REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Goode, Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary, submitted the following report:

ROOMS COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY, }
New Orleans, February 1, 1877. }

To the Honorable the President and members of the Senate:

Your Committee on Judiciary report favorably on Senate bill No. 28, in relation to the recusation of Judges and District Attorneys with the following amendment: Strike out after the word "Attorney" in the second line of the second section the words "may be recused," and insert in lieu thereof the words "shall be recused by the Judge."

The Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 12, to amend and re-enact section 351 of the Revised Statutes, beg leave to report favorably with the following amendment: Insert after the word "shall" in the seventeenth line the words "give bond with sureties residing within the parish where the officer exercises the functions of his office, which bonds" and recommend that the said bill be passed with said amendment.

Also, beg leave to report House bill No. 45, entitled an act to provide for the sale on credit and for twelve months' bond of all property offered at sheriff's and succession sales which does not bring in cash the amount required under existing laws at the first offering, and to prescribe the manner of making said record sale and to regulate the settlement thereof—substitute for House bill No. 19, unfaverably.

Respectfully, etc.,

F. S. GOODE, Chairman.

Mr. Goode, on behalf of the Judiciary Committee, submitted the following additional report:

To the Honorable the President and Members of the Senate:

The undersigned, a majority of your Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 8, entitled "An act to incorporate the town of Ouachita City, in the parish of Union, to provide for the election of Mayor and Councilmen, to define their duties and to provide for the government of the same," and recommended its passage.

CHAS. J. BOATNER, F. C. ZACHARIE,
H. L. GARLAND, C. B. WHEELER,
H. D. OGDEN.

The undersigned, a minority of the committee, report the said bill unfavorably.

J. B. EUSTIS, F. S. GOODE.

Which lies over under the rules.

Mr. Steven, Chairman of the Committee on Finance, submitted the following report:

ROOMS SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE, }
New Orleans, Feb. 1, 1877. }

To the Hon. President and Members of the Senate:

Your committee to whom was referred Senate bill No. 20, entitled "An act to remit penalties on State taxes and to repeal all laws imposing the same," beg leave to report by substitute:

Your committee, to whom was referred Senate bill No. 38, entitled "An act making the warrants for the salary of constitutional officers receivable for all taxes and licenses due for the same year to the general fund of the State," beg leave to report favorably, with the following amendments:

In line five, section one, insert the word "hereafter" before the word "issued." In line seven insert the words "accruing after the 1st day of January, 1877," after the word "officers." In line eight insert the words "general fund" after the word "all." In line nine strike out the word "same," also the words "to the general fund of the State," and insert in lieu thereof, the words "for which said warrants were issued and no other."

Respectfully submitted,

WILL STEVEN,
Chairman.

Which lies over under the rules.
