and Macedonian, and the sloop-of-war Dale, are expected to arrive to-day, and will probably remain three or four days before proceeding on their summer cruise.

Virginia Politics. Politics in this vicinity are not very lively, and the people, both white and black, seem to have come to the conclusion that there is more money in the potato business than in politics.

Harris, the colored candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Wells ticket, resides in Hampton, where he keeps a small drug store and practises medicine among the colored people.

Colonel Walker, the conservative candidate for Governor, resides in Norfolk. He is President of a bank, and is very popular in that vicinity.

The registering officers are busily engaged in preparing their lists for the election.

FROM NEW ENGLAND.

Boston Brilliant this Morning—President Grant Anxiously Expected—The Reception Awaiting Him. BOSTON, June 16.—Boston never before probably presented so brilliant a scene as it does this morning. The weather is beautifully fine, and the streets are thronged with people.

Every train which arrived since early morning was filled with passengers hurrying to the Peace Jubilee. The President is momentarily expected, and the arrangements for his reception are on a grand scale. The entire militia of the State, consisting of three brigades, under the command of Major-General Butler, is out, and will be reviewed by the President this afternoon.

The President and party will arrive by the Fall river line, and proceed at once to the St. James Hotel. His reception by the Legislative Committee and the Senate, and the review by the President of the State militia on the Common, will occupy him up to about half past two, the time of proceeding to the Coliseum. The dinner to the President at the Revere House this evening will be a fine affair.

The Rhode Island Trotting Season. PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 16.—The trot at Narragansett Park for the present season came off yesterday. There was but a moderate attendance, and betting not lively, though considerable interest was manifested in the result.

The coming anniversary of St. John's Day, June 24, will be generally celebrated throughout this State by the Masonic fraternity.

Last night six knights of Calvary Commandery, of this city, decided to go on an excursion to Newport, where the day will be fittingly observed.

Gene to Pieces. NEWPORT, June 16.—The schooners Star and Hope, of Cohasset, and Island Queen, of Deer Isle, which have been ashore on Benton's Reef since the 10th inst., have gone to pieces.

Arrival of President Grant. BOSTON, Mass., June 16.—President Grant arrived here this morning, and is stopping at the St. James. He was enthusiastically cheered upon his arrival by an immense crowd.

He Reviews the Troops. After having gone through the usual band-shaking at the State House he reviewed about 8000 troops, under the command of General B. F. Butler, on the Common. He will attend the concert at the Coliseum this afternoon, in company with Admiral Farragut and staff.

To-Day's Concert. The Star Spangled Banner and the Anvil Chorus, both with the artillery accompaniment, will be repeated in honor of the President's visit.

No More Seats to be Procured. An immense number of spectators are expected, in fact I am informed that no more seats are to be had for either to-day or to-morrow.

To-day's programme is splendid, the best to be given at any of the concerts.

FROM BALTIMORE.

Sailing of a Bremen Steamship. BALTIMORE, June 16.—The steamer Ohio, of the Bremen line, sails to-day for Southampton. Amongst her passengers are A. S. Abell and his son Charles, of the Baltimore Sun; also Charles G. M. Gwynn, Captain McLaughlin and his wife, and many other Baltimoreans.

SECOND EDITION LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

The Great Peace Jubilee—Today's Programme—Boston Exhibition—Arrival of the President—He Meets with an Enthusiastic Reception.

Affairs in the West—McCoolle Declared the Winner of Yesterday's Fight—Tennessee Politics.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Revival Among the Negroes. FORTRESS MONROE, June 16.—Quite a revival has occurred among the freedmen at Slabtown, about two miles from the fort. Thirty-four converts were baptised by immersion on Sunday last, in the presence of about a thousand spectators.

Produce for Northern Markets. These freedmen and their families generally are doing a thriving business in raising vegetables for the Northern markets, and so large has the trade become that the steamers are unable to carry all the freight offered.

A New Watering Place. The old Hygeia Hotel has been fitted up as a summer watering place, and is conducted by Captain Henry Clarke, an old army officer.

