

THE GREAT PEACE JUBILEE.

DOINGS OF THE FOURTH DAY.

From Our Own Correspondent.

BOSTON, June 19, 1869. The finest programme of the great Musical Festival was given at today's concert, a programme worthy of such an occasion.

Mr. Zerrahn is, without the slightest doubt, the ablest conductor of those chosen to lead the forces assembled here. He has a fine control over the masses, and his great experience in having previously conducted all the oratorios performed here by the Handel and Haydn Society fits him eminently for the position.

The attendance this afternoon was immense, though not quite so large as yesterday. The fact that so many were disappointed yesterday in securing admission had the good effect of bringing people to their seats in good time to-day, and there were but few loiterers after 3 o'clock.

The concert opened with Weber's "Jubilee Overture," under the lead of Mr. Eichberg. It was splendidly played, and was doubtless the best of the performances of the orchestra.

The immense audience gave three rousing cheers for Mr. Peabody, and after quiet had been restored Mr. Eichberg, amidst great applause, took the conductor's stand, gave the signal, and the performance commenced.

Fifth Day—Saturday, June 19, 1869, to commence at 11 o'clock A. M.

CONCERT BY THE CHILDREN OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS, WITH FULL ORCHESTRAL ACCOMPANIMENT.

1. Overture by orchestra. 2. Chorus—"Brothers to our Native Land." Brothers, to our native land let us now both heart and hand, let it be our dearest treasure.

3. Chorus—"Now the Twilight, etc." Mercantile now the twilight softly stealing, yonder abbey tower revealing, solemn sounds of evening prayer, tell the hour of evening prayer.

4. "So Merrily Over the Ocean" Soprano Solo.—Brinley Richards. Our home is the restless deep, where the turbulent billows play, our revels we gaily keep.

5. "The Sea-Birds" Alto Solo.—As lightly we roam, the sunbeams swiftly glide; our ever glorious, sovereign nations, as it pleases along, the breast of the tempestuous tide.

6. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

7. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

8. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

9. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

10. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

11. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

12. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

13. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

14. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

15. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

16. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

17. "The Sea-Birds" Full Chorus.—So merrily over the ocean spray, dancing and singing the hours away, singing the hours away, singing golden hours away.

—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad will be completed to the Greenbrier Springs, Va., by next Wednesday.

—The case of Smithson vs. E. M. Stanton was argued on Saturday before the District Circuit Court of Washington.

—The Swedborgians would not have Herschell V. Johnson, of Georgia, on their elective committee, because he was a Rebel. —John G. Smith, of Norfolk, Va., was yesterday stricken with paralysis at the dinner table of the American Hotel at Saratoga.

—The wedding mill of Benson & Trumper, at Kinderhook, N. Y., was burned yesterday. Loss $20,000, covered by insurance. —A number of appointments of clerks in the Philadelphia Post-Office were approved by the Treasury Department on Saturday.

—The bill before the Massachusetts Legislature for giving aid to the Massachusetts Central Railroad has been referred to the next General Court.

—The alleged Cuban recruiting officer arrested lately in Richmond, Va., was released on Saturday by the United States Commissioner, there being no evidence against him. —A Boston telegram says that the remains of Captain Henry A. Wise, son-in-law of Edward Everett, and who died in Naples, will be buried at Mount Auburn to-day.

—A locomotive and eleven freight cars ran from the track of the Jersey Central near Passaic river on Saturday night. Cause, an open drawbridge. No lives lost. —The convention at Stanton, Va., adjourned sine die on Friday night, after a resolution of thanks to the citizens, heads of public institutions, and railroads for courtesies.

—No changes will be made in the Virginia conservative legislative tickets on account of General Canby's opinion that the test oath must be taken by members of the Legislature. —Judge Pitman, of Boston, on Saturday resigned the Presidency of the Senate in order to enter upon his duties as Justice of the Supreme Court. George O. Bratton, of Middlesex, has been chosen to fill the vacancy.

—A private letter from Fort Smith, Arkansas, says that extensive tobacco factories are now in full operation in the Cherokee and Choctaw Indian Territory, free from tax, and making money. One of these factories is within three miles of Fort Smith. —Many cigar dealers have been arrested in Boston for neglect of compliance with the law of April 1, requiring all cigars offered for sale to be stamped, and released on bail to await examination, provided that Commissioner Osborn decides that the law applies to retail dealers.

