Soda Water at the Opera House Drugstore.

The chronic kicker usually kicks himself out of joint.

The weather has been unusually warm during the past two weeks.

Cool and delicious soda water at the Opera House Drugstore.

The average telephone girl has a large collection of rings.

It's peculiar that the biggest expenses in married life are the little ones.

Come and examine and correct your assessment before June 30th.
After that date it will be too late.

Braud's soda water is ice cold and deliciously flavored—at the Opera House Drugstore.

The Louisiana House of Representatives has passed a bill making Jefferson Davis' birthday a legal holiday in this State.

When you take your prescription to the Opera House Drug store you run no risk. It will be filled by a registered pharmacist.

The United States Circuit Court, Judge Bearman presiding, met here last Monday and adjourned the same day. There was very little business to transact.

"Clay" and "Whippowill" fresh peas—to eat at night or day as you please—the very best brand, kept constantly on hand by F. L. San-doz, Bridgeville.

The President and faculty of Spring Hill College, Mobile, Ala., have favored us with an invita-

Orleans. The public are cordially invited to attend.

The torch lighted in China may set the world on fire. The nations are hurrying there, like wolves around a dying deer, each waiting for its share. It is easy enough to overthrow the Chinese Government but when it comes to dividing the spoil, there will be trouble.

Maj. Gen'l J. A. Chaloron, commanding the Louisiana Division U. C. V., has issued an order announcing a convention to take place at Memorial Hall, New Orleans, on Thursday, June 28th at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing a Major General. Each camp will be allowed the same representation as at the Louisville reunion. R. E. Lee Camp of Opelousas is entitled to seven delegates.

Sheriff Swords and his efficient deputies are gradually systematizing the various departments of his office by which the business will be conducted in a more rapid and satisfactory manner; for instance daily reports are made from the collector's office, from the jail and all civil and criminal matters to the main office, so that the status of every department can be seen at a glance at the close of each day.
This is a good move and will obviate the possibility of errors and facilitate the transaction of business.

Capt. J. P. Smith, of Bellevue, informed us this week that after having suffered heavily by the loss of several head of stock from charbon, a disease still more fatal has appeared by which he has lost several fine mules after an illness of only a few hours—some of them in first-class condition and of apparent good health at night were found in a dying condition next morning. A careful examination of the animals after death failed to disclose any trace of disease either in the heart, liver or stomach or any other organ examined.

Married.

FIRNBERG-WILLIAMS—At the Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday, June 12, 1900, at 2:30 o'clock p. m., Mr. JOSEPH FIRNBERG and Miss JOSEPHINE WILLIAMS, both of this place, the Rev. Dr. Rosenpitz of Alexandria officiating.

At least an hour earlier than was anticipated on this bright and long-to-be-remembered occasion, an immense assemblage of our people, together with the relatives and many admiring friends of the young couple from abroad, had gathered to witness the ceremony attendant upon their marriage.
The building was filled to its utmost capacity, and there was not standing room for those who were not fortunate enough to secure a seat.

The church was brilliantly lighted and richly decorated with evergreens and potted plants of every description, which presented a pleasing scene upon which the eyes of those present feasted while they eagerly awaited the arrival of the bridal party. Upon entering the door the crowd was so dense that the contracting parties and their attendants were compelled to make a considerable pause, after which they proceeded up the aisle under the influence of a select wedding march tastefully rendered by Miss Melanie Jagou and Mr. Charles Heno, in the following order: Little Josie Saizan as Flower-Girl or Maid of Honor; the bride, beautifully attired and accompanied by her uncle, Thos. H. Lewis, Esq.,— who afterward gave her away—and the handsome groom, attended by his sister, Mrs. Sam Weil, of Alexandria, who at one time was an acknowledged belle in Opelousas and is still a very handsome woman; Miss Daisy, a sister of the bride, Mrs. Thos. H. Lewis, Mrs. Dr. J. P. Saizan and other relatives of the happy pair occupied the front seats and were of course near at hand.

Immediately after taking their places in front of the rostrum, Rev. Dr. Rosenpitz, (Rabbi) preceded in dignified and pleasing terms to impress upon the affianced couple the duties incumbent upon each in the marriage state and to announce the requirements that are consistent with their faith under such circumstances. This done, the marriage ceremony proper was most impressively performed, and after receiving the congratulations and good wishes of a host of friends the new-made man and wife left for home rejoicing. Altogether the marriage ceremony on this occasion was in the opinion of your reporter one of the brightest and most imposing that has ever taken place in Opelousas. The Courier wishes them a long life of analogous happiness.

