

INSURANCE NEWS.

The standard of reserve should be maintained, but the question of solvency should be tried by the facts. - J. L. Greene.

Local insurance matters quiet; no fires, no losses, and a very light business just now, but plenty of hope for the future.

We have more than once referred to the folly of musters and tournaments of fire departments, and now we find the Argus of Chicago discarding this sensibly upon the same subject.

Georgia has a law requiring all fire insurance companies doing business in that State to deposit $25,000 in the hands of the State Treasurer.

Indiana has a novel insurance law, which it would be well for all favoring high local taxation to read and thoroughly ponder.

Section 3. When by the law of any other State any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money or securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are imposed upon insurance companies...

And the fact that present officers are all men of undoubted integrity does not change the matter one whit; they may not, in all probability, will not, and if the organization meets its promises...

The arbitrary action of State insurance commissioners during the past twelve months toward companies coming within their jurisdiction, by which the business of those companies has been seriously damaged...