The steamer N. P. Banks has been put on the line between Norfolk, Chenystown, and Yorktown, in place of the Echo, which has proved to be too small to accommodate the travel during the summer.

The Practice Squadron. The practice squadron from the Naval Academy, consisting of the frigates Savannah and Macedonian, and the sloop-of-war Dale, are expected to arrive to-day, and will probably remain three or four days before proceeding on their summer cruise.

Virginia Politics. Politics in this vicinity are not very lively, and the people, both white and black, seem to have come to the conclusion that there is more money in the potato business than in politics.

Harris, the colored candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Wells ticket, resides in Hampton, where he keeps a small drug store and practises medicine among the colored people.

Colonel Walker, the conservative candidate for Governor, resides in Norfolk. He is President of a bank, and is very popular in that vicinity.

The registering officers are busily engaged in preparing their lists for the election.

FROM NEW ENGLAND.

Boston Brilliant this Morning—President Grant Anxiously Expected—The Reception Awaiting Him. BOSTON, June 16.—Boston never before probably presented so brilliant a scene as it does this morning. The weather is beautifully fine, and the streets are thronged with people.

Every train which arrived since early morning was filled with passengers hurrying to the Peace Jubilee. The President is momentarily expected, and the arrangements for his reception are on a grand scale. The entire militia of the State, consisting of three brigades, under the command of Major-General Butler, is out, and will be reviewed by the President this afternoon.

The President and party will arrive by the Fall river line, and proceed at once to the St. James Hotel. His reception by the Legislative Committee and the Senate, and the review by the President of the State militia on the Common, will occupy him up to about half past two, the time of proceeding to the Coliseum. The dinner to the President at the Revere House this evening will be a fine affair.

The Rhode Island Trotting Season. PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 16.—The trot at Narragansett Park for the present season came off yesterday. There was but a moderate attendance, and betting not lively, though considerable interest was manifested in the result.

The coming anniversary of St. John's Day, June 24, will be generally celebrated throughout this State by the Masonic fraternity.

Last night six knights of Calvary Commandery, of this city, decided to go on an excursion to Newport, where the day will be fittingly observed.

Gene to Pieces. NEWPORT, June 16.—The schooners Star and Hope, of Cohasset, and Island Queen, of Deer Isle, which have been ashore on Benton's Reef since the 10th inst., have gone to pieces.

Arrival of President Grant. BOSTON, Mass., June 16.—President Grant arrived here this morning, and is stopping at the St. James. He was enthusiastically cheered upon his arrival by an immense crowd.

He Reviews the Troops. After having gone through the usual band-shaking at the State House he reviewed about 8000 troops, under the command of General B. F. Butler, on the Common. He will attend the concert at the Coliseum this afternoon, in company with Admiral Farragut and staff.

To-Day's Concert. The Star Spangled Banner and the Anvil Chorus, both with the artillery accompaniment, will be repeated in honor of the President's visit.

No More Seats to be Procured. An immense number of spectators are expected, in fact I am informed that no more seats are to be had for either to-day or to-morrow.

To-day's programme is splendid, the best to be given at any of the concerts.

FROM BALTIMORE.

Sailing of a Bremen Steamship. BALTIMORE, June 16.—The steamer Ohio, of the Bremen line, sails to-day for Southampton. Amongst her passengers are A. S. Abell and his son Charles, of the Baltimore Sun; also Charles G. M. Gwynn, Captain McLaughlin and his wife, and many other Baltimoreans.

FROM THE WEST.

The McCoolle-Allen Fight—Decision in Favor of the Former. ST. LOUIS, June 16.—At midnight last night McKimney, the referee in the McCoolle-Allen contest, made the following decision:—

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—I, Valentine McKimney, give my decision in the late fight between McCoolle and Allen in favor of McCoolle, there being a foul committed by Allen on McCoolle in last round, by gouging his eyes.

