

A DEATH EXHIBITION.

Scene in a Hospital.—A "Pain Operation," but the Cincinnati Inquirer of the 19th instant has the following:—Some excitement was caused yesterday forenoon in the medical circles by the announcement that a patient had died from chloroform at the Cincinnati Hospital, while under the knife of the amputator. An inquiry into the circumstances elicited the following facts:—The deceased was named Bridget Henry, and had been an inmate of the hospital about four months. Four or five months previous to that time she had been troubled with a cancer upon the instep, which, increasing rapidly in size, finally made removal to the hospital and treatment there a necessity. After admission, the usual remedies were used, without checking the growth of the cancer, which was of the kind known among medical men as Fibrous Sarcoma. As it enlarged, ligatures were applied, but it still continued to develop. Hypodermic injections were resorted to, and chloroform was freely used. The patient was, in spite of all that could be done for her relief, rapidly losing strength, and after consultation, an operation was decided upon. It was agreed that this should be done by Syme's process, removing the entire foot with the exception of the heel. Dr. Dawson performed the operation, assisted by several of the medical physicians, one of whom administered the chloroform. It is said that only seventy-five minims (about two and a half teaspoonful) were given, a large portion of which had been escaped into the air by evaporation. The bone had been sawed, the flap turned, and the limb was just ready to be sewed up, when it was observed that the woman had ceased to breathe. As the whole class consisting of about two hundred students from the various hospitals of the city, were present, some of the medical students, all of whom were with a natural desire, under such circumstances, to see what was going on. The usual resuscitative measures at once applied. The tongue was pulled out, cold water dashed over the person, stimulants were given, and electricity was also resorted to, to restore animation but without success. The woman never breathed again. Those who attended the woman immediately in charge exercised the utmost coolness, and from first to last it does not appear that there was not the most careful treatment of that individual was to obtain for the end and fatal result.

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Mad'le Nilsson's Fourth Concert. Mad'le Nilsson appeared for the fourth time in concert last evening at the Academy of Music, and attracted as large an audience as on former occasions. The fine qualities of this singer grow more apparent upon acquaintance, and the dramatic power which she displayed last evening in the "Miserere" scene from Trovatore made her admirers more than ever anxious that she should appear with all the accessories necessary for the full display of her dramatic power. Mad'le Nilsson is a singer of rare and peculiar gifts, and it will not be justice to the American public if she leaves our shores without appearing in some of those operatic roles in which she has gained much of her European celebrity. To-morrow Mad'le Nilsson will appear at a matinee performance, when she will repeat the mad scene from Hamlet.

The City Amusements. AT THE WALNUT Mr. J. S. Clarke will have a benefit this evening, when he will appear as "Dr. Fangoose" and "Foddy". There will be a matinee to-morrow, when Mr. Clarke will personate "Asa Trenchard" in the comedy of "Our American Cousin". AT THE ARCH Sheridan's comedy of "The School for Scandal" will be performed this evening, with Mrs. Drew as "Miss Teazle". By invitation of Mrs. Drew Miss Nilsson will witness the performance at the Arch this evening.

On Monday a new play of T. W. Robertson's, entitled "M. P.", will be produced. AT THE PINE the extravaganza of "Piato" will be represented this evening by the Lingard troupe.

There will be a matinee to-morrow. AT THE AMERICAN Charles Vivian, M'le De Rosa and other popular artists will appear this evening.

AT THE ELEVENTH STREET OPERA HOUSE a grand Ethiopian soiree will be given this evening.

AT THE ARCH STREET OPERA HOUSE a variety of entertaining features will be presented this evening.

CHERRY STREET THEATRE.—The enterprising business agent (Mr. Peter E. Abel) of what we may safely predict will become the most popular theatre in the city, has effected an engagement with the Lew Weber Burlesque Opera Troupe, who will produce on Monday evening Planche's burlesque, with the original music, of the popular opera of "Frolic". The piece will be mounted in a most elaborate style.

CITY ITEMS.

MEN'S ENTIRE SUITS. As low as $10. Better than are sold elsewhere at $15 to $25. Others at $12, $15, $18, $20, $25, $30. Call and see. BENNETT & CO., 515 MARKET STREET.

A CROSS HUSBAND.—Mrs. Smith—"The fact is, my husband is becoming so outrageously cross and nervous that there is no living with him. He pretends one day that he has got the dyspepsia; the next day liver complaint; the next is sick, with no appetite—declares that there is nothing on the table fit to eat, and so on. It is all nonsense, and nothing but his confounded ugliness. From the very bottom of my heart, I believe he wants to worry me to death."

Lady Friend.—Mrs. Smith, I think you are wrong. No woman has a kinder or more indulgent husband than you. I must confess that I have noticed a change in Mr. Smith; but am inclined to think that all he wants is a tonic; and if I were you, I would not be a day without PLANTATION BITTERS in the house. Make him take them moderately three times a day, and in a short time I think you will see a change. My experience is that PLANTATION BITTERS is one of the best and most delicious tonics in the world; and that for nervousness, loss of appetite, dyspepsia, and all kindred complaints, there is nothing so good.

SEA MOSS FARINE.—This is a new article of food, which we take pleasure in commending to our readers. We have used it in our families, and have found it to be the most nutritious, delicate, and palatable article for table use we have seen. It is a light and agreeable farine, very pleasant to the taste, easy of digestion, and hence specially adapted to the use of the sick, the thousands of dyspeptics among us, and for young children; besides, it is nutritious, harmless, remedial, and economical, as it can be furnished for one-third to one-half the cost of Corn Starch, Malzena, Farina, etc., for all of which it is more than a substitute.

It is made up without trouble, and will always be good. Try it, and our word for it, you will continue in its use.—Independent.

MR. WILLIAM W. CASSIDY, the Jeweller at No. 8 South Second street, has one of the largest and most attractive stocks of all kinds of Jewellery and Silverware in the city. He has also on hand a fine assortment of the American Western Watches. Those who purchase at this store at the present time are certain to get the worth of their money.

PUBLIC SALE OF THE premises No. 1221 Walnut street, by Thomas & Sons, on Tuesday, November 1. Has modern improvements, is centrally located, and especially desirable for a professional man. Sale postponed.

SPOTTED LEP DOBSON.—The leech soon became spotted if every settlement is not removed from them every twenty-four hours. To do this effectually there is nothing like Rozodent. It literally renders the enamel impervious and indestructible.

WE HAVE BEEN LABORING for several weeks at our $10 suits, like those sold on Market street for $12, only ours are a great deal better cut, made, and trimmed, and determined not to announce them until we had a stock sufficient that all may be supplied to-morrow. Saturday morning we will open with thousands of $10, $12, $15, $18, and $20 Fall and Winter suits, for style, quality, and cheapness far surpassing anything ever offered to the public. All are cordially invited to call and examine them at the Great Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street.
