

THE HOWARD REGATTA.

Four Exciting Contests Rowed Over Lake Pontchartrain.

The Perseverance, Atlantics and Hopes the Winners of the Gold Badges Yesterday.

The second day's regatta of the Charles T. Howard Rowing Club was as well attended as the first, and despite the fact that the sky overhead looked ominous, fully two thousand people took a trip lakeward to view the afternoon's sport.

The first race was for double sculls, one mile and return. Perseverance Rowing Club—James Keegan, No. 1; Wm. Graham, stroke. Hope Rowing Club—John McNeilly, No. 1; Wm. Rafferty, stroke.

The second race was for four-oared shells, one mile and return. Atlantics Rowing Club—James Foley, No. 1; M. Donnelly, No. 2; D. Kirby, No. 3; T. E. Higgins, No. 4; R. Cogan, coxswain.

The third race was for four-oared shells, one mile and return. Hopes Rowing Club—J. Pendergraft, No. 1; T. McGrath, No. 2; A. Johnson, No. 3; M. Lightly, No. 4; J. Donnellan, coxswain.

The fourth race was for four-oared shells. The entries were: Howard Rowing Club—J. L. Fonda, No. 1; J. Fitzsimmons, No. 2; Tom Barrett, No. 3; John Mahoney, No. 4.

When Mr. Dallas fired the pistol for the start, the Hope crew were off in an instant, the Neptune second. For nearly a mile the three crews kept well together, presenting a pretty picture to lovers of aquatic sports.

Great credit is due to the care taken by Mr. J. B. McConnell, the umpire, to prevent the possibility of a foul, and hence nothing like one occurred.

Resolutions Commemorative of the Late General J. B. Hood.

The Louisiana Division Association Army of Tennessee held its regular monthly meeting at the headquarters on Baronne street last evening.

The assembly being called to order, the president arose, and in a few heartfelt words spoke of the death of their illustrious comrade and old-time commander, Gen. J. B. Hood.

The action of the president was unanimously indorsed. On motion the president then appointed a committee of five to draft resolutions in recognition of the worth of the deceased, and in expression of the affection of the members of the association for their former chief.

Communications were then received from the Shakespeare Club and the Orleans Dramatic Club, tendering benefits under the auspices of the association to be applied to the relief of Gen. Hood's orphaned children.

After routine business the COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS reported as follows: HALL OF THE ASSOCIATION OF THE ARMY OF TENNESSEE, LOUISIANA DIVISION.

The committee recommends to the association, in view of the death of a member, Gen. John B. Hood, on Saturday, the thirtieth of August 1879, resolutions of condolence and affection of its members for their former chief, the following memorial:

It having pleased the Great Commander to remove from the mortal life of our comrade and late commander, the heroic John B. Hood, under circumstances that appeal most strongly to our sympathies, and we, deeming it proper at a close of so lofty a career, that we, survivors of his battles and witnesses of his subsequent peaceful vocation among us, should place upon record our appreciation of the noble life, the noble character, and the noble death of our comrade, as well as that other men may realize the admiration commanded by worth and greatness of which he made himself eminent.

That, as former soldiers under his command, we now look back upon his military career as one of the most remarkable known in our day, including from the Military Academy in 1816, he served as an officer of Infantry, then of Cavalry, and gathered honorable wounds in battle with savagery which foreboded that he would have been a noble warrior in any age.

Promptly at their call he ranged himself in 1861 on the side of the people with whom he was identified. He displayed courage through subordinate grades. In March, 1862, he was made Brigadier General and placed in command of that devoted band of Texans that whom he led to victory at the battle of the Clouds.

the towboat E. E. Norton, now in custody of the marshal under a seizure, and that he was not on the boat when she reached this city.

She had heard several reports as to the cause of his disappearance, and among them one that he had been foully dealt with, and that she was not on the boat when she reached this city.