There is a great deal of bitter feeling over the matter and imprecations and recriminations are emitted from the friends of both parties.

Tennessee Politics. Fears that One of the Governorial Candidates will be Mobbed. NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 16.—A special despatch from Knoxville says there is every probability that the Knoxville Whig, which has been strongly in favor of Senter, will charge front, and come out for Stokes. There seems to be much opposition to Senter's plan of universal suffrage in East Tennessee, and his opponent appears to have rather got the advantage in the recent discussion there.

The radicals of Blount county have sworn that Senter shall not preach his universal-suffrage doctrine among them, and fears are entertained that he will be mobbed. The defection of the Whig from Senter's side will change the aspect of affairs quite materially. Candidates for the Legislature, both negroes and white men, are numerous all over the State, and the contest will altogether be a very lively one.

FROM GETTYSBURG.

Dedication of the Gettysburg National Monument. GETTYSBURG, June 16.—The Board of Managers of the Soldiers' National Cemetery, through its committee of arrangements, respectfully invite all the soldiers who were in the battle of Gettysburg, and the military, municipal, and civil organizations of the country, and the citizens generally, to participate in the ceremonies of the dedication of the monument on the 1st of July.

Senator Morton will deliver the oration, Bayard Taylor the poem, and Henry Ward Beecher the prayer. DAVID WELLS, Chairman Committee of Arrangements.

FROM NEW JERSEY.

Governor Curtin En Route for New York. TRENTON DEPOT, N. J., June 16.—Ex-Governor Curtin, accompanied by his family, Hon. A. K. McClure, and several other of his personal friends, and a large delegation of City Councilmen, passed through here this morning on the last line for New York. They were furnished by President Gatzmer with a special car.

Minister Curtin will sail for Russia to-morrow and his friends will remain in New York until his departure.

THE LOCAL MARKETS.

This Morning's Quotations. LONDON, June 16.—A. M.—Consols for money, 92 1/2; for account, 92 1/2; United States Five-twelves, 80 1/2; Erie, 10 1/2; Illinois Central, 95.

Midling uplands, 11 1/2; middling Orleans, 12 1/2. The sales of the day are estimated at 15,000 bales.

THIS AFTERNOON'S QUOTATIONS. LONDON, June 16.—P. M.—Consols for money, 92 1/2; for account, 92 1/2; U. S. 5-20s quiet, 92 1/2.

LIVERPOOL, June 16.—P. M.—Cotton active; middling uplands, 11 1/2; middling Orleans, 12 1/2. The sales of the day are estimated at 2,000 bales.

THE RICE MARKET. LONDON, June 16.—P. M.—Lined Old flat, 48; Java, 48; Java, 48; Java, 48.

ENGLAND.

Fatal Riot in Wales—Collision Between the English and the Irish. The English and the Irish in the fish line, contain full reports of the riot in Mold, Flintshire, on Wednesday, the 2d inst. The following is taken from one of the London papers of the 5th:—

A terrible riot has occurred at Mold, in Flintshire, by which four persons were killed and others were wounded. The accounts of the fray which have reached us are somewhat fragmentary, but the following is a tolerably succinct narrative of this melancholy affair:—

Recently some party of tarps proceeding took place in connection with a strike at the Leeswood Green pit, near Mold. Notice had been given of a reduction of wages, and the men, entertaining the notion that the manager of the pit, Mr. Young, was the cause of the notice being issued, were in the town a large throng of men, estimated at one thousand, with sticks and clubs, threatening to rescue the prisoner. They waited outside the police station for about two hours. The prisoner was being conducted between three or four police officers from the station to the County Hall, when the greatest roughs and young people of the crowd rushed upon them and rescued the prisoner, who was at once conducted out of the town. The prisoner was shortly afterwards brought back, and released on bail to appear next day.

Two of the eight collars charged with assaulting Mr. Young were on Wednesday brought before the magistrates, and a determined attempt was made by a great mob of pitmen and others to rescue them from custody. As there appeared every probability of the police being overpowered, a detachment of the Fourth Regiment was sent for from Chester, and soon arrived, under the command of Captain Blake.