The St. Landry High School Alumni, consisting of the graduating classes of 1895-6-7-8 and 1899, organized at the High School building last Saturday, by the election of the following officers to serve for six months: Austin Fontenot, President; Miss Virginia St. Cyr, Vice-President; Jno. N. Ogden, Jr., Secretary; Miss Rosa Del Bueno, Treasurer. By-laws and Constitution were drawn up, and a committee of twelve, with Mr. Peyton R. Sandoz as Chairman, was appointed to arrange a banquet to be tendered the graduates.
The Association then adjourned to meet again on the 21st instant to hear the report of this committee.

The administration seems to be in a bad way. What with rogues in Cuba, incompetents at Paris and spelmans as judges at Buffalo? The sooner the President decides to stick to civil service principles, instead of boss rule in selecting his appointees, the better the country will like it.

Speaker Sanders has been figuring in a unique manner and has reached the result that Gov.
Foster was a private citizen for just the space of two hours and thirty nine minutes, the time intervening between his vacancy of the Governorship and his election to the Senate.

The appointment of Assessors for the several parishes of the State will not be made before the latter part of the year. Postulants for these positions are not lacking and they will have to calmly and patiently await the time when Gov. Heard shakes the big plum tree.

B. F. Parry, the popular veteran fireman will be in St. Landry during June, July and August, ready to do any job in his line. Orders through the Ope-lousas Postoffice will receive prompt attention.

June 2, 1900.
Bear in mind that you can get your job work done at this office.

Personal.

Aaron Loeb, of Crowley, was here Sunday.

Thos. H. Lewis, Esq., was called to Crowley on legal business Thursday.

Mrs. J. B. Clements, of Baton Rouge, is visiting her parents and other relatives here this week.

Miss Estelle Sandoz is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. Biennu at Lafayette, since last Sunday.

Jules Gil, Esq., of Shuteport, was in town attending to legal business before the District Court last Wednesday.

W. C. Lewis and wife and little grandson, of New Orleans, have been spending some time with relatives and many friends here.

Thos. H. Lewis, Jr., formerly of this town, now of Natchitoches, came home the first of the week and was present at the Firnberg-Williams marriage on Tuesday night.

Auditor W. S. Frazee came up from Baton Rouge last Saturday for a short visit to his family and many relatives and friends, returning Tuesday accompanied by his little son "Will."

Miss Daisy Williams, one of the village belles, left Wednesday for Opelousas to attend her sister's wedding to take place next Tuesday. She will return in about two weeks. — Iberville South, June 9.

We received a pleasant call last Wednesday from Mr. A. D. Marcott, of Bellevue, a rising young mechanic. Mr. Marcott kindly remembered the Courier with a small amount. Come again, Mr.
Marcott, you are always welcome.

Mrs. Birdie H. Reynolds attended the reception at the St.
Charles Hotel, New Orleans, last Wednesday in honor of the State Sponsor and her Maids of Honor, representing the Sponsor of E.
E. Lee Camp U. C. V. of Ope-lousas.

Police Jury.

Our new Police Jury met last Monday evening with the following members present: D. Jurio, J. K. Sandoz, J. P. Smith, Jas.
Darby, Jules Quibodeau, W. F.
Clopton, Jno. J. Fontenot, W. M.
Prescott, Homer Savant, Sam'l Haas, R. L. Derouen, Dr. Paul Foster, Judge E. H. McGee, who was too ill to attend, was the only member absent. Dr. W. F.
Clopton was elected president pro tem. E. H. McGee was elected President and J. J. Healey Clerk, unanimously. (without opposition) after which the Jury went into executive session. After executive session it was announced that Robt. Lafleur was elected Treasurer, E. B. Dubuisson, Attorney and Jules Sit-touri, Janitor. The Jury then adjourned to Tuesday morning.

On Tuesday the Police Jury got down to steady business, made appropriations for building and repairing bridges and roads, appointed road overseers, approved bills and did much other routine business until Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock when it adjourned to Monday, July 2d.

Peace in Africa—War in Asia.

As one war is ending another seems about to begin. The British occupation of Johannesburg, announced in yesterday's dispatches from Lord Roberts, appears to bring the fight against the Boers within measurable distance of a conclusion. But at the same time the disorders in China have come to a head, and threaten new troubles to which the South African difficulty may appear only as the prologue before the play. The Chinese Government is either breaking down or is in collusion with the forces of anarchy. The powers have been compelled to interfere, and when British, Russian and Japanese guns are neighbors on Chinese soil the gathering is of quite a different nature from the Hague Conference.