A SEIZURE. On information received from D. C. O'Malley, employed by the special agents in the capacity of "ferret," Deputy Internal Revenue Collector George Antz, yesterday raided the establishment of Wentzler & Ricks, leather dealers at 168 Poydras street, and acting under the authority of a warrant searched the store.

In search, declared there was neither cigars nor tobacco in the place and that he had no objections to the hunt being continued indefinitely.

Just as the search was about being given up O'Malley came across an innocent looking box, which had previously been passed over, and on its being opened was found to contain a small lot of cigars, about one thousand in number, done up in bundles and tied with strips of cloth. They were seized and forwarded to the Custom-House and the senior partner of the firm was arrested.

The firm's clerks, in a few minutes were not their property, and were left in their store for safekeeping by a man named Rousseau, who lives in the country.

The government officers, however, declare that they have evidence to believe that the firm has been shipping cigars to the country in shoe boxes, labeled as containing shoes.

Wentzler, the arrested partner, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Quintero and placed under appearance bonds.

HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL. Capt. Moffat, of Company B, Second Regiment Louisiana's Own, is Pleasantly Surprised.

There was a rare time last evening at the armory of Company B, Second Regiment of Louisiana's Own. The company held a meeting to make preparations for the coming celebration of the anniversary of the fourteenth of September, on which occasion they will appear in handsome new uniforms, and doubtless be the "cyrenus of neighboring eyes."

After all business had been attended to, and the motion to adjourn was about to be put, Corporal Louis Conn stepped forward, and as the representative of E. W. Benton, T. G. Chandler, R. B. Beecher, J. A. Vaughn, W. Lincoln and Louis Conn (popularly known as "Big Six") and in a few words and appropriate speech, presented to Capt. G. D. Moffat a beautiful sword, handsomely inscribed with the names of the donors.

Capt. Moffat was taken quite by surprise, but recovered his equanimity with soldierly promptness, and in a few words expressed his thanks and sincere appreciation of the compliment. Then there was opening in hot haste of champagne bottles and corks flew wildly here and there, but undimmed the company stood to the work until the last corked enemy was gone, and then they marched forth to serenade the DEMOCRAT and tell us of the pleasant occurrence. The sword is a beauty, and has all the latest improvements.

NEW BOOKS. MAJOR JONES'S COURTESHIP. By Major Jones, of Pineville, Georgia. (Wm. T. Thompson) Illustrated. T. B. Peterson & Bros, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia; J. O. Eyrich, New Orleans.

The publication of a new and enlarged edition of this American classic will be hailed with delight by the thousands who years and years ago enjoyed the perusal of this quaint but exquisitely humorous story of Southern rustic life. There is no better evidence of the genuine humor and worth of the book than the demand for its republication twenty-eight years after its first appearance. It is a work that deserves a place in every library, for it is sparkling in its humor, pure in its morals and dignified in its style. The publishers are proud to present it in a new and improved form, and the illustrations are by Darley, which is a guarantee of their excellence. Price, seventy-five cents.

BASE BALL. The Irrepressibles play a match game with the Orleans nine to-day at 4 p. m., on the Ogden Park. The Irrepressible nine is composed of the following named players: E. J. McInerney, captain; A. H. Staub, c; Hagan, 2d; Prochaska, 1st b; Moore 2d b; McGinty, 3d b; Walter Brown, s. s.; Johnson, I. F.; McInerney, r. f.; McCarron, c. f.

The game of base ball, which took place Sunday between the Necessaries and Garry-owns, was all their friends could wish. The perfect playing of the Big 4 was highly commended by all present, while the refreshments were dispensed with an unstinted hand. The score stood 7 to 6 in favor of the Garry-owns. They will play again, on the twenty-first of this month, at Delacade.

The new Academy must be seen by the ladies and children.

