

OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN. SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS.

PRESBYTERIAN.

The average salary in the Presbyterian Church South, not counting the city churches and professors of seminaries, is $650, being an average increase of $150 in three years.

The Presbyterian Church in Augusta, Ga., now stands in the midst of a venerable forest of majestic oaks that cover the four acres in the heart of the city that was appropriated for this purpose.

The report of the Education Committee illustrates the progress of the Southern Church. In 1866 there was one candidate for the ministry; in 1867, one hundred and twenty-one. In 1868 the amount contributed for this object was $215; in 1871 it is $18,871.

The Rev. A. C. Stuart, from the Presbytery of Central Ohio, has been, after the usual examination, received as a member of Green-brier Presbytery.

The Bowling Green Democrat states that the large fine residence and beautiful grounds of Mr. Alexander Price, in that city, have been purchased for $13,000, and the deed for the property made to the First Presbyterian Church (Rev. Mr. Smoot's), for the purpose of establishing there a first-class Female College.

Forty-five additions to the Williamsville church, Virginia, on the profession of their faith, were reported at their last communion. This is one of the missionary fields in Lexington Presbytery, which is thus, by the blessing of God, revived and saved from extinction. Previous to this meeting it reported only twenty-seven communicants.

The report of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions of the Southern Presbyterian Church mentions the death of six missionaries of the Choctaw mission within three years, and the death of one and the return of another from the China mission during the year past. The receipts from all sources the past year were $27,295.72, being $432.41 in advance of the previous year.

The Rev. John Pinkerton, pastor of Mossy Creek church, Augusta county, Va., departed this life on Wednesday, May 31. His death had been long expected.

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly met at Nashville, Tenn., May 18. The Rev. J. B. Logan, of Alton, Ill., was chosen Moderator. The Board of Missions reported receipts amounting to $16,400.104. The subject of engaging in the foreign mission work came before the Assembly in an overtone from one of the presbyteries, and in the report of the committee, and was discussed at much length. It was stated that one young man was consecrating himself to this work, and had offered himself to the board. A proposition was made to co-operate with the American Board, but this was objected to on the ground that the American Board had become denominational, and such action would lead to inconvenient complications. A resolution prevailed to instruct the Board of Missions "to ascertain if possible the best method of entering upon the work of foreign missions, proceed to raise funds for that purpose, and report to the next General Assembly." Steps were taken to organize two presbyteries of colored Cumberland Presbyterians into a separate synod. Interesting letters were read from Scotland in relation to the Evangelical Union in that country. A total of 5000 conversions and 4500 accessions to the Church was reported for the year.

In the United Presbyterian General Assembly at Xenia, Ohio, the special committee on union with the Presbyterian Church reported, approving the action of the joint committee appointed last year, and expressing encouragement at the advance toward union which has been made—although "the result of the negotiations is such as to show that the churches are not prepared for organic union." Considering organic union ultimately possible, they recommended the appointment of a committee to continue the negotiations. The report was adopted. The committee consists of the Rev. Drs. D. R. Kerr and J. G. Brown, the Rev. W. J. Reid, and Messrs. W. M. Gormley and George Reid. The total number of members reported is 71,744; of congregations, 514; of ministers, 563; of Sunday-schools, 601. The receipts of the boards (including balances at the beginning of the year) were:—Foreign Missions, $48,344.65; Home Missions, $28,793.67; Freedmen's Missions, $12,271.58; Publication, $27,500.31; Church Extension, $15,624.33; Education, $654.20. Total, including other miscellaneous funds, $107,626.51.

BAPTIST.

The Rev. J. L. Curry, D. D., of Richmond, Va., has been elected President of Georgetown College, Kentucky. He was a member of Congress many years ago, and also served in the Rebel Congress.

The Christian Union says:—"The Rev. Dr. George B. Ide writes to the Watchman and Reflector that he has found a song 'manifestly intended to be sung at the sprinkling of infants,' in the new hymn book published from this city for the use of Baptist churches. 'This Popish farrago,' much to the Doctor's surprise, has the endorsement of twelve D. D.'s of the denomination, 'some of them the very creme de la creme of Baptist orthodoxy.'"

The Rev. John G. Oaken commenced preaching the gospel in Hamburg in 1833. Since that time 50,000 persons have been baptized in various cities in Germany. He commenced his ministry before ten persons behind a locked door.

The two Baptist conventions reported a united force of nearly five hundred home missionaries in the domestic field, and the remarkable statement was made that the Baptist membership in this country averages one member to every twenty-eight inhabitants.

The National Baptist says:—"It will be remembered that in October last a committee from the Ohio Christian (Disciples) Missionary Society visited the Baptist State Convention, with a message of fraternal sympathy. This delegation was kindly received, and the convention appointed a committee to return the visit at the next meeting of the Missionary Society. This meeting was held on May 25th, and the Baptist committee presented an address. It is an excellent paper—frank, explicit, and clear. It will be accepted by the denomination at large, and think us sound in doctrine and correct in form. The Missionary Society received the communication with thanks for its kind spirit, candor, and magnanimity," and appointed a committee "to attend the next Baptist Convention of the State of Ohio, and make a suitable response. The Cincinnati Christian Standard, the ablest weekly journal published by the Disciples, reviews the whole question in a fraternal Christian spirit. It expresses itself as 'entirely satisfied with the movement thus far.'" It pronounces the spirit of the Baptist reply "altogether unobjectionable," and adds:—"Their statements of differences makes the controversy between us quite narrow, and a single sentence will dispel some of these differences forever.

