The Steamer Trenton leaves Washington this morning at 10 o'clock.

The communication from J. M. T. is crowded out of this issue, but will appear in our next.

An Act of Congress of interest to shippers and transporters of cattle will be found on our second page.

The heavy rains of the last few days have caused a rise of 12 or 15 feet in the Bayou Courtableau, and permitted the steamer Trenton to reach Washington. The Bertha will probably also be enabled to land there on her next trip.

The District Court began its session here on Monday last. The Grand Jury was immediately formed, and entered at once upon the discharge of its functions. The Petit Jury and witnesses in criminal cases (except those who were to testify before the Grand Jury) were discharged until next Monday, the Court, meanwhile, having taken up the civil docket.

Four individuals residing on or near the Mermentau river, in this parish, were arrested and committed to jail on Monday last, accused of murder, that of having hanged two men named Francois Benoit and Thibodeau near Magnaud's Ferry, about the 28th inst. The accused are Philisse Broussard, Onézime Cormier, Jean Roger, and Dupré Plaisance. After a preliminary examination before Justice Venzie, in our town, their case was sent up to the District Court which has been in session here since Monday.

On last Monday evening, at about 9 o'clock, two young men from Bellevue, William McDowell and Straight Watson, had a difficulty on the sidewalk in front of Mr. Meyer's store, on Main street, and from words they came to blows, when McDowell drew a dagger or Bowie knife and stabbed his antagonist three times in the chest and abdomen. The wounded man bled profusely, and it was feared at the time that the wounds were mortal; but we learn that he is doing very well, and that he is not considered in danger.

McDowell was immediately arrested.

FACTS.—The advertisement of Mr. E. Phillips, in another column, is sufficiently explicit to need no elaborate explanation,—what is there stated is intended to prove to the entire satisfaction (and profit) of all. There is no doubt that his immense stock is one of the most select and complete in town,—and yet he is adding to it by every trip of the boat from New Orleans. His very low prices, in keeping with the stringency of the times, the adoption of the cash system, and the superior quality of his goods cannot fail of securing large and rapid sales, and we advise an early call while his stock is complete.

The attention of the delegates to the Anti-Kellogg Convention in New Orleans is called to the following extract from the minutes of the Committee of Seventy, at the meeting held October 29, 1873:

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to make arrangements to entertain the members from the country to the November Convention, by citizens of New Orleans, during their attendance upon the sessions of said Convention.

Adopted unanimously.

The Chairman appointed John H. Peel, J. H. Kennard and H. E. Shropshire.

E. JNO. ELLIS, Sec'y. pro tem.

We copy as follows from the Lake Charles (Caledonia) Echo of the 1st inst.:

Our District Court adjourned sine die last Monday night. It is scarcely necessary to say that our able and energetic District Attorney, Geo. W. Huisepeth, Esq., fully sustained his deserved high reputation as a prosecuting officer. Judge J. J. Morgan, though occasionally ill during the term, and suffering severely from the effects of fever, remained at his post till all the cases but one on the civil docket were disposed of, and would have remained to try that case but for his approaching long term of the District Court in St. Landry, which commences on Monday.

NOTICE.—Parties indebted to this Office for subscription, advertising or job work are earnestly requested to come forward and settle without delay. We have urgent need for the money—to indulge in expensive luxuries, but to pay our employees and to purchase the necessary material to continue the publication of our paper, principally "for glory," and in order that the numerous opponents of the Kellogg usurpation and other frauds in our Parish may have an organ upon which they can depend to express their true sentiment, at this, the most momentous crisis of our history.

The Mass Meeting last Monday.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and the bad condition of the roads, there was a large attendance of the people of this parish at the Mass Meeting held in this town, on Monday, the 31st inst., to appoint delegates to represent the parish of St. Landry in the Convention of the people to be held on the 24th, in New Orleans. Our fellow-citizens, were gratified to perceive, responded manfully to the call published in our paper. By their attendance, close attention to the proceedings of the meeting, and expressions of hearty sympathy with the sentiments expressed by the speakers on the occasion, they gave strong evidence of their approval of the object of the meeting, and of the design and aim of the call for a Convention.

