

THE COURIER. PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING BY JOEL H. SANDOZ & ANDREW MEYNER.

Opelousas: SATURDAY, JANUARY 19th, 1856.

OUR AGENTS. The following gentlemen are authorized to collect and receive subscriptions and advertisements for the Opelousas Courier, in their respective towns: AUGUSTE MARADET, St. Matthews, (La.) ARTHUR BULLIARD, Brown's Bridge, (La.) A. MILLEPAIN, Washington, (La.)

We are authorized to announce that Mr. CHARLES COOKE has become a candidate for a seat in the Police Jury of this Parish, from the 2nd Ward, comprising Gros Chevreuil, Grand Coteau and Coulee Croche, at the election which will take place on the second Monday of May next.

We are authorized to announce Mr. A. M. PERRAULT as a candidate for Town Constable of the town of Opelousas, at the election which will take place on the first Monday of April next.

A MASTER-PIECE OUT DONE.—We have lately purchased Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was the Ultima Thule in its line, and that nothing had been or would be invented which could surpass it in its fine points of excellence as a medicine.

We call the attention of our readers and particularly of the heads of families, to the advertisement headed 'Franklin Institution, in another column of our present number.

This Institution is one of the most popular in our town, and deserves a continuance of the liberal patronage of our community.

The two branches of our Legislature will meet on Monday next, 21st, at Baton-Rouge, in conformity with the law.

FIRE AT VERMILIONVILLE.—The large and new stable of Mr. John Rigues of Vermilionville, was reduced into ashes on Tuesday last, at about 8 o'clock in the evening.

At the time of the fire, the Crescent City Circus was performing in that town, and three ring horses, and several draft horses belonging to the same company perished in the flames.

As a coincidence, we may state that last year, about this time, and while Mr. Mabi's Menagerie was performing in that same town, the hotel and stable of this same Mr. Rigues were then burnt to the ground.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The provisional directory of the southern Pacific railroad, under the charter granted by the Legislature of Louisiana, on the 16th March, 1855, give notice that a meeting of said directory will take place in New Orleans, on the 25th inst., for the purpose of organization, opening books of subscription for stock, etc., at which meeting it is earnestly hoped that all the members who can possibly attend will be present.

LOUISIANA.—John H. Overton, Emile La Sere, Chas. G. Young, M. O. H. Norton, Sam'l W. Oakley, Wm. H. Goodrich, Robert J. Ward, Albert Pilo.

South Carolina.—John S. Preston. Virginia.—James Lyons. Georgia.—George W. Crawford. Alabama.—Thomas Fearn. Tennessee.—R. C. Buckley, John Overton. Mississippi.—Nicholas D. Coleman. Texas.—Middleton T. Johnson. Missouri.—James H. Lucas. Kentucky.—George Hancock.

An unfortunate editor in Kentucky, thus addresses his delinquent subscribers: "Friends, we are almost penniless; Job's turkey was a millionaire compared with our present depressed treasury.

THE WEATHER IN CALIFORNIA.—We clip the following from the California Press of the 12th inst. The Orange Trees hereabouts are nearly all killed, and the few crops of Cane standing at the time are completely blasted.

STREANBOAT ACCIDENTS.—In 1854, the number of steamboat accidents on the rivers, lakes and bays, of this country, attended with loss of life and injury to person, was 48; the number killed 587; and the number wounded 225.

One who claims to be a judge of pig, says: "Last spring I bought a little pig from a drove, and he was for eating, but would not grow much.

A Paris letter writer mentions the probability of a political union between France and Germany, with Louis Napoleon as Emperor King.

EFFECTS OF EMANCIPATION.—The following is extracted from the American Statistical Annual for 1854, relating to Jamaica.

From papers recently laid before the British Parliament, it appears that since the emancipation of the slaves, more than 600 estates in the island have been abandoned. These one gave employment to 40,000 laborers. The number of estates abandoned or partially abandoned from January, 1852, to January, 1853, was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Value. Includes Sugar Est. Coffee, Country Soils, Abandoned, Partly abandoned, Total acres.

The language of the late Governor General, Sir Charles Grey, on the condition of this island, is instructive. "The fertility of its soil and fitness for both tillage and pasturage, the richness and variety of its vegetable products, the alternation of mountain and valley, the numerous hot springs and medicinal waters, the known existence, of various and valuable minerals, the timber and ornamental woods of its forests, the abundance and variety of fish on its coasts and neighboring reef, indicate peculiar facilities for the promotion of the future wealth and prosperity of its inhabitants and warrant the hope that, low as it fallen, it will not be permitted to relapse into utter barbarism.

Everything, however, indicates that such must be the fate of this beautiful and fertile island, unless its social elements be speedily changed. The process of its downfall is being accelerated every year.