The number of the assailants increased every moment, and at length a determined attempt was made to rescue the prisoners. Stones were thrown in showers at the military and police. The telegraph office, in which the police and some of the soldiers took refuge in charge of the two prisoners, was broken to pieces and made a total wreck. Scarcely a window of the train on the railway was left whole, but the prisoners were conveyed into one of the carriages in safety. The riot act was read by Mr. C. B. Trevor-Roper, and the military, after showing great forbearance, commenced firing. Two persons were shot dead, and two died afterwards. One soldier was seriously hurt, and casualties are numerous.

THE BRUISERS.

The Hill Between the Champion Heavy Weights—McCoolle's Standing in St. Louis—Allen the Pluckiest Man. The New York correspondent telegraphed from St. Louis yesterday the details of the fight between McCoolle and Allen.

This is what is said of McCoolle:—St. Louis is as proud of Mike McCoolle as of any other man in the city. He is a native of the west and standing in the community, his name appears in the income-tax list, and his young and beautiful wife—in this is a veritable fact—speaks French and dances German, besides having a most excellent taste in millinery. It might be of interest to state here that Mr. McCoolle was born in the city of Rathfriland, county Donegal, Ireland; is six feet one-and-a-quarter inches in his stockings, is forty-six inches around the chest, weighed two hundred and fifty pounds before training, and is by personal a most ardent Catholic.

McCoolle was at one time a deck hand on a Mississippi steamer, but a pugilist, and is now the proprietor of one of the most elegant whisky shops in the city. He is such a power in St. Louis, that when imprisoned in Indiana for attempting to pound the head of Joe Coburn, his Excellency Governor Fretwell, of the State of Missouri, sent a telegraph to Governor Baker, of Indiana, to release him.

At one time Mr. McCoolle was, like General Grant, a practical tanner, and followed that profession till he was twenty years of age. He was in the prize-ring, and when a boatman on the Mississippi would never take impudence from him, as he followed a most scientific boxer, in the prize-ring, and when a boatman on the Mississippi was a man named Bill Blake, or "Dablin Trick," as his brother artists called him, in which Mr. McCoolle was a most scientific boxer, and he was not heard of again. He next encountered a Mr. Tom Jennings, whom he also smashed in the groin, and then he came to the notice of a perfect savant, at Cecil, Md., in 1863, and after they had amused themselves for an hour or so, he went to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

McCoolle then matched himself with Bill Davis, whom he beat to a farina jelly, and lay lying in bed for a week, and he never got up again.

Messrs. JAY COOK & Co. quote Government securities as follows:—U. S. 5s, 121 1/2; 10s, 124 1/2; 1860, 118 1/2; 1861, 115 1/2; 1862, 112 1/2; 1863, 109 1/2; 1864, 106 1/2; 1865, 103 1/2; 1866, 100 1/2; 1867, 97 1/2; 1868, 94 1/2; 1869, 91 1/2; 1870, 88 1/2; 1871, 85 1/2; 1872, 82 1/2; 1873, 79 1/2; 1874, 76 1/2; 1875, 73 1/2; 1876, 70 1/2; 1877, 67 1/2; 1878, 64 1/2; 1879, 61 1/2; 1880, 58 1/2; 1881, 55 1/2; 1882, 52 1/2; 1883, 49 1/2; 1884, 46 1/2; 1885, 43 1/2; 1886, 40 1/2; 1887, 37 1/2; 1888, 34 1/2; 1889, 31 1/2; 1890, 28 1/2; 1891, 25 1/2; 1892, 22 1/2; 1893, 19 1/2; 1894, 16 1/2; 1895, 13 1/2; 1896, 10 1/2; 1897, 7 1/2; 1898, 4 1/2; 1899, 1 1/2; 1900, 0 1/2.

