Grand total: 90,478. The expenses of these institutions are as follows, including cost of construction, rent, janitors' fees, printing, etc.—

Table with columns: Bath Name, Expense. Rows include No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10.

OUR POLICE.

Additional Policemen who have not been Examined.

Some days since THE TELEGRAPH published a list of the policemen proposed by Mayor Fox who had not been submitted to Select Council for confirmation. That list comprised over two-thirds of the present force, and in it were the names of some of the earliest applicants.

FAIR IN AID OF FRENCH SOLDIERS.—Yesterday, a meeting was held at the house of Madame P. Jacob, No. 325 Spruce street, to take measures to hold a fair for the benefit of the French victims of the European war.

It was decided to hold the fair in Concert Hall, beginning on the 14th of December and continuing till the evening of December 24.

A number of ladies volunteered to attend the tables and to dispose of goods. On motion, it was decided to name the tables as follows:—

A WILD STEER DISPATCHED.—Yesterday afternoon a steer broke from a herd of cattle in West Philadelphia and started off on a full gallop, creating great consternation among the pedestrians.

AN OLD OFFENDER.—Annie Coleman is a character well known in the famous thoroughfare known as Trent alley. Some weeks since she was before Aid. Lutz on a charge of relieving a sailor of $54, but the prosecutor failing to put in an appearance, she was discharged.

WELL SUPPLIED.—Policeman Boyle, of the Tenth district, last evening arrested one Henry Schell at Fourth and George streets, on suspicion of stealing a shawl, which he had thrown across his shoulders.

LARGELY OF SHIRT.—James Young yesterday afternoon went into a shop in Third street, and, acting suspiciously, the proprietor paid close attention to him.

ASSISTANT ASSESSOR H. L. TARGART, of the Second ward, First district, has resigned, and received a highly complimentary letter from Assessor Kenney.

THIRD EDITION THE CLOUD IN THE EAST

The Agitation Increasing. Great Britain Arming.

The Spanish Throne. A Turbulent Time of It.

A Plot Against Frim. The Slave Trade Treaty.

A New Revision. Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

FROM EUROPE. THE EASTERN QUESTION.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—(Special to the New York Telegram.)—Orders have been despatched for the recall of vessels of war from every station, except such as are actually needed in foreign waters.

THE SPANISH THRONE. A Grand Overlook over the Throne Question.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—(Special to the New York Telegram.)—Our special correspondent at Madrid, in a despatch dated to-day at 10 A. M., states that immense excitement prevails in that city upon the throne question.

A Plot Against Frim. A determined plot has been discovered against the life of Frim. Five conspirators have been seized, and large supplies of revolvers, grenades, and poignards.

FROM WASHINGTON. THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.—Modification of the Treaty between Great Britain and the United States for its Suppression—the New Provisions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The additional convention between the United States and Great Britain has been published by authority. The three mixed courts of justice are abolished. The jurisdiction heretofore exercised by them is now to be exercised by the courts of one or the other of the high contracting parties.

THE WILD WHITE MAN OF KANSAS. Marriage of Comanche Bill to his Indian Squaw in Civilized Fashion.—Attempt of a Darkened Hind to Recover Satisfaction—A Life-long Indian Seeking his White Boyhood.

From the Kansas City Bulletin. The sequel to the "Comanche romance" transpired yesterday before Justice Hanson. The wild man, after being tried by the courts of one or the other of the high contracting parties, according to their respective modes of procedure in matters of marriage.

THE PRESIDENT AT WORK ON HIS MESSAGE. Special Dispatch to THE EVENING TELEGRAPH. WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The President refused to attend the meeting of the Senate yesterday.

THE FRIENDS OF CONGRESSMAN JENCKES, of Rhode Island, are pressing him for Commissioner of Patents. He has been named as chairman of the Committee on Patents in the House.

THE FRIENDS OF THE OFFICEHOLDERS. It is understood that the policy of the Administration is not to ask Congress to increase the pay of officeholders. A bill is now on foot in the Treasury Department and elsewhere to get the Secretaries to recommend in their annual reports an increase of salaries, but it is believed they will not do it.

JUDGE DENT, the brother-in-law of the President, has prepared a card in which he states that he did not visit Long Branch last summer to see the President about the McGarran claim, that he had nothing to do with it, and that he never spoke to the President on the subject.

REBECAN IS NOT AMBITIOUS. The Secretary of the Navy desires it understood that he is not a candidate for the United States Senate from New Jersey. He is in favor of Senator Carter, and if lower salaried than a candidate Secretary Robinson says he is for Mr. Frelinghuysen.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Cotton—Sales 1500 bales upwards at 16 1/2c; Orleans, 16 1/2c. Flour active, and advanced 50c; sales 12,000 bbls. Flour at $1.00; Ohio at $1.00; Western at $1.00; Southern at $1.00.

THE BIBLE. Its Circulation in the Prussian Army—320,000 Copies Distributed Since the Beginning of the War.

It is rather curious that one of the incidental effects of the war should be an immense increase in the diffusion of the Scriptures. The assemblage of large masses of men under circumstances peculiarly calculated to make them feel the uncertainty of life, and the religious character of the Prussian army opened a vast field to the operations of the British and Foreign Bible Society in the war.

THE FRENCH FORCES IN ALGERIA. MARSEILLES, Nov. 15.—The late advices from Algeria announce that General Tallemant has taken command of the French military forces there. In his address on the occasion he said his mission was simply to insure peace and order in the colony. He had no intention whatever of meddling with the civil authorities.

THE PRUSSIAN PRISONERS. TOURS, Nov. 16.—Advices from Orleans state that among the prisoners captured in the battle near there on the 9th were the nephew of the Prussian commander Von Der Tann and a general of the Prussians, who was Governor of Orleans during their late occupation of that city.