"Ion" the well known Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, thus writes on the 14th inst., as regards the probable results of the contest for the Speakership of the House. We cannot perceive how Mr. Fuller, who is an anti-Nebraska Fusion Whig, and his Know-Nothing, Fusion and anti-Nebraska friends can unite on one who stands on the platform, endorsing in full the principles of the Nebraska bill, and which was unanimously adopted by the Democratic caucus, unless the consent to abandon entirely the ground which they have occupied before the face of the nation, since the opening of the session.

"Stand fast" is the watch-word of the Free-Soil party, as well as that of the Democratic party. Telegraphic messages from various parts of New York and New England are received here in numbers by the anti-Nebraska members, urging them to stand fast for Banks, Greer, Gardner tells them to stand, and so do Clark and Lieut. Gov. Raymond, and the General-in-Chief, Mr. Wood, and, for the most part, they show no reluctance to comply with the admonition. They will stand for Mr. Banks until some combination shall be formed for the election of Mr. Fuller, or of Col. Richardson.

The adoption of the plurality vote would probably elect Col. Richardson under the present state of things. The thirty or forty votes now thrown upon Mr. Fuller will not be transferred to Mr. Banks, but may go to Col. Richardson. The issue is now between Banks and Richardson—and this issue is accepted by the anti-Nebraska organs in the Northern State. The middle ground is abandoned by both sides.

The leaders of the anti-Nebraska party assert that a fortnight hence, they will elect Mr. Banks. They want time to bring the party machinery in Ohio, New York and Indiana, to bear upon the eight refractory members who have, so far, refused to vote for Banks. But before this machinery can be brought into operation, the question will have been settled by a combination of the Fuller and Richardson strength.

Last year the citizens of Clinton, La., decided by a majority of about three to one that no liquor licenses should be granted in that town. A vote was taken a few days since on the same question, and "license" obtained a majority of eleven.

The Hon. John Slidell has introduced a bill in the U. S. Senate donating public lands to the various railroads in Louisiana. Also, one to improve the mouth of the Mississippi. He also presented the petitions of Cesar Wallace and R. D. Livingston, praying the confirmation of their titles to certain tracts of land; and is ever attentive to the interests of his constituents, and the commercial prosperity of the Crescent City.—South Western.

"KNOW-NOTHINGISM IN NORTH CAROLINA.—A despatch from Wilmington, North Carolina, states that at the municipal election held in that city, a short time since, the Know-Nothing ticket was elected by a vast majority. At the last election the K. N. carried Wilmington by a majority of nearly five hundred! North Carolina is fast getting rid of the few remnants of the order which her borders.

A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says that he has conversed with several leading men from the "land of saints," who say that Utah will apply for admission into the Union as a slave state. One of them is the principal merchant in Utah and holds no less a station than that of apostle in the Mormon church. He declared that he and all the apostles—there are twelve of them, in imitation of the twelve Christian apostles—owned slaves, and that Brigham Young owned slaves.

A correspondent of the Washington Union, who subscribes himself "An Old Whig," says: "Let me the Whigs be humbled, because their party has been swallowed. The whale swallowed Jonah; Jonah was heard of afterwards, but the whale never.

SENATOR RESIGNED.—The Hon. William T. Palfrey, the Senator from the parish of St. Mary, has resigned his seat. He was, we believe, the only Whig left in that body, his companions having abandoned him for the new attractions offered by Know Nothingism.—Lafayette Union.

DANGER OF A HIGH FLOW.—It is often a question among people who are unacquainted with the anatomy and physiology of man, whether lying with the head exalted, or even with the body, be more wholesome. Most consulting their own ease on this point, argue in favor of that which they prefer. Now, although many delight in bolstering up their heads at night, and sleep soundly without injury, yet we declare it to be a dangerous habit. The vessels through which the blood passes from the heart to the head are always lessened in their cavities when the head is resting in bed higher than the body; therefore, in all diseases attended with fever, the head should be pretty nearly on a level with the body; and people ought to accustom themselves to sleep thus, to avoid danger.—Ex.

THE MAN THAT KISSED THE THREE GIRLS.

A young man who boarded at a house in the country where several coy damsels, who seemed to imagine that men are terrible creatures, whom it was an unpardonable sin to look at, was one forenoon accosted by an acquaintance, and asked what he thought of the young ladies with whom he boarded. He replied that they were very shy and reserved.

"So they are," returned the other, "and as much so that no gentleman could get near enough to tell the color of their eyes."

"That may be," said the boarder quickly, "but I will stake a million that I can kiss them all three, without any trouble."

"That you cannot do," cried his friend, "it is an achievement which neither you nor any other man can accomplish."

The other was positive; and invited his friend to the house to witness the triumph. They entered the room together, and the three girls were all at home, sitting beside their mother, and they all looked as prim and demure as John Rogers at the stake.

