Prof. Cooke Replies to the Irate Spiritu- ualist.

NEW ORLEANS, June 2, 1877. Editor Democrat—My attention has been called to an article in this morning's Times, by some one styling himself "A True Spiritu- ualist." I am not in the habit of answering anonymous communications, but as the gentleman has the unwarrantable assurance to call in question my veracity in this matter, I beg leave to direct his attention to this fact: that what I claim to do shall positively be done without fear, however much it may be the responsibility of any lunatic who has embraced Spiritualism or "Spirit Brides." He says I am guilty of making false declarations when I assert (as I positively do) that all manifestations are delusions, although I declare that by Robert Dale Owen, Prof. Crooks, and other scientific gentlemen. R. D. Owen's fatal inspiration placed him in a lunatic asylum, and the "brides of materialized" (?) garments, as he says, were the robes of Katie King, the remains of a sad infatuation. Prof. Crooks has measured the distance to the same "spirit." If the gentleman will make himself known this evening I will be pleased to invite him on the subject, although I do not think that I may save him from a similar fate. I will certainly allow him to use his own ropes and his involuntary handcuffs—bring all he can find. Miss Crawford will submit to the most severe conditions, and will have no medium living—and spirit (?) faces and forms will be plainly visible, and are often recognized. In fact mediums will be outside in the light. In conclusion I call attention to my standing challenges. All who have the nerve to do to make $500 is to bring forth a medium cannot excuse, if allowed to see their senses. As Spiritualist says I am a medium or impostor, I would state that I recognize no distinction between the two.

J. COOKE, Exposer of Spiritualism.

CANCELLATION OF BOND.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, State of Louisiana, Executive Department.)

Whereas, Application has been made to me for the cancellation of a bond drawn by GEORGE R. JOHNSON, and by him subscribed, on the thirtieth day of December, 1875, as principal, for the sum of ten thousand dollars, with Wright H. Fish, Honore Pothier, Joseph Alphonse Walker, John A. Watkins and Patrick J. Conant, as securities, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of said George R. Johnson, as Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Louisiana.

Now, therefore, I, Francis T. Nicholls, Governor of the State of Louisiana, have thought proper to issue this, my proclamation, giving public notice to all persons to whom these presents shall concern and who are therein interested, to show cause, in writing, at the office of the Secretary of State, at the city of New Orleans, within ninety days from and after the date of the publication of this notice, why the said bond should not be cancelled, and annulled, and the securities above named discharged from any further liability.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the State of Louisiana to be affixed, at the city of New Orleans, this twenty-eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, and of the one hundred and first year of the Independence of the United States of America.

FRANCIS T. NICHOLLS, Governor of the State of Louisiana.

By the Governor: OSCAR ARBORE, Assistant Secretary of State.

A CARD.

St. Patrick's PAROCHIAL RESIDENCE, 151 Poydras Street, New Orleans, La.

I, the undersigned, with feelings of the deepest gratitude, announce the grand success which attended the Strawberry Festival held at St. Patrick's Hall on the evenings of the 24th and 25th inst., and desire to return my sincere thanks, and that of the parishioners of St. Patrick's, to the noble ladies who labored so strenuously in behalf of the undertaking; particularly those who arranged the tableaux, making them memorable to all who witnessed them; also, to the ladies who superintended the refreshment tables with so much grace and dignity; to the gentlemen who served on the Reception Committee, and who, by their courtesy and attention made all visitors welcome; especially to Hon. W. Stevens, Hon. W. Robinson, Hon. J. Grover, J. A. Morris, Esq., J. Henderson, Esq., for the active interest manifested in their donations, not forgetting the patriotic efforts of His Excellency Governor F. T. Nicholls.

No doubt it will be pleasing to all friends to know that, through their devoted zeal and energy, I have been enabled to pay $3000 of the indebtedness of the parish, leaving now only $18,000 unpaid.

Allow me, ladies and gentlemen, again to thank you for the kind mark of your esteem shown me and my parishioners.

Yours in Christ, P. F. ALLEN, Canon of St. Patrick's.
