A gold nugget is said to have been taken from the Moose river gold mines, Nova Scotia, the other day, which weighed twenty-two pounds and was worth $3200.

Democrats in the Twenty-third Judicial District of Michigan have just elected Jonathan B. Tuttle Circuit Judge, although the district has hitherto been Republican.

The authorities of Hamburg think cast iron makes the best and most durable pavement. In some laid in 1874 no wearing of the tiles is perceptible, and it gives rise to little dust or noise.

Twenty-five families of Russian settlers, in all two hundred persons, arrived at Sutton, Nebraska, on the 3d. They were met at the depot by their countrymen, and all taken to their new homes further north.

In America we rate an ounce of gold as worth sixteen ounces of silver. France, which is the head of the Latin union, allows only fifteen and a half ounces of silver to equal in value an ounce of gold.

The future leader of the Home Rulers in the British Parliament is looked for in Mr. F. Hugh O'Donnell, an accomplished young journalist and impassioned speaker, who has just been elected to represent Dungarvan.

High play is on the increase in London. At one of the principal sporting clubs if you take a hand at what you must be prepared, if you lose, to pay your half of £500. At cards, too, the stakes are much heavier than they have been of late years.

The Hartford Courant intimates that one of those mules has been heard from. It says that Senator Barnum is suing the receiver of the Indianapolis (Ind.) Sentinel Company for $3000, advanced to it during the presidential campaign.

A boy, while fishing in Lake Butts des Morte, Wis., the other day, felt a nibble, and drew in a half-gallon fruit can. In it he found a large catfish that had taken up his abode and lived there until his increased dimensions did not admit of egress.

West Virginia cities are having a very lively fight over the location of the State capital, which seems to be kept on wheels and held as ready as a steam fire-engine for a transfer at any moment. Charlestown, Clarksburg and Martinsburg are especially interested.

The Governor of Erzrum states that the Russians greatly oppress the inhabitants of the districts through which they pass, and treat women and children particularly with much cruelty. Having learned that the Governor of Caza was at Kars, they pillaged the houses in the place, stripped the women and children of their clothing and drove them naked into Kars.

The Cologne Gazette publishes extracts from the diary of a woman in Constantinople relative to affairs in that city. It is scarcely possible, she says, to conceive the distress that prevails among the Mohammedan population, or the patriotism with which it is borne. All the able-bodied men are sent away to serve as soldiers without pay, and their wives have to support themselves and their families on two piastres a day, which is the current rate of the wages of women, while the price of bread is now four piastres for three pounds. Many families used to live on the dividends of Turkish stock. These families are entirely ruined, and others, though not absolutely destitute, have suffered immense losses. There are in Constantinople 25,000 officials, most of them with families, and they have not received any pay since the beginning of the war, not even paper money, on which there is a loss of eighty per cent.

A Pretty Concoct: A correspondent of the Washington Capital says of Mr. William Allen Butler, the author of "Nothing to Wear," that he has in his country house on the Hudson a very charming concoct in the way of a window, framed so as to impress whoever looks at it with the belief that it is a picture. There is a beautiful view of the water from this window, and framed as the casement is in gilt and furnished with a shadow-board, one is deceived for a moment into the idea that it is the work of art and not nature's self. This idea is not original, adds the correspondent, but the effect is very striking.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS: Parties having any tax matters to settle would do well to call on W. H. Barnett, broker, No. 28 St. Charles street, opposite the St. Charles Hotel, who makes a specialty in this line, and can furnish all necessary information, and make large savings to them. Mr. B. has bought from first hands, over counter, a large amount of all the necessary scrip and warrants to settle all kinds of taxes of various years, very cheap, and consequently is enabled to make large discounts in settling same, or will sell necessary scrip to settle the same very cheap.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Louisiana: The schools in Caddo parish will be opened September 1. The Iberville School wants the steamboat landing at Plaquemine enlarged. Bayou Sara is going to establish a large steam cotton-gin in time for the coming crop.

A colored boy was drowned while bathing in front of the Clements plantation, in Iberville parish, last week.

There are several cases of small-pox at Bruley landing, West Baton Rouge. Several new cases are reported.

Tensas parish has forty-five road districts and as many road overseers. No lack of roads in Tensas.

Clem Brown, who recently escaped from Concordia jail, was captured by the sheriff of that parish and taken at once to Baton Rouge.

A portion of the West Baton Rouge court-house fell down last week, fortunately hurting no one. The building is in a terrible condition.

Last Saturday a windstorm passed through the lower portion of the parish of West Baton Rouge, doing some damage. Mr. Lafabre's sugar house blew the Hickey place, was blown down by this storm and considerable damage done.

The exercises at Centenary College, at Jackson, last week, attracted the largest gathering there since the war. The commencement sermon was by Rev. Dr. Johnson, President of Whitworth Female College, of Brookhaven, Miss., and the addresses by Hon. H. L. Pond and E. John Ellis.