Our hero assumed a very grave aspect, even to dejection, and having looked wistfully at the clock breathed a sigh as deep as algebra and as long as a female dialogue at a street door. His singular deportment now attracted the attention of the girls, who cast their slow opening eyes upward to his countenance. Perceiving the impression he had made, he turned to his companion, and said in a doleful voice:

"It wants three minutes of the time?" "Do you speak of dinner?" said the old lady, laying down her sewing work.

"Dinner!" said he, with a bewildered aspect and pointing as if unconsciously, with curled fingers at the clock.

A silence ensued during which the female part of the household glared at the young man with irrepressible curiosity.

"You will see me decently interred," he said turning away to his friend.

His friend was as much puzzled as any body present, and his embarrassment added to the intended effect; but the old lady being no longer able to contain herself, cried:

"Mr. C., pray what do you speak of?" "Nothing," answered he in a lugubrious tone, "but last night a spirit appeared unto me," (here the girls rose to their feet and drew near.) "and the spirit gave me warning that I should die exactly at 12 o'clock to-day, and you see it wants but half a minute of the time!"

The girls turned pale, and their hidden sympathies were at once awakened for the doomed and departed one. They stood chained at the spot, looking alternately at the clock, and the unfortunate youth; he then walked to the oldest of the girls, and taking her by the hand, bade her a solemn farewell. He also imparted a kiss upon her trembling lips, which she did not attempt to resist. He then bade the second and third farewell in the same manner. His object was achieved, and that moment the clock struck twelve. Hereupon he looked around surprised: "Who would have believed that an apparition would tell such a lie?" It was probably the ghost of Annias and Sapphira.

It was sometime before the sober maidens understood the joke, and when they did, they evinced no resentment.

"Napoleon Alexis Dobbs, come up here and say your lesson. What makes boys grow? It's the rain, sir."

"Why do not men grow?" "Because they carry umbrellas, which keeps off the rain."

"What makes a young man and woman fall in love?" "Because one of 'em has a heart of steel, and t'other with a heart of flint, and when they come together they strike fire, and that is love."

"That's right, my boy. Now go and plague the gals."

THE GRAVE OF MADISON.—A correspondent of the Fredericksburg News, in Culpeper county, Virginia, gives a melancholy picture of the last resting place of the illustrious Madison. He lies with his family in a graveyard a short distance from his house, upon the estate of Montpelier; the family cemetery is surrounded by a brick wall, and the gate is entirely down. The correspondent says that not a stone marks the great man's resting place; dark, running green box warts with verdure, and the tracery of branches from an old leafless chestnut tree, relieving itself against the warm azure sky, nod and wave over the dark mountain. 'Tis a solemn, calm, and peaceful spot.

The correspondent adds that Mrs. Madison's remains are in the vault of the congressional burial ground in Washington; her direction was to be interred by the side of her husband, but her son has never fulfilled her request.

ECONOMY IN WIVES.—A young married woman, who has not had the opportunity of profiting by the advice and example of a good mother, will find some difficulty at first in spending her money to the best advantage; for there is really an art in spending money, though it is getting rid of it. Some women will keep house respectably and plentifully on one-third less money than will be required by others, or without even meanness or illiberal dealing. But to do this, judgment, forethought and experience are necessary. One woman shall be able to tell you how much her housekeeping costs to a shilling, while another cannot guess within ten. The former has method, rule, regularity, and a certain sum assigned to her; with the latter it is all hazard—it comes and it goes, she neither knows how nor cares. And this is almost sure to be the case if the money is doled out by her husband in a few shillings at a time.

PERFORMING IN TWO CITIES ON THE SAME NIGHT.—As a specimen of the facilities for speedy travel nowadays, H. C. Jarrett, the manager of the Baltimore Museum, and of the National Theatre, in Washington, arranged for the talented performers, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams, to appear at the Museum on next Wednesday night, at the National, in Washington, on the same night. What would have been thought some years since of an announcement that the citizens of two cities forty miles apart would have had the pleasure of seeing the same performers on the same night. They would have been suspected of calling to their aid some superhuman power but now it is accomplished easily by means of steam and an extra train.—(Baltimore Sun, Nov. 22.)

DIVIDING A STATE.—A resolution passed both branches of the General Assembly of the State of Florida, authorizing the inhabitants of West Florida to vote upon the proposition of seceding from that State and uniting themselves with the State of Alabama. Also, a bill appropriating under the last census, the representation in each branch of the General Assembly.

THE FOLLOWING IS WORTHY OF BEING COMMITTED TO MEMORY BY EVERY ONE, ESPECIALLY CHILDREN:

Great Washington was number one, Then Socrates administered the law, Jefferson made the number three, Then Madison, the fourth was he; Monroe, the fifth, just thus came in—The sixth, an Adams came again, And eighth, we count Van Buren's name; Then Harrison made the number nine, Then tenth, John Tyler filled the line. To be the eleven, as we know, Fillmore, the thirteenth, took his place, And Pierce is fourteenth in the race.
