

C. E. GIRARDEY'S
Calendar of
Auction Sales of Real Estate, Stocks, &c.,
TO TAKE PLACE AT THE
ST. CHARLES AUCTION EXCHANGE,
—OR—
Saturday, June 2.—For Account of the succession of Marie A. Hebert, widow of H. L. Smith. The celebrated Peloponnesus plantation, in the parish of Plaquemine and only about seventy-four miles below the city. The plantation is divided into six sections, the best of the very best land in the State, entirely safe from overflow, and splendidly timbered. Nineteen choice building lots in the square bounded by Magazine, Camp, Jena and Cadiz streets. Excellent site for residences, being convenient to churches, schools and markets.

The handsome two-story frame dwelling with beautiful front and side garden, designed by the No. 394 Jackson street, between Carondelet and Brainerd streets. This magnificent residence site, comprising four large lots, forming the southwest corner of Jackson and Carondelet streets.

Three fine building lots in the same square, fronting on Carondelet street and adjoining the residence of J. S. Whitaker, Esq.

Those well built and comfortable double tenement frame cottages, built and designated by the Nos. 41 and 66 Brainerd streets. The two vacant lots next adjoining the above and fronting on Brainerd street. That popular grocery and dwelling, forming the northwest corner of Tchoupitoulas and Canal streets.

The substantially built one-story brick store and dwelling, with two-story rear wing, situated on the corner between St. James and Celeste streets, and popularly known as the "Speedwell-Coffeehouse." Five choice building lots, forming the southeast corner of Josephine and White streets.

Saturday, June 9.—For the succession of the late Philip Drum—The two three-story and three two-story brick stores, forming the corner of New Levee and ship channel business. That excellent business stand, the one-story brick building, forming the southeast corner of New Levee and St. James streets.

The two-story frame Dwelling No. 567 Tchoupitoulas street, between St. James and Celeste streets.

For the succession of Mar a Hagador, et al., consolidated—The large frame tenement, most two-story frame, Nos. 6 on Basin, between Poydras and Perdido streets.

Those central and commanding stores, with spacious residences, designated by the Nos. 34, 12 and 128 Royal street, well adapted to either the wholesale or retail trade, and offering conspicuous advantages as an investment.

Two fine building lots, next to the Presbyterian Church on Canal, between Claiborne and Derbigny streets.

The handsome two-story double tenement frame dwelling, with six lots and garden, on St. Charles, between Cadiz and Jena streets, a superior home, with all modern conveniences.

Two large and well located building lots on Palmira, between Roman and Priour streets.

The large one-story frame house in same square, fronting on Priour street, between Palmira and Gasquet streets.

Five well fitted lots on Bolivar, between Poydras and Perdido streets.

Those well located and popular business stand and dwelling and large key lot adjoining, forming the southwest corner of Liberty and Clio streets.

The substantially built two-story and attic brick store and dwelling designated by the No. 46 Magazine street, between Baso and Grand streets.

That excellent store property, the three-story brick store No. 80 New Levee, extending through to Commerce, between Poydras and Lafayette streets.

The spacious and well constructed three-story brick store, with granite fronts (extending through to Commerce street), Nos. 103 and 119 New Levee, between Girod and Lafayette streets.

Those two two-story and elegantly finished residences, forming the southeast corner of Prytanian and S. Mary streets. Their handsome exterior and rich interior finish, coupled with the advantage of aristocratic neighborhood, render these properties most desirable for occupation. For terms and full particulars, see official descriptive advertisements and plans at the office of the Auctioneer, 31 Camp street.