The policy of the United States will be to try to hold China together. But if that cannot be done, powers without accident insurance policies will do well to stand from under the pieces.—

Because they are the newestswellest suggestions from fash-hold your interest in these offer-desirable—the kind that mean thrifty buying—values that will bring you back again and again.

School Matters.

The report of the committee appointed by the School Board to examine the cash book of the Parish Treasurer, who is ex-officio the Treasurer of the School Board and the custodian of its funds, is a very interesting document. It is published in another column and deserves careful perusal. It throws a flood of light on several important subjects, the mystery surrounding which has heretofore been impenetrable—the cost to the taxpayers of the handling of the public funds, for instance—and while all the light desirable has not yet been obtained, now that a corner of the veil has been lifted we may hope that further information will soon be forthcoming.

In regard to the compensation of the Parish Treasurer, we remember that last fall or winter, in a discussion which arose between a correspondent of this paper and a correspondent of the Clarion, the latter, who was understood to be one of our leading citizens and therefore supposed to be well posted on the subject, asserted that this compensation was only $500 per annum, which, owing to the responsibilities of the position, was not considered excessive. But this correspondent, whose good faith we do not for a moment question, was very much mistaken, as we shall show a little later. The fact is that he, like the mass of the people, has been kept for years and years in utter ignorance on this point. For many years the question has been asked, but never authoritatively answered, and such financial statements as the Police Jury has from time to time published have shed no light whatever on the matter. Finally, some years ago, probably in response to renewed demands for information, a rumor was put afloat—no one ever knew from whence it came—to the effect that the Treasurer's salary was $900, and the impression generally prevailed, until last fall or winter, that this was the actual figure. Then the Clarion's correspondent, in response to the protest of the correspondent of this paper against paying a treasurer when the parish had a fiscal agent, asserted that the treasurer's salary was only $500, and that the law required that one be appointed. The report which we publish, however, shows that about $700 per year have been paid for several years for the handling of the school funds alone. Now, if we add the $500 (or more) which is paid for the handling of the parish funds, which are much more considerable, and then do a little guessing—that's all we can do—as to the cost of the fiscal agency, we may begin to get some idea as to the cost to the taxpayers of the handling of their funds after they leave the tax-collector's hands.

This is too great a leakage, entirely too great, and our leading citizens should at once take measures, if necessary, to secure the enactment by the General Assembly, at its present session, of a regulation whereby this 2½ % commission, on which this compensation seems to be based, may be reduced at least one-half. In parishes having a revenue of $20,- 000 or $25,000, 2½ per cent commission might be very well, but in large parishes like St. Landry 1 per cent is ample.

We will refer to other matters touched upon in this report at another time, and in the meanwhile we again commend it to the attentive perusal of our readers.

Washington, D. C., News.

From our Regular Correspondent.
Washington, June 11, 1900.
The administration is worrying over the news from China. The revolution of the "Boxers" threatens to expose Mr. McKinley's imperialistic programme concerning China in advance of the Presidential election, which is just what he was anxious to avoid. In their anxiety to allay public suspicion at home, members of the administration have been doing some word-juggling that would be amusing if the matters involved were not too serious to laugh about. For instance, official statements to the press from the State Department have emphasized the alleged instructions to our Minister at Pekin, and to Rear Admiral Kempf, our Naval Commander in Chinese waters, to act in concert with European powers for the protection of foreigners and their property but not to join a combination of powers for any purpose. Our representatives over there must be clever indeed if they can act in concert with the European powers without combining with them.

A marked feature of the political situation is the genuine scare of the Republican leaders over three states which they have heretofore

Motherhood

THIS event in the life of a woman is looked forward to with a feeling akin to horror—not because the little one is not welcome, but because the mother dreads the direful consequences to herself. Those long hours of agonizing labor stand out before her like a hideous nightmare. An improper delivery, followed by child-bed fever, may end the scene in a few short days, leaving the little one motherless. But there is another side to the picture. If women who are expecting to become mothers will commence the use of the greatest female tonic, regularly as directed a few weeks before confinement, and continue its use until the organs are restored to their normal condition, the hours of labor will be shortened, the pain lessened, and recovery complete.

which contains much valuable information regarding pregnancy and motherhood. It is free.