The meeting was organized by calling Dr. Thos. A. Cooke, of Washington, to the Chair. Mr. Cyrion Lalonde, of Gros Chevreuil, was selected as Vice President, and Mr. Albert Lastrapes, of Opelousas, Secretary. The President stated the object of the meeting, and requested that the names of fit and proper persons, to represent this parish as delegates to the Convention, be put in nomination. Previous to going into the nomination of delegates, however, Mr. Jos. M. Moore addressed the meeting, reminding gentlemen of the great importance to the entire population of this State, white and black, of the ends and objects of the Convention to be held on the 24th, in New Orleans. He stated that he believed that every man present, every honest and intelligent man within the parish, it mattered not what may hereafter have been his political affluities, felt the necessity pressing upon this people for overthrowing the infamous and detestable usurpation that had been fastened upon us by fraud, force and the patent violation of the laws and Constitution of the State and Federal Government; and that such men throughout the State were in full accord with the patriotic citizens who had recommended the calling of the Convention. He stated that in the present unpromising condition of our people, it would not be surprising if a full delegation should not attend; but he hoped that as many of those who might be selected as delegates as could possibly do so, would attend; "for," said he, "this may be the last time that you may have an opportunity of declaring and recording your opposition to and abhorrence of the usurpation that hangs like a pall over us, paralyzing our energies, crushing our hopes, and threatening us with ruin, political bondage, and deep and grinding degradation; and it may be the last effort that you may be enabled to make to throw off, by means strictly lawful, strictly peaceful, this accursed evil." He said that the people of New Orleans were moved in this matter by a spirit of deep and earnest patriotism; that, fully aware of the poverty that prevailed throughout the country, they had made arrangements to entertain the delegates from the country parishes free of charge, and he hoped that our people would show a proper appreciation of such patriotic conduct, and as many of the delegates attend as could possibly do so. He was sanguine that good would result from the labors of the Convention, and gave in an impressive manner forcible reasons for his belief. Mr. Moore was followed by Mr. E. D. Estlette, who thought that it was of the utmost importance that a respectable delegation from this parish should attend the Convention; "for," said he, "whatever may be the result, it behooves us to make an earnest effort to overthrow the vile usurpation which is grinding white and black alike into the dust." The Kellogg Government was a fraud, and had been so pronounced last winter by Congress, and it would reflect upon the manhood of our people if they allowed their liberties to be wrested from them without a struggle. E. T. Lewis, Esq., followed Mr. Estlette. He had not much hope of any change for the better being accomplished by the Convention. He thought that the opportunity for resistance had gone by. Last winter was the time when resistance should have been made, and if then should have been made to the death, if necessary. He believed in resisting such an usurpation, such unlawful and tyrannical power as that which has been forced upon the people of this State, in every way—by force, if necessary—aye, even at the cost of human life. But the opportunity was gone; and as long as the sphinx at the national capital desecrated the seat once occupied by Washington, he had but little hope for a redress of our grievances. A list of the gentlemen put in nomination as delegates to the Convention was then handed to the Secretary by Dr. J. A. Tarlton, to be read out to the meeting, and, on motion of that gentleman, those whose names were on the list were unanimously selected as delegates by the meeting. Whilst the Doctor was up, he, in words burning with the fire of patriotism, urged the people never to give up the battle for their rights and their liberties. He drew a sad but truthful picture of the condition of our tax-ridden people; alluded to the long lists of property advertised to be sold for taxes, and predicted that if this Kellogg infamy were perpetuated, the liberties of white and black would go down together in one common grave. He was not opposed to the Kellogg Government because it was administered by Republicans, but because it was a fraud, born in infamy and supported by bayonets, and because instead of protecting it plundered and oppressed the people.

The temper of the meeting was that of men conscious of the great danger that their liberties that surrounded and threatened them, and ready to resort to any means that would avert it. Of this we had abundant proofs in the applause of the speakers who greeted the denunciations of the speakers of the fraud and usurpation that had been practiced upon us, and their appeals not to submit quietly and tamely, but resist as long as resistance was possible the perpetration of a spurious and unlawful government, foisted upon them through fraud and violence.

THE SOUR ORANGE.—The Juice of the sour orange is little inferior to that of lemons for lemonade and most cooking purposes. The bitterness being in the skin, by peeling them first but little or none comes with the juice. Yet thousands of them are suffered to go to waste when lemons are very scarce, or to be had at all.—P. Mass Meeting.

Pursuant to a call of the "Committee of Seventy" dated September 24th, 1873, a Mass Meeting of the people of the parish of St. Landry was held at the Court House, in Opelousas, on Monday, the 31st of November, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Mass Convention to be assembled at the city of New Orleans on the 24th day of November, 1873.

The meeting was organized by the selection of Dr. T. A. Cooke as President, Cyrion Lalonde, Esq., as Vice President, and Albert Lastrapes as Secretary.

Resolved, That the presence of this police force from New Orleans, has produced, and now producing, dire effects upon a portion of the population of Grant and the adjacent parishes. Bad negroes commit crimes, assault in their own belief of impunity from punishment, and we do not desire to know, and are not desirous to know, and are not desirous to know, that we understand that the government under which we live is for the protection of the white people as well as the black, that the white people have at least as many rights as the black, and all have the same duty of obedience to law to observe, and if those having or claiming authority do not dispense equal justice to all, we will take care of ourselves, and of those to whom we owe protection.

Resolved, That our attitude of complete passivity, and our acquiescence in the usurpation of the laws of this State, or of the United States, as an acquiescence or voluntary submission to the usurpation of the laws of the United States, is a dishonorable and a degrading proceeding, and we do not intend to be so treated.

Resolved, That we will not be intimidated by the military force of the United States, and we will not be intimidated by the military force of the United States, and we will not be intimidated by the military force of the United States.
