

THE COURIER.

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING BY JOEL H. SANDOZ AND WM. H. SPENCER.

Opelousas, Saturday, March 31st, 1860.

We are requested to announce that the solicitation of many friends, Mr. CYRUS WINGHAM has become a candidate for Town Constable, at the election of April next. [Feb 11, 1860.]

We are requested to announce that JOHN McCORMICK is a candidate for Town Constable, at the election of April next. [March 17.]

TO OUR PATRONS.
Those who owe the Courier Office, either for subscription, advertisements, or otherwise, are earnestly requested to come forward, settle up and thus avoid the disagreeable visits of a collector. If we place our accounts in collection it certainly will not be from a desire to annoy our debtors, nor as a matter of economy. We will make a deduction of 10 per cent for all those who will come and pay their accounts before the 15th of April next.

Hope that the call will be understood and well responded to by our friends, we improve the present occasion to thank them and the public for the liberal patronage which they have extended, and are still extending towards us, and to assure them, that if we do hereafter send a collector to them, it will only be because circumstances compel us to do so.

JOHN McCORMICK FOR TOWN CONSTABLE.
We would not disparage the claims which either of the other gentlemen who ask the suffrages of our citizens for this office, may have upon the people of Opelousas for their support, but we beg to give our readers reasons why Mr. McCORMICK should be selected as our next Constable.

John McCORMICK is a native of this place, is well and favorably known to all its inhabitants, as an honest, sober and industrious man, who never yet failed to attend faithfully to any business entrusted to his care. Left fatherless and poor at an early age, John, ever since, has been the son of a good mother and orphan sisters. With energy and persevering perseverance he is endeavoring to work his way up to competency for himself, sisters, mother and wife. An appreciative public should second his efforts. But, these are not the grounds upon which we think the voters of Opelousas ought to support him for Constable, but because he is honest, he is competent, he will do his duty, and he is, and always has been right on the ground.

On Monday next, Opelousas expects every man to do his duty.

ADVERTISERS.
Should bear in mind the fact that the circulation of the Opelousas Patriot is the largest of any newspaper printed in the Parish of St. Landry. (Opelousas Patriot.)

The above notice is copied from the Opelousas Patriot of "other days." In the pride of compressed strength, the Patriot, an opposition journal, wrapped her robes of office about her, flung her defiance to the breeze and complacently sucked life draughts of public pay from the ever gurgling and willing treasury of the Democratic Parish of St. Landry, occasionally trying with the empty dug of our town treasury. The Police Jury still continues to pay its pet, but "the light of other days has faded" and her proud flag is trailing in the dust, without even a call from her foe to surrender. Some months or two weeks ago, the Patriot struck her flag, without warning and gave no sign.

We believe that happiness, won in fair battle, are kept as trophies of war, and following the old Roman custom, do not stop at the goal, but march on from an enemy, with a slight change of name, our country's flag will flourish being seen at the masthead of the Opelousas Patriot.

By this fair representation of the interests of the people of St. Landry, and doing our whole duty to the public as journalists, we are happy to have the right to defend their honor, which, which shall be our business in every way and at every cost.

COMMUNICATED.
On Monday next there will be an election, in our town, for Constable and town Constable. On that occasion, it would be well for the voters and specially for the voters to consider that the town of Opelousas is already heavily taxed, and in debt therefor, Opelousas needs able men in her council to advise, and a good Constable to execute her laws. In view of these things, we think the following notices should command the support of our voters.

FOR TOWN CONSTABLE.
Dr. James Ray, Jr.
A. H. King.
James B. Daniel.
Maxim Perreault.
For town Constable—John McCORMICK.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—A lad about twelve years of age, named Charles McPeak, was shot in the head, and in all probability mortally wounded, on Sunday last, by his elder brother, Thomas McPeak. The accident occurred in the office of G. L. Adams & Brothers, No. 21 Front street, where Thomas was employed as a clerk. The report of the gun caused the neighbors to go in; they found the boy lying on the floor, his brother landing over him, and passing his forehead to keep the blood from the eyes. No other persons were present when the accident occurred, and it is believed that the elder brother being leaning on the counter, and leaning from him as to the number of the account. The gun was found lying on the floor, how it had been discharged no one could explain. The wounded boy was carried away on a cot, and it was not thought possible for him to live. The distress of the elder brother, who is a native of St. Landry, and the firmness of his grief is beyond description.

THE REPUBLIC OF MIRAMON.
Our city is all in a flutter at the startling news from Mexico. The republican army of Miramon, unsuccessful at the battle of Miramonte, has been driven to the Gulf of Mexico, and is now in the hands of the Emperor Maximilian.

AGAIN AMONG THE APPREHENSIVE.—The smiles of our advertising friends will gladden our hearts, as we walk the streets and, now and then, peep in at the beautiful wares, and continue to receive as the last vestiges of Winter disappear, and the glorious Spring of the South bursts in brightness over woodland and prairie.

If you like following nature's fashion and putting on a new dress, just step in to Mr. Christian Morningside's, The Merchant-Taylor of Opelousas. Here you will find a complete assortment of ready made clothing, made under Mr. Morningside's own supervision, of elegant and durable material and after the most fashionable cuts. The ready made suits are made to the most fashionable taste, but if you are traps d'été for the day, carefully stored away along the shelves are cloth, hats, cassimere, and other rich stuffs, from which you may choose any article you may desire to see your own notions of style and fashion. Grégen politely fits his customers in clothes and language, speaking German, French, English and we know not how many more modern tongues with equal facility. Now, if you have got a fit, we'll walk out and pay a short call to Hans Industrie, as exhibited by Mr. George Polford, the skillful manufacturer of all kinds of saddles, harness, whips, etc. If you are fond of showing your equestrian stride of a prancing steed, or if you love to hold the ribbons over a 2.40 nag and about "give long," there's the place to rig out. Let's go.—We sell fresh leather!

