The annual meeting of the contributors to the Preston Retreat was held yesterday afternoon at the institution, Twentieth and Hamilton streets. The report of the Superintendent was read, showing that during the past year there were 100 patients treated, and 102 births took place. The total number since 1866 is 366. The following gentlemen were elected managers:—John M. Ogden, Eli K. Price, Isaac F. Baker, George Thomas, M. D., Frederick Emley, John Wiggand, Charles T. Bonnell, Edward H. Ogden, George Peterson, Jacob F. Jones, John G. Cresson, William P. Sharpless, Joseph B. Townsend, Henry C. Townsend, Henry Haines, Charles Bullock, Joseph C. Timpenny, Adam C. Eckfeldt, Samuel R. Shipley, John C. Uhle, Joseph H. Trotter, Asa I. Fish, Robert C. Cornelius, William C. Biddle, Treasurer, J. Sergeant Price, Auditors, T. Morris Perot, Charles Wheeler. At the annual meeting of the Historical Society, held last evening, the old board of officers, consisting of John William Wallace for President, Messrs. Benjamin H. Coates, Horatio Gates Jones, Aubrey H. Smith, James L. Clapham for Vice-Presidents, James Ross Snowden for Corresponding Secretary, James Shrigley for Librarian, J. Edward Carpenter for Treasurer, and Samuel L. Smedley for Recording Secretary, were put in nomination for the ensuing year. The receipts of the Athletic Club last year amounted to $30,477.25, while the expenditures were $28,201.87. Of this sum $10,787.50 were paid the players. Domestic Affairs. The Legislature of this State was not in session yesterday. Gov. Haight, of California, announces that he is not a candidate for re-election. At an election held in Wilmington, N. C., the entire Republican ticket was elected. The Bricklayers' Union of the United States met in Pittsburg yesterday, and will continue its sessions until Saturday. The coal miners of the Schuylkill region will suspend their operations to-day, and the indications are that a general strike will ensue. The United States Consul at Paris, J. Meredith Head, after having interviews with Bismarck at Versailles, on Sunday proceeded to London. The Fenians recently released from the English prisons are to receive a substantial reception from their friends in New York upon their arrival in that city. The greater portion of the time of the House of Representatives at Washington was engrossed yesterday in the consideration of the San Domingo question, and the final vote on that subject will be taken to-day. Foreign Affairs. One hundred and fifty Americans still remain in Paris. Many Bonapartist agents have been arrested in France. Reliable reports from Paris are that Minister Washburne is well. In bombarding Paris the barracks of Forts Vanvres and Montronge have been set on fire and destroyed. The French redoubt at Notre Dame de Clamant was occupied by the Prussians, and its fire turned against the French. The Germans captured by the French are sent to the island of Oleron, on the west coast of France, opposite the mouth of the Charente. A detachment of the army investing Belfort stormed the village of Danjoutin, south of that city, on Saturday, and took 760 prisoners. King William telegraphs to the Queen that Frederick Charles continues his victorious advance on Le Mans, and that the bombardment of Paris is progressing favorably. Despatches have been forwarded to King William, at Versailles, praying him to respect the history of that city, as it was the scene of his coronation as Emperor of Germany. The advance columns of the German forces in the Valley of the Loire have reached Nogent le Rotron, Sarge, Savigny, and La Chartre, encountering obstinate resistance along the whole line. SUNDAY SCHOOLS. Anniversary of the Episcopal Association. The annual meeting of the Sunday-school Association of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in Philadelphia, was held last evening in the Church of the Epiphany, corner of Fifteenth and Chesnut streets. Rev. Dr. Richard Newton presided. The exercises were opened by singing the hymn "How beautiful are their feet." The annual report of the managers was read by Mr. Joseph C. Darlington. The report states that the association was formed on Tuesday, January 15, 1870, at a meeting held in the Church of the Holy Trinity. There are now 40 schools represented in the society, containing 1939 teachers and 23,976 scholars. A number of meetings have been held during the past year, in which various subjects connected with the Sunday-school work have been discussed by clergymen and laymen. The report recommends the opening of a room in some central location for the purposes of a library, and where teachers' prayer meetings and meetings for Bible study might be held. This would be peculiarly desirable in case a uniform series of lessons were adopted for all the schools represented in the society. Rev. M. A. De Wolf Howe, D. D., then addressed the meeting on the subject of the Sunday School in its relation to the Church. He claimed that the Sunday School was the great source of supply, the great proselyting ground for the Church. He thought that the children in the schools should be taught the distinctive doctrines of the Church; they should also be taught to love the liturgy of the Church, and to that end the liturgy should be used in the schools, and made attractive to the scholars by music, etc. Addresses were also made by Rev. Dr. Richard Newton and Rev. Dr. Butler. An election for officers for the ensuing year was held, when the following were elected:—

