

FROM YESTERDAY'S FIFTH EDITION. FROM NEW YORK.

The Methodist Book Concern. New York, June 16.—The committee of the Methodist Book Concern, with Bishops James and Ames, met to-day to investigate the charges preferred by Dr. Carlton, agent of the Methodist Book Concern, against sub-agent Dr. Lanahan.

Mr. Fancher then stated the case for the prosecution by a recital of the court proceedings of Dr. Lanahan for a mandamus, which Mr. Fancher declared were founded on such assumptions of authority that it was deemed important to call the attention of the Book Committee to it.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, June 16.—The Secretary of the Treasury this afternoon decided that he has the power to hear the appeal of the New York Central Railroad Company from the recent decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, but that it is not necessary to do so for the due administration of the law or the protection of the rights of the company.

FROM THE WEST.

Mysterious Disappearance, Etc. Cincinnati, June 16.—William McAllister, clerk of the steamer Leonidas, has disappeared; nothing has been heard of him since Saturday at Louisville. He had been making collections for the steamer.

FROM NEW ENGLAND.

Illegal Distillery Seizure. Norwich, Conn., June 16.—Deputy Collector Royce, of the Third Revenue district, has seized the illicit distillery of J. Y. Bigelow in West Chester. Two stills and a quantity of cider and brandy were taken.

NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs.

The celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the elevation of Pius IX to the Papal throne was participated in by nearly every church in town yesterday. At the demonstration at St. Peter's, Fifth street and Girard avenue, was especially large and magnificent.

Domestic Affairs.

The brickmakers' strike at Washington has ended by the malcontents returning to their work at the old rates.

Foreign Affairs.

More Chinese hostility towards foreigners is reported. The principal towns throughout France are to be garrisoned.

OHIO.

VALLANDIGHAM ACCIDENTALLY SHOTS HIMSELF.—PROBABLE FATAL RESULT. Cincinnati, June 16.—Clement L. Vallandigham, counsel for the defense of Thomas McGehean, now on trial at Lebanon, Ohio, for murder, accidentally shot himself to-night.

Foreign Miscellaneous Items.

Out of the Tichborne trial has risen a very groundless canard, based on the death at sea last year of the third Earl of Aberdeen. Idle rumor has resuscitated him, and asserts that he is not only returning to England to resume his title and estates, but that he also brings a wife and son with him.

General Sherman in Kansas.

Could Not Draw Another Speech out of Him. From the Lawrence Republican, June 11. General Sherman, accompanied by Inspector-General Marcy and Colonel Turtelot, of his staff, came up the Galveston line yesterday in the passenger-car, with Major Ransom and Colonel Chanute, of that road.

not penetrate his intestines, and the wound, though dangerous, is not considered mortal. LATER PARTICULARS.—UNFAVORABLE SYMPTOMS.

Later despatches from Lebanon say Vallandigham was vomiting, which was regarded as an unfavorable symptom, and one of his physicians said there were indications of internal hemorrhage.

The doctors ceased their fruitless search for the ball about an hour after the accident. They then closed the wound and placed the patient on his right side. He was calm and collected.

It appears that no one was present with Vallandigham when the accident occurred but ex-Governor McBurney, who has been associated with him in the defense of McGehean.

McBurney had expressed some doubts as to the theory that Myers had shot himself. Vallandigham picked up a pistol from the table, saying he would show him in a second. Two pistols were on the table, one unloaded, and he by mistake took up the loaded one and put it in his pocket and withdrew, keeping the muzzle next to his body.

Just as it was leaving his pocket it was discharged, it is reported, at nearly the same part of the body where Myers was shot. He ejaculated, "Oh, murder!" and said he had taken the wrong pistol.

While the examination was going on he writhed the surgeons with eager eyes, and even assisted them in searching for the ball. The ball appears to have taken a downward course, in the direction of the bladder.

LATER.—The symptoms are growing more unfavorable. His pulse is above one hundred, and the surgeons do not appear hopeful.

Still later advice states that his hands and feet are growing cold. He vomits often, but throws up no blood. The physicians say he is sinking fast. His pulse is rising.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—At ten minutes past twelve this morning Mr. Vallandigham was still conscious, but in great pain. Internal hemorrhage is the probable cause. His physicians pronounce his condition very serious, and there seems hardly a possibility of his recovery.