THE POLICE AND MILITARY. Investigation is being continued in police and military quarters concerning the affair between the police and Orleans Artillery at Spanish Fort. Gen. W. J. Behan has determined upon instituting a court of inquiry to judge the merits of the case from a military standpoint, and Col. Loyal is investigating so as to gather facts to enable him to prosecute the matter before the courts. We may, therefore, expect to hear more of this affair. In the meanwhile, Capt. Sanbala has prepared his statement of the case.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. The original Big Four still continue to sing, dance, play the bones and banjo at this popular resort. Last night, however, owing no doubt to the extreme heat, the attendance was slim. To-day the same programme will be gone through, including "A Surprise Party."

CITY ECHOES. Joseph Hardie, for having a goat in his possession supposed to have been stolen, was locked up.

Paulin Theophile, a clerk, was locked up, charged with wounding P. Preplier less than mayhem.

Wm. Langwell, who struck EH Lewis on the head with a scythe handle and seriously injured him, was arrested and locked up in the Fifth Station.

At 9:30 o'clock Monday night Mrs. P. Blacy was severely burned about the hands while attempting to extinguish a burning quilt at her residence, on Tchoupitoulas street, near Valence.

Second Recorder's Court. Thomas Killalea, disturbing the peace; $10 or twenty days in the Parish Prison.

Philip Wells, for petty larceny, was sent before the First District Court under bonds of $20.

Jas. Smith, alias George, for petty larceny, was sent before the First District Court under bonds of $20.

Adelson Gray, for carrying a concealed weapon, was sent before the Superior Criminal Court under bonds of $250.

KELLY STEEL BARB WIRE.

STEEL BARB FENCE WIRE.

With the invention, manufacture and use of BARBED WIRE dawned a NEW ERA IN FENCING. Previously all fences of wire or wood had to be made of sufficient strength to resist the brute force of the animal to be restrained, and it depended upon the strength and activity of the animal as to whether the fence could be broken down or soiled; hence, fencing had become very costly.

and, in many cases, almost impossible to be obtained, thus making a great drawback to the settlement of some of the finest portions of our Continent.

THE EASE AND COMPARATIVE CHEAPNESS

With which BARBED WIRE can be transported, the small amount of time and labor required to put it up, its wonderful efficiency as a Fence, and its Comparative Cheapness, has made it a most wonderful and remarkable success. Its amount of sale have been unprecedented, and though little was heard of it four years ago, it is now known all over the civilized world, and used in all the States and Territories of the United States.

FRIEDMAN'S INJECTORS AND EJECTORS.

The special attention of manufacturers, mill owners, and other parties using steam is called to the great economy of employing Injectors as a means of supplying water to steam boilers.

In most cases these Injectors may take the place of Steam Pumps to great advantage, even where the latter have been set up and are now in use, it would be a matter of economy to apply one of the former also to your boiler, for the following, among many other reasons, so pertinent, that might be given:

The Best of Pumps Will Sometimes Get Out of Order, others frequently, in which case much valuable time is lost while making repairs. Here, under such circumstances, is a comparatively inexpensive machine, always in order and ready to use at a moment's notice to take the place of the disabled Pump and allow the work to go on as if no unusual had occurred. Then again it may be used to great advantage in replenishing the boiler during the night, so as to be in a good condition to get up a full head of steam without delay in the morning, effecting by this operation alone a Great Saving in Fuel, and Wear and Tear of Boilers.

The Steam employed in working the Injector is returned to the Boiler with the Feed Water thereby raising its temperature, and preventing the unequal expansion so disastrous to Boilers, caused by pumping in water at a low temperature.

The Feed Water enters the Boiler through the Injector in a continuous stream, which is a great advantage over the unavoidable intermittent supply produced by all kinds of pumps.

These Injectors are warranted to work with the most perfect regularity, and when properly applied, according to the instructions given, guaranteed to work to the fullest extent of its capacity, as laid down in our "Cable."

They will also, if desired, be sent on trial to responsible parties for thirty days; to be returned if found to work as represented, otherwise to be returned free of expense except transportation.