President—George C. Thomas. Vice-Presidents—Rev. Charles Fisher, Thomas Latimer. Corresponding Secretary—Rev. W. Percy Browne. Recording Secretary—Joseph G. Darlington. Treasurer—William H. Rhawn. Managers—Rev. Snyder B. Simms, Samuel G. DeCoursey, Robert Hney, M. D., John Zebley, Jr., Lewis H. Redner, Rev. Richard N. Thomas, William G. Boulton, William B. Whitney, Abraham Ritter, Rev. J. Houston Eccleston. ANOTHER EXPRESS ROBBERY. Held Attempt to Assassinate a Messenger—Escape of the Robber. The Albany Knickerbocker of Saturday says:—Our community was again startled last night by the report that another express robbery had been perpetrated, and the express messenger murdered. Upon inquiry we learned the following particulars:—The regular express train for Boston left the depot in this city at 9:20 P. M. It consisted of two coaches, a sleeping car, one baggage and one express car. In the latter was Thomas A. Halpin, the express messenger. He was alone in charge of the car. Soon after the train started out of the depot, and was about to cross the bridge, a man jumped in the car, and immediately discharged a pistol at Mr. Halpin. The ball entered the head, and he fell. The man then approached him as he lay prostrate in the car, placed the weapon close to his ear, and fired again, after which he recoiled nothing. There were three wounds, which proves that the robber fired three shots. One is under the right ear, another is in the right ear, and the third is through the neck. There is no doubt whatever that the villain intended to murder the messenger, yet the latter may live, although his chances are very slim. The man who had the key of the safe from Mr. Halpin's pocket, opened the safe, removed such treasure as he could lay hands on, and effected his escape. We are informed that the sum which was in the safe cannot be found, amounted to $2500. The messenger was severely wounded by the wounds in his head, and the robber was enabled to operate with perfect impunity. He undoubtedly thought his victim dead. He accomplished his purpose before the train reached the other side of the river, and of course fled. DISCOVERY OF THE CRIME. The train stopped on the other side of the river about ten minutes, and it was during this time that the robbery and attempted murder were developed. Some men standing near the express car heard a strange noise inside, and upon opening the door were horrified by seeing the messenger weltering in his blood, having recovered sufficiently to crawl to the door and make the noise that attracted the attention of those outside. His appearance told the whole story. EQUESTRIANISM EXTRAORDINARY. A Police Sergeant Rides a Steeple-Chase In Pursuit of an Embezzler and Effects his Arrest. Equestrianism is not an exercise peculiar to policemen. It comes handy once in a while, however, as the following will show:—John Hampden, illustrious name tacked on to the name of a sergeant for the Marlborough Fertilizing Company, of Farmington, N. J. By some means he managed to make his account $2000 or $3000 short, and fled the consequences. This was some months ago. Not many weeks since he was sent to the defunct company, that Hampden had taken up his abode at Blackberry Station, Kane county, Ill. Yesterday a member of the fertilizing company arrived here with an introduction to Captain Hickey from Inspector Dilks, of New York. The Captain advised the gentleman, whose name is Kinney, to take along Sergeant Buckley, the well-known armory officer. Accordingly, the pair started off. They reached Blackberry in time to find the chase on the platform there ready to take the Omaha train. It was evident that he smelt a multiplicity of mice for he was wide-awake and soon recognized Mr. Kinney. The fellow Hampden immediately struck across the fields with the view of distancing his pursuers. Sergeant Buckley immediately procured a procureur a horse and started after the fugitive. The Sergeant learned horsemanship in Ireland, and had no difficulty in taking the "stiffest" jumps right gallantly. On sped the embezzler, after him his pursuers in quick succession. Kinney, Kinney, Kinney, he called out, and at last the pursuit ended in the capture of John Hampden. Fortunately the capture was effected on the high-road, so the sergeant, having had enough of steeple-chasing, resolved to get back at his own leisure. So he placed the unhappy Jerseyite before him on the horse and bore him in triumph back to Blackberry Station; much in the manner that "Mickey Free" carried in the French prisoner at the "Passage of the Donro." The sergeant awaits the Governor's requisition before visiting his native State.—Chicago Republican, Saturday. MARINE TELEGRAPH. For additional Marine News see First Page.
