North Settlers Convention.

The Northern Settlers' Convention, which will be held at Galveston, Texas, April 21st, 22nd and 23rd, and ending for its object a heart-to-heart communion between the Northern residents, and the residents from the North at present located in Louisiana, has met with such hearty approval that the Southern Pacific has promise of the attendance of the Governors of the following States: these gentlemen to be accompanied by members of the official staff: Gov. Terrill of Georgia, Glenn of North Carolina, Mickey of Nebraska, Davis of Arkansas, Cummings of Iowa, Blanchard of Louisiana and Lanham of Texas. A very cheap round trip rate will be announced within the next few days and the bringing back of parties from the North, and parties from the North at present located in Louisiana, will result in what is conceded to be the greatest advertisement Louisiana has ever received from an immigration standpoint.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism, and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? This remedy is for sale by all druggists and dealers in patent medicine.

Enemies are Necessary.

You have no enemies? Then you never dared to stand up for the right against wrong, you have never protected the weak against a bully, you have never even dared to protect your own rights against oppression. Had you done any of these things you would have made enemies. Even if you had done none of these things, but simply achieved a little success in your own business than did your neighbor, you would have an enemy, for failure hates success. The man who has no enemies should be ashamed of it.—Central, Mo., Courier.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smith, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me and saved my life. Since then I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." A strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1.00 bottles at all druggists. Trial bottles free.

President Potts, State commander of the National Cotton Association, has employed the State officials and the State politicians to canvass for less acreage. This gives some of them the first opportunity since the last primary to show they are in the land of the living. You can't lose a Louisiana politician.—Shreveport Journal.

Not the dyed-in-the-wool Blanchard kind. They will stick closer than crabs, which makes the peacock strut and gaze about to see if he is observed.

Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough, oppressed, rattling, rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, druggist, Shullsburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1901: "I have been selling Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 50c, 50c, $1.00 a bottle. Sold by F. C. Roger & Son, Arnaudville.

Has the President the courage necessary to carry on a reform movement against the corporations which now control the Republican party? The answer to the question will determine the place the President will occupy in history.—Commoner.

Don't expect too much from "Teddy," Mr. Bryan. He is carrying water on both shoulders. First thing you know he'll claim that he's a better Democrat than you are.

Rheumatic Pains Quickly Relieved.

The excruciating pains characteristic of rheumatism and sciatica are quickly relieved by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by all druggists and dealers in patent medicine.

"Will kissing cure freckles?" writes a Castleville (Mo.) girl to the Review. "That depends upon what the freckles are suffering with. However, it's a good scheme to try it, anyway," replies the Review.

This poor girl evidently has a bad case of freckles.

Cures Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 635 Lake St., Topeka, Kansas, says: "Of all cough remedies Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—to speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant to the taste." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by F. C. Roger & Son, Arnaudville.

We have just an idea that when general Bob Snyder and adorable Jared Sanders meet on the stump to reduce cotton acreage, neither will talk in his sleep.—Shreveport Journal.

No, but through a megaphone, to keep their hearers from going to sleep.

Frightful Suffering Relieved.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poison of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lala, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowal disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 50c at all druggists, guaranteed.

Antediluvian Methods.

[Communicated.] Instead of perfecting plans to asphalt some of our streets, the town authorities are frittering away the public's money by importing high-priced bricks and dumping them along some of our main thoroughfares. Such antediluvian methods might have passed muster about one hundred years ago, but they are entirely out of date in this day and generation. We hate to see public money wasted, but we do hope that all this work will be ripped up next year, when we hope to get a progressive Board and a few asphalted streets.

The Good Old Way.

A severe cold or attack of la grippe is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to cure a cold or influenza. The best and most reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boesche's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater honor and use than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old-fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, and the irritation, and effectively stops the cough. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. Trial size bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by Sandoz, the druggist.

We occasionally meet a woman whose old age is beautiful as the bloom of youth. We wonder how it has come about, what her secret is. Here are some of the reasons: She knew how to forget disagreeable things. She did not expect too much from her friends. She made whatever work she had to do a pleasure. She retained the illusions and did not believe all the world untrue, wicked and unkind. She relieved the miserable and then sympathized with the sorrowful. She never forgot that kind words are a small cost nothing, but are priceless treasures to the discouraged. She did not let others as she would be done by, and now that old age has come to her and there is a halo of white hair about her head she is loved and considered. This is a secret of a long and happy life.

HEALTH IS YOUTH.

Disease and Sickness Bring Old Age.

Herbina, taken every morning before breakfast will keep you in robust health, fit you to ward off disease. It cures constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, fever, skin, liver and kidney complaints. It purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Mrs. D. W. Smith, Whitney, Texas, writes, April 8, 1902: "I have used Herbina, and find it the best medicine for constipation and liver troubles. It does all you claim for it. I can highly recommend it." 50c a bottle. Sold by E. C. Roger & Son, Arnaudville.

Invaluable as a medium for keeping in touch with the gubernatorial campaign now on in earnest.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Troubles—No Family Can Afford To Be Without It.