Messrs. DE HAVEN & BROTHER, No. 40 S. Third Street, Philadelphia, report the following quotations:—Gold, 137 1/2; Silver, 123 1/2; Copper, 100; Tin, 100; Lead, 100; Zinc, 100; Iron, 100; Steel, 100; Coal, 100; Oil, 100; Gas, 100; Flour, 100; Wheat, 100; Corn, 100; Rice, 100; Sugar, 100; Coffee, 100; Tea, 100; Spices, 100; Furs, 100; Pearls, 100; Diamonds, 100; Jewels, 100; Clocks, 100; Watches, 100; Toys, 100; Games, 100; Books, 100; Maps, 100; Globes, 100; Instruments, 100; Tools, 100; Machines, 100; Vehicles, 100; Buildings, 100; Furniture, 100; Clothing, 100; Food, 100; Drink, 100; Medicine, 100; Religion, 100; Science, 100; Art, 100; Music, 100; Poetry, 100; Drama, 100; History, 100; Geography, 100; Biography, 100; Autobiography, 100; Memoirs, 100; Letters, 100; Journals, 100; Diaries, 100; Albums, 100; Portraits, 100; Statues, 100; Sculptures, 100; Paintings, 100; Drawings, 100; Engravings, 100; Lithographs, 100; Photographs, 100; Prints, 100; Books, 100; Maps, 100; Globes, 100; Instruments, 100; Tools, 100; Machines, 100; Vehicles, 100; Buildings, 100; Furniture, 100; Clothing, 100; Food, 100; Drink, 100; Medicine, 100; Religion, 100; Science, 100; Art, 100; Music, 100; Poetry, 100; Drama, 100; History, 100; Geography, 100; Biography, 100; Autobiography, 100; Memoirs, 100; Letters, 100; Journals, 100; Diaries, 100; Albums, 100; Portraits, 100; Statues, 100; Sculptures, 100; Paintings, 100; Drawings, 100; Engravings, 100; Lithographs, 100; Photographs, 100; Prints, 100; Books, 100; Maps, 100; Globes, 100; Instruments, 100; Tools, 100; Machines, 100; Vehicles, 100; Buildings, 100; Furniture, 100; Clothing, 100; Food, 100; Drink, 100; Medicine, 100; Religion, 100; Science, 100; Art, 100; Music, 100; Poetry, 100; Drama, 100; History, 100; Geography, 100; Biography, 100; Autobiography, 100; Memoirs, 100; Letters, 100; Journals, 100; Diaries, 100; Albums, 100; Portraits, 100; Statues, 100; Sculptures, 100; Paintings, 100; Drawings, 100; Engravings, 100; Lithographs, 100; Photographs, 100; Prints, 100; Books, 100; Maps, 100; Globes, 100; Instruments, 100; Tools, 100; Machines, 100; Vehicles, 100; Buildings, 100; Furniture, 100; Clothing, 100; Food, 100; Drink, 100; Medicine, 100; Religion, 100; Science, 100; Art, 100; Music, 100; Poetry, 100; Drama, 100; History, 100; Geography, 100; Biography, 100; Autobiography, 100; Memoirs, 100; Letters, 100; Journals, 100; Diaries, 100; Albums, 100; Portraits, 100; Statues, 100; Sculptures, 100; Paintings, 100; Drawings, 100; Engravings, 100; Lithographs, 100; Photographs, 100; Prints, 100; Books, 100; Maps, 100; Globes, 100; Instruments, 100; Tools, 100; Machines, 100; Vehicles, 100; Buildings, 100; Furniture, 100; Clothing, 100; Food, 100; Drink, 100; Medicine, 100; Religion, 100; Science, 100; Art, 100; Music, 100; Poetry, 100; Drama, 100; History, 100; Geography, 100; Biography, 100; Autobiography, 100; Memoirs, 100; Letters, 100; Journals, 100; Diaries, 100; Albums, 100; Portraits, 100; Statues, 100; Sculptures, 100; Paintings, 100; Drawings, 100; Engravings, 100; Lithographs, 100; Photographs, 100; Prints, 100; Books, 1