

CITY ORDINANCES--OFFICIAL.

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS, (City Hall, May 8, 1878.) [No. 4492--Administration Series.] An ordinance amending ordinance No. 1628, New Series, entitled "An ordinance to provide for the shelter and protection of sugar and molasses received at the port of New Orleans."

Whereas, it has been found advisable, by and with the consent of the New Orleans Sugar Shed Company, to change the tariff under which they have been carrying on business, by modifying the same as herein below effected, and fixing a permanent list of charges, to which all persons using said sheds are to conform; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Administrators of New Orleans, in council convened, That the second paragraph of section 2 of ordinance No. 1528, New Series, be amended and re-enacted so to read as follows: The New Orleans Sugar Shed Company, as transferee and successor of Francis B. Flottas, shall be allowed to charge, during the term of the privilege granted by this ordinance, a sum not exceeding forty cents for every hogshead of sugar, and fifteen cents for every barrel of molasses, sheltered or stored in said sheds for each month or fraction of a month that it shall be sheltered or stored; and one charge, not exceeding ten cents for each hogshead and five cents for each barrel for labor in receiving, assorting, storing and delivering the same, and no other charge shall be made for shelter, storage or labor, unless the packages aforesaid, after being under cover, shall change hands or owners, in which case said charges for shelter or storage as aforesaid shall, as to the transferee or purchaser, be computed from the day of sale or transfer; provided, that no charge whatever shall be made against the transferee or purchaser when the sugar or molasses transferred or sold shall be removed by such transferee or purchaser on the same day as it was acquired; provided, further, that sugar or molasses, in other packages than hogsheads or barrels, shall be subject to proportionate charges for shelter, storage and labor.

SECTION 2. Be it further ordained, etc., That the terms of the contract, pursuant to paragraph third of said section second, shall be paid on the gross proceeds for shelter or storage in any manner obtained by said company.

SECTION 3. Be it further ordained, etc., That sugar and molasses landed at the sheds, not apart for the sugar landing, and not left thereon in contravention of city ordinances, shall not be placed under the sugar shed, against the consent of the owner, but the same, before being placed thereon, shall be subject to the provisions of section 3 of ordinance No. 1528, New Series.

SECTION 4. Be it further ordained, etc., That the Mayor of the city of New Orleans, and he is hereby authorized to execute and carry into effect the above modification of their charter or contract.

SECTION 5. Be it further ordained, etc., That all city laws and ordinances contrary to and in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this ordinance shall go into effect from and after its passage.
