THE DEMOCRAT FOR 1879.

The generous patronage the New Orleans DEMOCRAT has received from the people of the Southwest, and especially from those of Louisiana, encourages its proprietors to renewed efforts to make it more than ever the

TEADING NEWSPAPER OF THE SOUTH. The New Orleans DEMOCRAT is the only paper in the South which receives the tele graphic dispatches of the now conceded to be far superior, both as to now conceded to be far superior, both as to the quantity and importance of the news, to Alemo A. Alemo K. K. the New York Associated Press, upon which nearly every paper, "little or big," in this section depends for its telegraphic news. Thus the people of New Orleans, and indeed of the South are supplied through the DEMO-CRAT with intelligence which they can obtain in no other paper. This feature of the DEMO-CRAT alone commends it to popular favor in every direction.

matter than any other journal in New Orleans, or, indeed, in the South. Nevertheless, after the first of January the quantity will be

and it is our determination to rival the great journals of the Wess in the variety and quan-lity of matter each morning furnished our OUR COMMERSIAL DEPARTMENT, under the control of Col. Wm. Seymour, so well known by the public of this city, will be extended and made to complete that it will meet every need and wish of the business ommunity.

While the DEMOCRAT has been the recogized organ of the Pemocratic party, it has been the only realls independent newspaper printed in New Orleans for years. It has supported and defended with all its earnestess and ability the principles of Democracy; ut it has never hesitated to attack abuses in e party, and by this latter course it has rrayed against it every ring politician in the

Looking solely to the masses of the Democ racy for approbation, it has attacked every ring and monopoly in this city; and though its simple silence sould have commanded large sums of money in the way of business transactions from the monopolies, it has attacked them with all its capacity, and without an exception arrayed them all against it.

The past course of the DEMOCRAT is a Ingraham, Thomas. guarantee of its future policy. It will stand by the people and by the great principles of the Democratic party. It has no interest in Juckson, R. Juckson, R. Jackson, R. individual leaders and coliticians. It is allied with none of these. It is simply for the Democratic party and the reform of abuses in or out of the Democratic party.

And now, notwithst, nding the tremendous power of rings and manopolies, sustained by millions of capital which the DEMOGRAT has most and which have moved heaven and the crush it, we coint with pride to the ent it has received from the people I this State, indicated by the growth of its eription from a few hundred to over five and dally in the State, swelling on Sunys to nine thousand, and not unfrequently twelve thousand.

The DEMOCRAT for 1879 will be the most by and attractive journal in the South. we solicit the people of this and our ghboring States to continue and extend favor and path nage they have already
