

BY TELEGRAPH.

THE REPUBLICANS TROUBLED.

It Begins to Look as if the House Will Defeat the Scheme of Counting in Hayes.

The Republicans Alarmed Offer the Southern Republics Everything if They Will Desert.

[Special to N. O. Democrat.]

Washington, Feb. 11.—The Republicans are apprehensive that the Democrats, through delay, may prevent the inauguration of Hayes.

The plan is to again endeavor to terrorize with Southern Union cards and secure enough votes from that section to leave the Democrats without sufficient strength to carry a recess each day.

The further bait, it is said, will be held out that if they unite with the Republicans in the matter of the Presidency, the latter will turn in and help them to pass the Texas Pacific Railroad scheme.

This is only vague rumor. I give it for what it is worth.

MORE RETURNING BOARD.

The Bargain Between Wells and Cameron. A Definite Arrangement Made as to Wells' Reward.

What To-day's Testimony Will Be.

[Special to the N. O. Democrat.]

Washington, Feb. 11.—More startling evidence than any heretofore brought out, concerning the Returning Board, will be developed to-morrow.

Mr. Sherman offered the following: Resolved, That the decision of the Commission upon the electoral vote of the State of Florida stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

An objection is interposed by the undersigned Senators and Representatives to the decision made by the Commission, constituted by the act entitled "An act to approve and regulate the counting of the votes for President and Vice President, and the decision of questions arising therefrom, for the term commencing March 4, A. D. 1877."

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

[Special Correspondence N. O. Democrat.]

Washington, Feb. 8, 1877. Some idea of the intensity of public feeling on the subject of the electoral count may be formed from the manner in which the Democrats were amped up and the Radicals thrown into the most insane paroxysms of rage by a slight modification of the decision of the Tribunal, which gained currency on the street shortly after the decision was announced.

The objection was then read, and the joint session of both houses, without further business, took a recess until 10 o'clock Monday.

The Senate. The President laid before the Senate the following: Washington, Feb. 9, 1877.

Mr. Sherman offered the following: Resolved, That the decision of the Commission upon the electoral vote of the State of Florida stand as the judgment of the Senate, the objections made therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

An objection is interposed by the undersigned Senators and Representatives to the decision made by the Commission, constituted by the act entitled "An act to approve and regulate the counting of the votes for President and Vice President, and the decision of questions arising therefrom, for the term commencing March 4, A. D. 1877."

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

For that the decision aforesaid, founded upon the resolution and order of said Commission previously made, as follows: Ordered, that the certificates of the State of Florida, as presented to the Commission, be counted as the electoral vote of that State.

EVERYBODY'S JOE.

Wonder what's the matter now. Colors all a flying.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

Don't be getting your nose out of joint. Don't be getting your nose out of joint.

LECTURE.

Delivered in Trinity Church, First Sunday after Epiphany, 1877.

BY REV. HUGH MILLER THOMPSON.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

With a good nature, in which a sore disease has taken its abode, I tried to show on Sunday last that man is made in the image of God.

It is placed here, I said, to have that disease cured. That is to say, this life is a school of probation, a college of morals, a training institution for the immortal soul.

CITY AND POLICE ITEMS.

A SUNDAY STABBING AFFRAY—A MAN STABBED IN THE BACK AND MORTALLY WOUNDED.

At half-past twelve yesterday, a difficulty took place between Adam E. G. and Edward L. B., which resulted in the latter being stabbed in the shoulder blade and dangerously wounded.

The cause of the difficulty appears that some time ago these parties had a row, and as the time was prevented from doing each other bodily harm by some friends who were present.

Yesterday they again met and a bare word being exchanged, G. drew a double-edged cut-throat knife and plunged it into the victim's back just behind the shoulder blade.

The wounded man was conveyed to his residence on Magazine street, where the attending physician examined his wound and found that a portion of the weapon had been driven off in his body, and pronounced his wound very dangerous.

Disappeared—Rudolph, which mysteriously disappeared from the place of his employment Saturday evening, on Poydras street, between Carondelet and Baronne streets.

ATTENTIVE AT HONOLULU—Between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock on Sunday morning thieves attempted to break into the residence of James Adams, Esq., at the corner of Delia and Lafayette streets.

At half-past 12 o'clock Saturday morning a fire broke out in the rear of an incendiary warehouse situated on Tchoupitoulas street, between Upperline and Leona.

CHARITABLE OFFENSE—It is just as natural for Louis O'Grady to spend Sunday in jail as it is for a duck to swim.

At half-past 12 o'clock Saturday night he was arrested in St. Patrick's Hall, charged with disturbing the peace of the entertainment and displaying a pistol.

REWARD—On the night of Jan. 9 burglars broke into the residence of the Hon. John O. O'Rourke, at No. 27 Exchange alley, and succeeded in effecting an escape, carrying with them the following articles: One gold watch chain and pocket watch, valued at $100.

THREATENING TO COMMIT SUICIDE—At 10 3/4 P. M. yesterday morning Theresa Ring threw away her liberty by threatening to burn the house occupied by Caroline Williams.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY—Michael Farnell, a butcher, was arrested on the Sixth Street Station and locked up in the same, charged by Mrs. G. Carter with having committed a robbery.

AMUSEMENTS. ST. CHARLES THEATRE. The reproduction of the "Black Crook" at this theatre last night drew a large and appreciative audience.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. Mr. Frank Mayo opened a fine house last evening with "Davy Crockett." The play is well known already to a majority of our playgoers.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

THEATRE. The "Gipsy" is a play of the kind which is played at night at the theatre, that it deserves the reputation it has received.

IMPORTANT TO SUGAR PLANTERS.

See Trouard's advertisement.

See Trouard's advertisement.