THE LIBERALITY OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Editor Democrat—I note the fact that the City Council yesterday unanimously voted Mr. Zacharie the sum of $500 for services rendered in the case of Cavanac vs. McCaffrey.

Now, the City Council are supplied with a City Attorney and Assistant City Attorney of their own choice. The function of each is to attend to the law business of the city, and each is well paid for his services. Many an able lawyer of this city would be glad to do the duties of either post faithfully for the pay. Will the Council point to the authority for such appropriations of our money? Can neither of the attorneys of the city find time to take such a case as the quarrel of Cavanac and McCaffrey into court?

Last summer both the attorneys were away. Mr. Blanc attended to their business. Neither of them paid him, but the city did. Recently I noticed that he has been paid for some other work. Where is the law for all this? Or is this honesty and reform? I trust our voters are noting the great wrong.

LOUISIANA.

The Donaldsonville Cannoneers are going into encampment on Bayou Lafourche.

An organization of veteran Confederate soldiers is to be formed at Baton Rouge.

The police jury of St. Bernard parish has decided not to close coffee-houses on Sundays.

A fire in Baton Rouge Friday night destroyed $11,000 worth of property; insured for $8500.

There are already thirty-nine candidates for the Legislature in Claiborne parish, says the Guardian.

We hear that some kind of bug is injuring the cane on the plantations above Franklin.—[St. Mary Enterprise.

S. F. Baird, fish commissioner, has written to Hon. E. W. Robertson announcing that he will place shad in the Amite river.

St. Mary farmers are making arrangements to manufacture white sugar this year. A number of vacuum pans are being put up.

The colored people of St. Martinsville have organized a fire company. The engine and engine-house were contributed by two public-spirited citizens.

We are informed that the crops throughout the parish are in a favorable condition. Bayou DuLarge has the best subble-cane in the parish.—[Terrebonne Courier.

The police jury of the parish of St. James has administered the affairs of its parish in a satisfactory manner, has paid off a large portion of the old debt piled up by its Radical predecessors, and claims no compensation for its services.

Too early for politics, say some of our friends. We say so, too, but when we know that our Radical foes are busy concocting schemes and laying plans for the campaign, it behooves our people to be on the alert and make some preparation to meet the threatened danger.—[Morehouse Clarion.

Three new sugar-houses are being erected in the Attakapas—by Mr. E. H. Levy, on the east side of Bayou Vermillion; Dr. Carter, a few miles back of New Iberia, who will cease the cultivation of cotton and take to cane; and Mr. J. Mestayer, one mile southwest of New Iberia. All of these will grind cane for their neighbors as well as themselves.

We feel safe in the opinion that no town, State, parish or other locality on this continent has come anywhere near making so clean a collection of taxes as has Bayou Sara. Just think of it; the delinquent list amounts to only $14 47, and of this $6 is absolutely certain to be collected, leaving only the insignificant sum of $8 47 the total amount uncollected.—[Feliciana Sentinel.

Donaldsonville had its municipal election last Saturday. The result was as follows: Mayor, Fred Duffel; secretary, J. A. Landry; collector, a tie between Augustin Bercegeay and J. A. Duffel; treasurer, David Israel; aldermen, Solomon Schonberg, Madison Carroll, Severin Ricard, H. S. Bondreaux, V. Maurin and Ursin Landry. The Chief is well pleased with the ticket elected.

From the bayou country we obtain the most encouraging reports in relation to the crops. The corn has a fine color, grows fast and is well worked. The cotton is being scraped and thinned out, and on some places has already received the first light plowing. Potato slips are being set out, and this crop will be larger this than last year, with a proper season, of course.—[Marksville Bulletin.

From nearly every part of our parish we hear reports of the ravages of the cut worm and beetles upon the young corn, cotton and sugar plants. In many instances planters have had to replant corn, upon which vermin depredate the most. With the exception of the damage done by bugs the crops are looking well, growing fine and give promise of fine results. There is, however, considerable complaint about the stubble cane.—[Baton Rouge Advocate.

On Saturday last little Louie, son of J. Monroe Brown, Esq., aged about ten years, accidentally shot himself with a shotgun while out hunting, the load lodging in his left side, causing almost instant death. It seems he was climbing a rail fence near his brother's (S. D. Brown's) residence, and after leaning the gun against the fence he endeavored to pull it up by the muzzle, when the hammer caught against a rail and exploded the cap.—[Morehouse Clarion.

We earnestly enjoin it upon our tax collector to collect the poll tax. A large portion of it goes to the school fund, and any failure to collect this tax falls heavily upon our schools. In 1877 the amount of poll tax collected in this parish amounted to about $130, when it should have been $3000. We look to Mr. Coyle to assess every man in the parish, and we look to the next Legislature to make the payment of poll tax a prerequisite to voting.—[Pointe Coupee Pelican.

The report is general throughout the parish that the corps are in a magnificent condition and that the prospect is immensely better than it was at this season last year. The stubble cane never was better, and although this year's planting has not turned out well, the deficiency will be supplied by the forward growth of that which is really good. The corn crop is in splendid condition, and in some instances has had its last working. A little rain is needed now, but the crops can do without it for a short time.—[Iberville South.

On Tuesday evening about 4 o'clock, on April 23, a cowardly murder was committed on Mr. J. A. Ford's plantation, three miles above Collinsburg, in this parish. Charles Bowler was the name of the murdered man, and Humphrey Holiday the name of the assassin; both colored men. Bowler was plowing in the field. Holiday stealthily crept up and shot him in the back, lodging ten buckshot in his body. The poor man fell upon his plow, exclaiming: "Lord, have mercy! Holiday has killed me!" He died within half an hour. The Sunday previous Bowler and Holiday had a fight, in which Holiday came out second best. Politics was the cause, Bowler being a prominent Democrat and his assassin a Republican.—[Bossier Banner.

MORMON LEADERS QUARRELING.

Brigham Young's Heirs Acknowledging that the Prophet stole $361,000.

[New York Star.]

The heirs of the dead prophet have yielded to the pressure of the holy priesthood. Taylor has beaten them. He has held them, says the Salt Lake Tribune, over the abyss of hell by the nape of the neck, threatening to shove them in head over heels if they continued in their refusal to "pony up" with him a part of the estate. Friday and Saturday the Twelve Apostles spent their time in "laboring" with the numerous offspring of the departed Brigham to show them wherein their defunct dad had plundered the church. The church books were inspected by Mr. M., Hide and Ernest Young, three of the heirs, as experts, and they arrived at the conclusion that the old man had appropriated to his own use $361,000 of the church funds, which they announced, on behalf of the other heirs, a willingness to pay, and Taylor concluded to take it in satisfaction of all his claims against the estate. Accordingly the Theatre, the Council House, the Social Hall and the two woolen factories at Provo and St. George respectively were settled upon as the consideration for the steal which the heirs admit their dead dad guilty of. The heirs have decided to turn over this property because they consider it "dead horse," and Taylor accepted it because it is clear plunder, and is much more than he could possibly recover if he were to take his claim into court. Hence we sum the business up thus: Taylor is $361,000 ahead; the heirs have branded their own dead father as a thief, and are out of pocket $361,000.