On Saturday last, Judge Beattie, in a written decision requiring forty-five minutes to read, decided the contested election cases in favor of Wilton for sheriff, Falgout for coroner, Lorio and Rogers for justices of the peace in the Thibodaux Ward, and Brown, Schneider, Basile, Foret and Galleaux for police jurors.

Further inquiry shows that Weber, late Treasurer of the West Feliciana school board, had been acting for several years without bond. He gave his last bond in 1875. He was elected last year as Treasurer of the school board, he furnished no bond at all, although he had $16,000 of school moneys in his hand, for which he has not yet accounted.

The West Feliciana Sentinel is very anxious to have a press convention this year. It insists that it is absolutely necessary, and declares that if the papers would only meet together and devise some way of preventing their being swindled in the matter of advertisements, Louisiana journalism would become what it ought to be. The whole country press seems anxious for this convention.

The School Board of Concordia parish held their regular meeting last Saturday, July 6. The experts appointed to examine the accounts, books and vouchers of the late treasurer, David Young, made their report, and found that the said David Young was, according to the audit for all he claims as discount he is still over $10,000 short. The board will make a demand for this balance.

On Friday last, the 6th instant, Aleck Washington, Wesley Bryant, Aaron Hinson, H. Williams and Ely Hall, underwent a preliminary examination, before the Parish Court, of Iberville, for the killing of Sam Johnson, on the Belle Grove plantation, on the 14th of last month. The five accused were sent before the District Court for trial. Henderson Williams has made confession of having fired the fatal shot, and desires to turn State's evidence.

On Thursday last Deputy Sheriff Hill, of Bossier, after he had given the prisoners their dinner, left the trap door to the east dungeon open while he went after water for them. During his absence four of the negroes confined therein climbed into the upper cell, and when the deputy opened the door they rushed upon him, forcing him to one side, three of them made good their escape. The fourth one, in the struggle, fell through the trap door to the floor beneath, and was considerably bruised by the fall.

In the Democratic county conventions of Leake and Montgomery delegates were instructed to vote for Mr. Richard Walpole, of the Central Star, for Auditor.

On Friday of last week Mr. L. Vresinsky, confined in jail in Natchez, for threatening the life of his wife, committed suicide by cutting his throat. He was a Russian-Pole, formerly a resident of Bayou Sara, La., and at one time Mayor of that city. Vresinsky made two attempts at suicide, in the first of which he failed, after the excitement consequent on this had died away tried again and succeeded.

Last Saturday night a negro named Maconna Harris, of the Dunbar Hunt place near Rodney, enticed a man named Monroe Williams into an isolated cornfield on the place, and while there, deliberately shot him with a shotgun. Williams lived but two hours after receiving the shot. Word of the occurrence was quickly transmitted to Deputy Sheriff Winters, of Rodney, who started in pursuit of the murderer. Coming up with him, Harris displayed a desperate determination to resist arrest, and before the deputy could capture him he was forced to resort to his revolver, breaking the assassin's leg. The nature of the fracture is such as to necessitate amputation. Harris will in all probability die. Love provoked the murder.

Texas: Fort Worth has a grain elevator. The question of school tax will be voted on in Fort Worth on the 19th inst.

Fort Worth shipped $200,000 worth of live stock during the month of June.

Work on the Dallas and Wichita road has been resumed.

A Californian has moved 11,000 head of sheep from California to Green county.

An old feud was celebrated at Ford Springs on the glorious Fourth by Ford Springs, his sons, Henry and William, and Bill Smith on one side, and Doc Caudle and his two sons on the other. The two junior Caudles were killed.

The Messenger says that the present postmaster at Rockdale has not drawn a sober breath since he took charge of the office; that he is a public and notorious drunkard, who lies around the streets in a beastly state of intoxication.

Turner Riley, a villain, aged about fifty years, brutally murdered an old lady, Mrs. Hadix, in Cass county, on the second. The murder was a cold-blooded one. Riley is still at large, and the authorities of Cass county will pay a liberal reward for his arrest.

County Attorney C. B. Ferris purchased ten gallons of vinegar and placed it at the disposal of doctors for treating the prisoners in the Waco jail. Poor food brought on scurvy, and then the county authorities refused to pay Druggists for a little acid prescribed for their cure.

A couple in Denison started out on the Fourth in married life with seventeen children. Mrs. Margaret Mosely, aged 31, with three children, was the blushing bride, and John Freeman, aged 79, the father of fourteen children, was the groom that didn't care a cuss for responsibilities when a young wife is added to them.

The Fort Worth troubles, speaking of the border troubles, says: "In the course of a year or two months will be ample time to have on the Rio Grande 50,000 volunteers, ready and willing to devour the whole of Mexico. Texas will furnish the whole quota, and our boys would rejoice at such an opportunity to pay off some old scores."