—The Government having found that the quantity of sugar and coffee smuggled into the country has been larger than was supposed, the country revenue officers are now in Cincinnati looking after goods. It is rumored that seizures have been made in the hold of a vessel which is compelled to prove that the duty has been paid.

Foreign Affairs. LONDON, June 19.—In the House of Commons last evening, a motion was made to go into committee on the new treaty of commerce with France, the present treaty expiring before the next session. Mr. Bright opposed the proposition in a strong speech, followed by others pro and con. At length the House divided, with the following result—For, 101; against, 155.

TARRAZEN, the Spanish envoy to England, has resigned. —The Times of to-day, on the Irish Church bill, says that the bill has passed by a large majority, and the peaceful termination of the session is now assured. The great triumph is not so much a triumph for the ministers as it is for the power of public opinion and the machinery of the Constitution. Looking back into the history of this question, it is impossible not to be impressed with the fact that England is, above all things, well governed. The scandal will now be removed that arose in the mistaken policy upheld by the whole people, and endured through labor of public opinion, but the mind and conscience of the people were at length aroused, and the fabric instantly fell.

The Post says this great debate proves the people's opinion of the House of Lords. Their judgment furnishes an additional proof of the utility of an upper house. The second reading is but preliminary to moulding the bill into a form better to satisfy the nation. An analysis of the vote shows that the Archbishop of Dublin and fifteen bishops voted against the second reading. The Bishop of St. David voted in favor of it, and the other prelates abstained from voting.

The Great Eastern has left Portland for Brest, where she will soon sail on her cable-laying expedition. LONDON, June 20.—The Royal Thames Yacht Club match took place yesterday. The course was from Gravesend to the Nore and back. The Druid beat the Cambria by one minute, and the Silver Cup was for four minutes. The time of the victory was 5 hours 57 1/2 seconds.

LONDON, June 20.—An immense Orange demonstration occurred at Enniskillen, Ireland, yesterday. MADRID, June 19.—In the Cortes yesterday Rivero administered the oath of regency to Serrano. There were loud cheers for the Regent and for national sovereignty, but no disturbances are apprehended.

The following is the new Cabinet, as far as announced.—Prim, Minister of War and President of the Ministry; Silveira, Secretary of State; Herrera Grace, Minister of Justice. It is said that the Government is opposed to the proposed deduction in rates, and only sanctions the present deduction of five per cent. on account of the internal debt.

MADRID, June 19.—The Cortes has passed a bill giving the acts of the Provisional Government the force of law, and conferring upon it the power to carry them into effect. After a stormy debate, the Republicans have succeeded in bringing before the Cortes a resolution disapproving of the presence of Montpensier in Spain, and demanding that the Government order his removal. General Pezalla, a strong supporter of the ex-Queen Isabella, arrived here on the pretext of visiting his estates at Segovia, and claiming his right to do so as a citizen, under the Constitution. He was arrested and sent to Aranjuez to await further orders. He will probably be expelled to the Canaries.

A conspiracy for the restoration of Isabella has been discovered in Grenada. On taking the oath of office yesterday, Serrano made a speech, in which he promised to respect the institutions and liberties of the country. President Rivero, in his reply, assured him of the support of all Spaniards. MADRID, June 20.—The members of the new Ministry were presented to the Cortes yesterday. Prim addressed them, and promised that the Government would observe all the provisions of the Constitution, and exact equal respect for them from the nation. He exhorted the majority in the Cortes to continue united, and urged the Republicans to preserve an attitude of moderation. After a long discussion, the resolution condemning the presence of Montpensier in Spain was rejected by a vote of 99 to 67. Prim opposed the resolution, arguing that the Duke had a right to inhabit any part of the country. MADRID, June 20.—The President of a Republican Club in Cadiz has been arrested for publishing a speech against Serrano. This action of the authorities has caused great excitement in Cadiz. In the Cortes, yesterday, Prim said the government must be hard, inflexible, and even cruel in repressing disorder. He also proposed economical reforms in the finances. PARIS, June 19.—The official paper of to-day publishes the following:—A crowd of people attended the funeral of the rioters who were killed here recently in political disturbances. There was no disorder. PARIS, June 19.—It is said that the Government has ordered the arrest of all Carlists and Isabelists on the frontier. PARIS, June 20.—The city is perfectly tranquil, and no attempt has been made to renew the late disorders. Mr. Burlingame is preparing to leave for St. Petersburg, with the Chinese Embassy. —A great teachers' meeting is to be held in Berlin, in which three thousand teachers will participate. —Seventy-four people were killed in the London streets in fifteen weeks, according to the previous estimate.
