

C. E. GIRARDEY'S
Calendar of
Auction Sales of Real Estate, Stocks, Etc.,
 TO TAKE PLACE AT THE
ST. CHARLES AUCTION EXCHANGE,
 -ON-
Saturday, June 2-For Account of the Succession of Marie A. Hebert, widow of H. Smith-The celebrated "Edifice" Plantation, in the parish of Plaquemine and only about seventy-four miles below the city. The plantation is subdivided into sixteen valuable tracts of the very best land in the State, entirely safe from overflow, and splendidly timbered. Nineteen choice building lots in the square bounded by Magazine, Camp, Jena and Cadiz streets. Excellent site for residences, being convenient to churches, schools and markets.
 The handsome two-story frame dwelling with beautiful front and side garden, designated by the No. 391 Jackson street, between Grand and Brainerd streets. That magnificent residence site, comprising four large lots, forming the southwest corner of Jackson and Carondelet streets.
 Three fine building lots in the same square, fronting on Carondelet street, and adjoining the residence of J. S. Whiteaker, Esq.
 These well built and comfortable double tenement frame cottages, two on each side of the street, and designated by the Nos. 64 and 66 Brainerd street. The two recent lots next adjoining the above and fronting on Brainerd street. That popular grocery and dwelling, forming the northwest corner of Tchoupitoulas and Grand streets.
 The substantially built one-story brick store and dwelling, with two-story rear building, situated at New Levee between St. James and Felicite streets, and popularly known as the "Speedwell Coffeehouse."
 Five choice building lots, forming the southeast corner of Josephine and White streets.
Saturday, June 9-For the succession of the late Philip Drummond, the two three-story and three two-story Brick Stores, forming the corner of New Levee and South Market streets, well adapted to the ship chandlery business.
 That excellent business stand, the one-story Brick Building, forming the north-west corner of New Levee and St. James streets.
 The two-story Frame Dwelling No. 567 Tchoupitoulas street, between St. James and Felicite streets.
 For the succession of Marie Hagedorn, et alia, consolidated-The large double tenement two-story Frame House, on Basin, between Poydras and Perdido streets. Those central and commanding Stores, with spacious residence above, designated by the Nos. 121, 123 and 125 Royal street, adjoining to either the wholesale or retail trade, and offering conspicuous advantages as an investment.
 Two fine building lots, next to the Presbyterian Church on Canal, between Claiborne and Derbigny streets.
 That handsome two-story double tenement frame dwelling, with lots and garden, on St. Charles, between Cadiz and Jena streets, a superior home, with all modern conveniences.
 Two large and well located building lots on Palmyra, between Roman and Prieur streets.
 The large one-story frame house in same square, fronting on Felicite street.
 Five well built lots on Boulevard, between Poydras and Perdido streets.
 That well located and popular business stand and dwelling and large key lot adjoining, forming the southwest corner of Liberty and Clio streets.
 The substantially built two-story and attic brick store and dwelling, between the No. 40 Magazine street, between Basin and Orange streets.
 That excellent store property, the three-story brick store No. 81 New Levee (extending through to Commerce), between Poydras and Lafayette streets.
 The spacious and well constructed three-story brick store, with granite fronts (extending through to Fulton street), Nos. 103 and 119 New Levee, between Grand and Lafayette streets.
 These two modern and elegantly finished residences, forming the southeast corner of Poydras and St. Mary streets. Their handsome exterior and rich interior finish, coupled with the advantage of aristocratic neighborhood, render these properties most desirable for occupation.
 For terms and full particulars, see official and descriptive advertisements and plans at the office of the Auctioneer, 31 Camp street.