"I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as one of the very best remedies for bowel troubles," says Mr. J. W. Hanlon, editor of the Dispatch, Ocala, Georgia. "I make this statement after having used the medicine many times for several years, and never without success. No family can afford to be without a bottle of this remedy in the house. It is certain to be needed sooner or later." For sale by all druggists and dealers in patent medicine.

Mr. Rockefeller has just given one hundred thousand dollars to the Congregational Board of Missions. Now if the board will use the money in an effort to show Mr. Rockefeller that, as a trust magnate, he is guilty of more wrong-doing in his following than any other wealthy man known to the public, his donation will be well spent.—The Commoner.

As Mr. Oilfeiler is in the fat-frying business, he probably intends to extend it to the heavens, so as to be first in the field through his agents, the missionaries.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety. I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand since, as I find they have no equal." Sold by all druggists, who guarantee them; 50c.

The assertion that Mr. Garfield's report is unsatisfactory is not quite correct. It is entirely satisfactory to the beef trust.—Commoner.

The beef trust no doubt also made it satisfactory for Mr. Garfield. In the meantime, "the people be damned!"

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no hotter remedy. It is a dandy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 50c, $1.00. Sold by F. C. Roger & Son, Arnaudville.

"NO SUN, NO AIR."

These lines are dedicated to the "human" coal barons, who jeopardize the lives of their faithful employees, as witness the numerous mine explosions where many of the coal barons' victims lost their lives, whose widows and orphans are left penniless. These are the men who declare they were chosen by God to administer the affairs of their fellow beings, but instead are serving the devil, as they are creating a hell on earth.

This is an appeal to the newspapers throughout the country to take this matter up in the interest of humanity and to obtain proper legislation for the protection of the lives of men and women employed in dangerous occupations. Let the coal barons and their exploiters have little protection after their provider has been torn from them by the merciless hand of greed. My next subject will be "Child Labor."

"No sun, no air," sighed the millionaire; "No sun, no air," his victim's despair. The millionaire still disatisfied. His victim's needs remain unsatisfied.

"No sun, no air" provides the millionaire; This heaven-sent gift he will not share; His victim's needs remain unsatisfied. To enrich this soulless money shark.

The millionaire's mind is at ease. While the life of his victim he does squeeze; He is a child of an adult that is afflicted. Until death from torment him does release.

If the millionaire's wealth would share. With widows and orphans found every where. And the poor man's life would try to cheer. His selfish wants would disappear.

Let the people combine, with a united press. To enforce the laws and tyranny suppress. Then the tortured victim will get sun and air. Which the millionaire will not admit is fair.

The millionaire and his victim most die. And appear in judgment on the Court's high. Before a Tribunal which is just and true. Where the millionaire's will get "sun and air."

Opelousas, La., April 15, 1905. J. C. Pierce.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for their children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs, and elderly people buy it for a grippes," says Moore Bros., Elgin, Ill., "We see it more than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other brands." There is no question but that this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures, and cures quickly.

For sale by all druggists and dealers in patent medicine.

Too Late, Boys!

Jared Sanders and Bob Snyder are trying to perjure Jastremski's primary election and curtailment of executive patronage thunder, but it is too late, boys; the people will never permit either of you to crawl out of your hideout to do so, and did I not endeavor to secure political prominence at the expense of the only man in the State of Louisiana who had the courage to espouse the cause of the people and champion their rights at a time when to do so meant and did incur the hostility of and invite proscription by the political "machine" then and now, unfortunately, through its successor, in full and unlimited control of the political destinies of the people of Louisiana.

It appears that something near a legion of politicians seeking to ride into office on popular wave, have but recently awakened from a Rip Van Winkle sleep to a realization of the fact that the people are in sober earnest in demanding the immediate restoration of their rights, but never a single one of them, who had some time ago, in their favor, had not Jastremski inaugurated and popularized the crusade for the abolition of executive patronage and an iron clad primary election law. He alone of all the candidates seeking preferment at the hands of the people, had the courage to espouse a then unpopular cause, the others evading the burning issues at all times and under all circumstances.

Jastremski is the logical candidate for governor in 1908, and if the people have any gratitude for heroic services rendered they will elevate him to the position which by right he should be occupying now.—Alexandria Democrat.

Heart Weakness.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has made many hearts well after they have been pronounced hopeless. It has completely cured thousands, and will almost invariably cure or benefit every case of heart disease.

Short breath, pain around heart, palpitation, fluttering, dizzy, fainting and smothering spells should not be neglected. Take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and see how quick you will be relieved.

It cannot make a new heart, but will restore a sick one by strengthening the heart nerves and muscles, relieving the unnatural strain, and restoring its vitality.

I had a very bad case of heart trouble. For six months I could not work. Last July I was blowing and feeling bad all day; in the afternoon I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep three times. My heart throbbled as though it would burst through, and I had difficulty getting my breath. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and before I had used half of it I could lay down and sleep all night. Previously I had to get up from five to ten times a night. I have taken several bottles, and my heart is as regular as clock work. I feel like a new man and can work considerable for an old man, 84 1/2 years old.