They have presented some matters of real difference, however, which should be handled with great wisdom as well as with great faithfulness. We unhesitatingly express our conviction that, giving all due weight to these differences, there is no sufficient reason for continued alienation; and that, when we all come to understand the true basis of Christian fellowship, these differences will not prove insurmountable."

An Educational Convention for the Southern States has been called by the American Baptist Educational Commission, to meet at Richmond, Va., beginning July 4.

METHODIST.

The Rev. Dr. Kidder, of Garrett Biblical Institute, at Evanston, Illinois, has been elected Professor of Pastoral Theology in the Theological Seminary at Madison, New Jersey, in place of the lamented Dr. John McClintock, who died some time since.

The Rev. Dr. E. G. Andrews, of the New York Central Conference, pastor of the Seventh Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Brooklyn, has been elected President of the Wisconsin State University, located at Madison.

The Rev. W. J. Gladwin, Presiding Elder of the Southwest Arkansas district, St. Louis Conference, and the Rev. J. H. Gill, of the Garrett Biblical Institute, are under appointment as representatives for the Methodist Episcopal mission work in India.

Dickinson College last week conferred the honorary degree of LL. D. upon Postmaster-General J. A. J. Creswell, and the Rev. E. R. Ames, D. D., a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It also conferred the degree of D. D. upon the Revs. B. F. Brooke and E. A. Johnson.

The Methodists are about to erect, right under the nose of Brigham Young, in Salt Lake City, a Gentle Methodist church building, to cost some $30,000.

A year since the Rev. J. H. Wagner, of Lancaster, Pa., a minister of the Reformed Church, went over to the Roman Catholic Church. Recently Professor C. H. Budd, of Franklin and Marshall College, and also the wife of the Rev. J. H. Wagner, have followed him into the Romish communion. Professor Budd was not a member of the German Reformed Church.

The Rev. Dr. E. E. Higbee has officially informed the Board of Visitors of the Mercersburg Theological Seminary of his purpose to resign his professorship in the seminary. The term of service in the theological tutelage for which the Rev. J. B. Kershner was appointed has expired. The board also learned from him that he had no desire to be continued in this relation to the seminary.

FRIENDS.

The National Yearly Meeting of Orthodox Friends was held in New York last week. One of the sessions was devoted to the interests of first-day schools, the importance of which was first recognized by this society only about two years ago. In answer to a communication from the quarterly meeting at Farmington, a committee was appointed to devise a plan for holding public meetings as a means of regaining the zeal of the forefathers of two hundred years ago. A proposition for holding a general conference, to which ten European meetings in America and the two in Europe should send delegates, was referred to a committee of thirty-nine. It is not proposed that this conference have power over the Yearly Meeting, but that it be simply an advisory body. In October, 1870, the society had twenty-four freedmen's schools in operation in this country. At no time during the year have they had less than twenty-one schools in operation. About forty members of the society are in contact with the Indians of the Central Superintendency.

CONGREGATIONAL.

As the fruits of the late revival at Suffield, Conn., the Congregational church received fifty-five new members lately—fifteen by letter and forty by profession. Nineteen were baptized, and others are to be received at the communion early in July.

The Andover Conference allows each church a representation of six delegates besides its pastor, which delegates may be either male or female; and at its annual meeting just held in Lowell, Mass., out of sixty-nine delegates present twenty-five were females, from ten different churches.

A new building, to cost between fifty and sixty thousand dollars, is to be erected for the theological seminary connected with Oberlin College.

JEWIS.

The Board of Delegates of American Israelites recently held its annual meeting in the Nineteenth Street Synagogue, New York. Thirty congregations were represented, each by two delegates. The Malmonides College, in Philadelphia, was reported to be in a languishing condition, having only three pupils. A Hebrew Publication Society was organized, which is to print during the first year Gratz's "History of the Jews," a portion of the Bible in English, and a translation of Girgiz's "Gabirol."

The Jewish Rabbinical Conference met in Cincinnati, June 6, with Dr. Hubsh, of New York, as President, and Dr. Lidenthal, of Cincinnati, as Vice-President. Twenty-three congregations were represented. The report of the Committee on the Establishment of a Rabbinical Seminary in favor of that measure was adopted, and the committee were instructed to report a more detailed course of study. A report was adopted for the establishment of a union between the Israelite congregations in America. It provides that when twenty reform congregations, with 2000 members, shall have joined the union, the first synod shall be called. A modernized Prayer-Book is to be prepared, with allusions to the return of the Jews to Palestine, and to the ideas of sacrifices and a personal Messiah omitted. A more complete Sabbath-school organization is to be effected.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Dr. Dollinger has made up his mind to submit to the sentence of excommunication—that is, he will not celebrate or receive the Sacraments privately or publicly, nor even attend public worship. On the other hand, Dr. Friedrich, who was excommunicated the day after Dr. Dollinger, has declared his intention of ignoring the excommunication altogether.

Grand Duchess Mary puts her trust in prices, and will marry Louis of Bavaria. Vanderbilt's new depot at Forty-second street, New York, will be ready July 1. "The Girl in Arlio" is called a drama with Scotch trimmings. They are declining banquets now in Paris; and but a few days since eating horse.

The Climates at North Adams are treating the girls to ice-creams. The name of Columbia Territory should at once be changed to African terror.—Chicago Times. "Grave-digger Jim" is the drollish cognomen by which an editor of Portland, Oregon, is distinguished. "They do play such lovely sacred music at my daughter's," said a pious but deaf old lady. "There's one piece in particular that is so solemn and devoutful. The city bells will ring 'The What she did hear was, 'The girl left behind me."
