NEWS BY MAIL.

A REPUBLICAN SUCCESS.
The Cincinnati Election.
 CINCINNATI, April 6.—The official count of the vote of this city Monday, as completed this morning, gives Moore, Republican, for mayor, a majority of 1634 over Johnston, Democrat. The only Democrat elected is Moses Wilson, for police judge, over Walter F. Straub, Republican, by 31 majority.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.
A Democratic Majority of Twelve.
 [Special to N. Y. World.]
 WASHINGTON, April 6.—The roll-call of the next House indicates a Democratic majority of about twelve. Thus far of the 293 certificates 285 have been received. Clerk Adams has not completed his list nor given any authority to any one to state its composition. His duties under the law are very plain and simple, and he proposes to execute them in deciding on the prima facie rights of the members of the next House. The questions involved in the case of the Colorado member have not been disposed of.

POLITICAL RELIGION.
The New York Methodist Conference Thinks "Fraternity" Overdone.
 [N. Y. Sun, April 7.]
 "Go through the South where you will," said the Rev. Mr. Lansing, on behalf of the Freedmen's Aid Society, to the New York Methodist Episcopal Conference at Kingston yesterday, "from the pulpit down the freedmen are wanting in morality. The South wants the nigger to be an educated nigger and not an educated man." Mr. Lansing added that he was afraid the North was forgetting the colored man in this "fraternity." He was not ready to "slap the blood-red hand in peace until some of the oppressors of the negro had been punished."
 The conference applauded and seemed to agree with the Rev. Mr. Lansing.

NEW MEXICO.
A Scheme to Get the Greaser State into the Union.
 [St. Louis Republican.]
 WASHINGTON, April 7.—There is a quiet but strong movement on foot to bring New Mexico into the Union at the special session, and the opponents of such a measure are equally industrious in preparing to defeat it. The latter are making their principal fight before the Cabinet, and at a late certain matters have been laid before the President and Attorney General which tend to expose a corrupt ring of radicals in that State, who are mainly anxious to get their leaders into the Senate.

NO ADMITTANCE.
Interesting to Office-seekers.
 [N. Y. World.]
 WASHINGTON, April 6.—The President, in conversation to-day, intimated very decidedly that he intended to establish some rule by which he would be relieved from the tremendous pressure for office which is now daily made upon him. Many of the applicants who thronged the ante-room of the Executive Mansion were for places which, according to custom and usage, were given out by heads of departments. He intended to have their applications made to the latter, and to give notice also that he would not give a personal hearing to office-seekers, though he would not be unwilling to have an audience now and then with some of their friends, to whom he could put questions regarding the candidate's fitness for the place which he could not put to the candidate himself.

THE PRESIDENT'S ORDER.
A Change in it Made by Stanley Matthews.
 [Chicago Press.]
 The history of the document written by the President ordering the removal of the troops from Columbia shows that it was materially changed in its phraseology before it left the White House. One of the closing passages as it appeared in the letter is as follows: "Under these circumstances and in this confidence I now deem it proper to take action in accordance with the principles announced when I entered upon the duties of the Presidency." An original draft, after "under these circumstances and in this confidence" were written, "and relying upon these assurances." This last clause has been stricken out by a vigorous hand, doubtless that of Stanley Matthews, who edits Hayes' manuscript. This phrase betrayed a direct reference to the pledges given by Hampton.

A FIGHT FOR A POSTOFFICE.
Negroes Try to Take Possession of the Crawford Postoffice.

[N. Y. Herald.]
 ATLANTA, Ga., April 5.—A special dispatch from Union Point relative to the secret meetings of armed negroes in Crawford, Ga., for several nights past, and the firing on the Marshal's posse that attempted to disperse them, says evidence has been gathered which goes to prove the negroes were organized for the purpose of making an assault upon the postoffice and putting in possession of it their leader, Luke Johnson, who claimed to have been appointed postmaster several days ago. Johnson wrote a letter to Mr. Pace, the postmaster, demanding possession of the office, saying that he had been appointed. Mr. Pace had received no such information from official headquarters and, of course, refused to surrender the office. It now appears that Johnson went to work at once and organized a band for the purpose of forcibly seizing the office, and was prevented from making the attempt simply by reason of the outbreak that occurred. He is an ignorant but vicious and influential negro. He has not yet been captured.

The developments that have been made show an incredibly ugly spirit among the negroes who were in Johnson's gang, and have created great excitement. The trial will be conducted quietly, and the whole affair will be sifted thoroughly. The jail is guarded nightly by a strong patrol to prevent a rescue of the negro prisoners. The wounded white men are recovering.

HOW TILDEN WAS DEFEATED.
A Methodist Conference Told that Grant and the Federal Troops D d It.

[New York Sun.]
 BOSTON, April 6.—In the New England Conference of the Methodist Church, to-day, the Committee on the State of the Country, to whom was referred the political resolutions offered on Wednesday by the Rev. Dr. Mallaleu, reported through the chairman, the Rev. L. R. Thayer, D. D., a series of resolutions as a substitute for those of Dr. Mallaleu. Immediately upon the reading of the resolutions the Rev. Dr. Mallaleu advocated the adoption of the resolutions which he had himself presented, and called upon the members of the Conference to express their opinions. He said it was his belief that if United States troops had not been stationed in South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida, Samuel J. Tilden would have been President of the United States. Mr. Tilden was compared to the traitor Aaron Burr, and the speaker said that he (Tilden) would have been elected had not U. S. Grant, that man of iron, true to right and country, sprung forward and seized the raging Southern lion right in the midst of his mane.

The speaker related his experience, showing the intentions of the Wade Hampton movement, and said that continued oppression of the colored people would follow from the withdrawal of the troops. He denounced the "trade" which had been made with Wade Hampton, and earnestly called upon the members of the conference to arouse to the fact that there was yet a great battle to be fought for God and humanity in defence of the Southern oppressor.

AN INTERVIEW WITH GRANT.
No Order Sent to Sherman to Withdraw the Troops.

[Chicago Times, April 8.]
 There was an evident desire on the part of one or two present to learn the President's views as to the outcome of the gubernatorial imbroglio in Louisiana, and a gentleman ventured to ask him if he did not think it would be in the interest of pacification, peace and prosperity to overthrow the Packard dynasty. He replied that he did not believe that Hayes would formally recognize either pretended Governor. He didn't see how he could recognize Nicholls without virtually admitting that Tilden had carried the State. He said the Packard government could not stand without the presence and protection of the troops. In answer to the direct question referred to above, he said he believed that the installation of the Nicholls government would result in a restoration of peace, a revival of business, and in more general prosperity to the people; but the peace that would follow would be the kind of peace that is experienced by the man who is under in the fight.

The reporter then explained the rumors current some weeks ago, to the effect that he, while President, issued a peremptory order for the withdrawal of the troops from New Orleans, or at least from the State House, and that Gen. Sherman, influenced, as was supposed, by his brother, the Secretary of the Treasury, had refused to transmit the order to Gen. Augur. Gen. Grant replied substantially as follows: "I wrote a telegram and had it forwarded to Packard, in answer to one from him. I stated in the telegram, as I now remember it, that the maintaining of governments in the South by troops was becoming odious to the people. I was in the office of the Secretary of War at the time, and Gen. Sherman happened to be in. I gave him a copy of the telegram, and told him to forward it to Gen. Augur for his information and guidance, or something like that. The telegram was sent as requested, and Gen. Augur telegraphed back an explanation, which was given. There was no order to withdraw the troops, and Gen. Sherman did not refuse to give any orders. Nothing was said about withdrawing the troops."
