8. A Sheriff and a Coroner, to serve for the term of two years.

9. One Assessor of Taxes.

10. As many Justices of the Peace shall be elected, in each of the several wards of the Parish, by the qualified voters, residents of the ward, as the people of each of the wards respectively are now entitled by law to elect members of the Police Jury, but in those wards in which there is an incorporated town, or a town containing three hundred inhabitants, there shall be elected two Justices of the Peace.

11. One Constable for each of the several wards of the Parish, to serve for the term of two years.

12. And whereas, it is provided by law that on the first day of the next general election, a poll shall be opened at each of the election precincts in this State, now established by law, for the purpose of receiving the votes of the qualified voters of this State, for or against the removal of the Seat of Government from the town of Baton Rouge to the city of New Orleans, and that every qualified voter voting for or against the removal, shall have written on his ballot, the words "For Removal," if he be in favor of such removal, and the words "Against Removal," if he oppose it.

The Commissioners of Election of the Parish of Terrebonne will superintend said election withdut further notice, and make due return to me, according to law.
