SHERIFF SALES.

Emile Bouny vs. William G. Brown. SIXTH DISTRICT COURT FOR THE PARISH OF ORLEANS, No. 918. By virtue of writ of seizure and sale to me directed by the Honorable the Sixth District Court for the parish of Orleans, in the above entitled cause, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the office of the Auctioneers' Exchange, Royal street, between Canal and Customhouse streets, in the Second District of this city, on SATURDAY, February twenty-fourth, 1877, at twelve o'clock a. m., the following described property, to-wit:

TWO CERTAIN LOTS OF GROUND, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, and the rights, ways, privileges, servitudes and advantages thereunto appertaining and belonging, situated in the First District of this city, in the square bounded by Canal, Conti, Jackson (now Casquet) and Miro streets, designated by the numbers five and six on a sketch annexed to an act passed before T. O. Stark, late notary in this city, on the 21st of April, 1866. Said lots measure each thirty feet front on Canal street, by a depth of one hundred and thirty-five feet, between parallel lines. Being the same property the said William G. Brown acquired by purchase from Philippe Broun and Charles Sagary, as per act of sale passed before John Bennequin, notary public, in this city, on the thirty-first of December, 1875.

Seized in the above suit. Terms and Conditions-1. In cash for a sufficient amount to pay plaintiff's claim, say two thousand dollars, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum thereon from the twenty-first of December, 1875, until the day of sale; five per cent on the aggregate thereof for attorney's fees, all costs of suit and of the sale and all the taxes due on the property sold. 2. The purchaser to assume the obligation of the two promissory notes, secured by a mortgage and vendor's lien on said property, dated the twenty-third of December, 1875, for two thousand dollars each, payable respectively two and three years after date, at the Southern Bank of New Orleans, with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from their date until paid, and also to assume the obligation of the act of sale and mortgage note to all note, and to pay five per cent attorney's fees in case of suit, etc. 3. And the balance of the price of adjudication to be paid on the spot, in cash, and the above bid should, after deduction of the aforesaid fees, costs and taxes in cash, be less than the aggregate amount of plaintiff's claim, with interest thereon, as above provided, and the purchaser to pay plaintiff's aforesaid cash claim, and to assume the aforesaid notes pro rata, to the extent of the balance of the price of adjudication.

THOMAS H. HANDY, Civil Sheriff of the Parish of Orleans. fe28 1877 24
