EDUCATION & LEGAL NOTICES.

BOARDING & DAY-SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Superintended by Miss BERCIER.
THE proximity of this Institution to the town, offers all the advantages desirable for a house of education.

The students will be the object of constant and assiduous care and solicitude. Miss Bercier will exert herself to develop in her students the qualities of the heart, as well as to form and cultivate the faculties of the mind. She is convinced that any instruction to be fructuous and solid, must rest on moral and religious basis. The English language will be taught by a lady, attached to the institution.

The course of instruction will embrace a progressive course of reading, writing, the study of the French and English languages, arithmetic, geography, history and all kind of needle work.

The terms per quarter are as follows:
Instruction, $ 9 00
Boarding, 24 00
Music, 18 00
Opelousas, 11th Dec. 1852.—3m.

PROFESSOR DEMPSTER,

BEGS to inform the parents, and guardians of children in St. Martinsville, that on Monday first, the 8th of November, his classes will be transferred to the house formerly occupied by Mme. Fretchou, Port street, where he will be happy to receive his former pupils.

Having secured the services of a french professor, the classes in that language will be conducted with the same attention as those in English.

But perceiving the peculiar importance of the English language; and that, in this quarter, the knowledge of it has now become essential. Mr. Dempster has determined that the classes in English shall be made at both sittings of the school, forenoon and afternoon; and the children (except those learning french exclusively) shall be required to speak only English, as well at recreation as in school.

Pupils may enter for either language, or both.
N. B.—Pupils coming from a distance, can be boarded with an excellent family.
Terms, " " $4 per month.
St. Martinsville, Nov. 6th 1852.

BOARDING AND DAY-SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES.

Superintended by Mrs. Renaud, (born Traber,) in Opelousas.
THE proximity of this institution in the Town of Opelousas, (Late Residence of Mr. Labiche), affords a most convenient, and healthy situation; the dormitories, classes, study rooms and of recreations leaving nothing to desire.

The students will receive the principles of a good and solid education, based on a religious instruction.

The course of instructions will embrace lectures adapted to the advancement of the students, Writing, the study of the French Language, and more particularly the English, Geography, the Spheres, Arithmetic, Sacred History, ancient and modern, and all descriptions of needle work.

All the french classes are under the direction of Mrs. Renaud, Superintendent of that institution.
The English language, to which a particular care will be granted, will be taught by a special mistress.

Morover, an under-mistress, speaking the french and english languages, is expressly charged of the continual superintendence, required in a Young Ladies' institution. In their recreations, their dormitories and at study, and in all their occupations, they shall never be alone.

Every thing concerning the personal service of the students is confided to a white servant.
Each student must be furnished with one mattress and bolster, one red counterpane, one musquito-bar, one cover, one table knife one tumbler.

UNIFORM—A straw hat trimmed in white.
For Winter—A grey merino dress, trimmed with black velvet.
For Summer—A rose and white dress.
The bed cloth and dresses is left to the choice of the parents.

The terms per quarter are as follows, to wit:
Institution,—1st class, $ 12 00
" 2d class, 10 00
Music, 18 00
Boarding, 25 00
Opelousas, December 18th 1852.—3m.

Regular Packet

Between N. Orleans and Opelousas.
The new and fast running steamer
RED RIVER,
DORSEY, MASTER.

HAS commenced running as a regular packet between New Orleans and Opelousas, for the season.—No expenses or pains have been spared to make her equal to any boat of her class on the River, and is well adapted for the Bayou navigation. Every exertion will be made by the Captain to accommodate the public. Freight will, at all times, be carried as low as on any boat in the trade. For freight or passage, apply on board.