Now, if you want your picture taken, there's friend Kellogg, just over the way, ready to do you up in a case of style, at short notice. "Secure the shadow ere the substance fade." Hark, if you are after the substantial, Mr. Antoine Christian can supply you and perhaps furnish a little labor to boot; if he's out, walk round to the St. Landry's and you are sure to get some of the best. My, you have one "lills due" that you would like to put in collection, if so, see Madame, Borne & Gradenigo, collectors, are just the men you are in search of; they bring delinquent debtors to a lively sense of favors conferred as quick as any body you know. We are not so certain if they're not after you now with a sharp stick—let's go!

Frank Delano.—If you want a new watch, clock, some jewelry, or even the old repaired, it is at the corner, ready to accommodate you; but—Frank says he must have the cash!

Mr. Noel Larcade will feed your horse, furnish you with a fresh horse and buggy, sell you cigars, or do almost any thing else in the lively street of Opelousas. Noel's a stirring fellow. Adieu, you must be either hungry or dry by this time, and if you are.

Mr. Raphael Hottier has just returned from the City with a fresh supply of eatables and drinkables. "Bolt" is a clever fellow, and any thing in the grocery line will be peddled out to you at his establishment at reasonable prices.

Now we'll go to the office, dot down what we've seen, and next time walk through a different street.

At the corner of Court and Bellevue Streets, there is a Carriage Depot, kept by Messrs. Gubbe & Clark. Here we find buggies, rock-walks, hacks and sulkeys, together with harness, whips and poles, all at New-Orleans prices for cash or city acceptances. These gentlemen do good work and sell good wares.

Across the way, you will notice that Mr. Jean Martin, a son of La Belle France, keeps a Family Grocery Store, where you may get all kinds of provisions, fruits and the best Havana Cigars. Close by, on the same side of the street, is Mr. J. Hens, tailor. Mr. Hens' cutting and making are good, and he works low for cash.

Next door to Mr. Hens is Herman Bodenmuller's Barber Shop. Mr. Bodenmuller can give you the nicest shave and the sweetest tune on the violin of any man in Opelousas; besides, he teaches music on the violin and guitar, repairs mechanical instruments and tunes pianos. We'll take a cigar and go home.

I. K. L. Nourishing Remedy! Invented and prepared by P. MARMAY. THE inventor of this new and invaluable remedy has taken patents in France, England, Scotland, Ireland, Belgium and the United States. The most chronic constipation yields to this invigorating Guel; it must be taken twice a day, once in the morning and once in the evening, in the shape of a soup. The Guel is pleasant food, and requires no particular diet; it excites the appetite, and acts favorably on the digestive organs, and cures more or less rapidly, but surely always, in every disease of the stomach, such as: Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Heartburn, Megrims, Sick Headache, Pains in the Stomach, Costiveness, Vomiting, Chronic Diarrhea, &c., &c. The invigorating Guel is taken in different ways, with bread, with milk, or sweetened milk—with or without the orange-flower water. A spoonful of it is sufficient, and should be put in boiling milk and remain 15 or 20 minutes. To be taken morning and evening. The use of P. Marmay's SANITARY GUEL has produced most salutary effects, which we hasten to make known to the public at large. Among all its other good qualities, which are universally acknowledged, it has been found to be highly useful and beneficial to Women in the state of Pregnancy, and that it facilitates their delivery. It also improves positively the quality and increases the quantity of Milk of Nurses. To other kind of milk compared to it, it may be administered without fear to the youngest children; it refreshes and strengthens them, and preserves them against a great many diseases peculiar to their age. We may therefore confidently recommend it to every family. Every one-pound paper of the SANITARY GUEL contains thirty-two portions for one person. They are all signed by P. MARMAY, Inventor and Patentee. For further particulars apply at the General Depot, No. 44 Conti-street, between Chartres and Royal-streets, New Orleans. For sale, wholesale and retail, by A. OPPELOUSAS INSTITUTION.
FOR THE EDUCATION OF YOUNG MEN. UNDER THE DIRECTION OF DR. J. A. DELARUELLE, PRINCIPAL, Professor of French and Latin. W. C. LEWIS, Professor of English and English Literature. BEING a resident of this locality, for the last 10 years, having assisted Mrs. J. H. Sandoz in the direction of her school for Young Ladies, founded in the year 1844, and which terminated only in her death last foundation, I expect to be able fully to answer the expectations of those parents who have confided the education of their children to me. I will do every thing that depend upon me to assist the development of their intelligence, and as far as it may be possible, to improve in them those intellectual qualities which ought to be the characteristics of men whom the citizens of a free country may one day call to fill the high stations in government. I shall do all that depend upon me to make those good citizens and good fathers of families. For this purpose a liberal education, free from contracted and intellectual ideas, the offspring of ignorance and superstition, nor ordinary companion. Though the God is as rational as we are, the Divinity differ as to the way they prove one and the same object, that is to say, homage to the Great Creator, the Architect of the Universe. Our religious motto should then be: "The glory, love of God and our neighbor." Every attention will be bestowed upon the studies that are profitable and the same object, they shall be encouraged in their young minds.
