DOINGS IN ALBANY.

Quite a number of strangers from out of town were in attendance among whom were Miss S. B. Frazier, of Red Hook, N. Y.; Mr. Harry Lewis, of Boston, Mass.; Miss Williams, of Troy, N. Y.; Mrs. Harris, of Troy, N. Y.; the Misses Epps, of Waterford, N. Y.

Very many beautiful costumes were worn, noticeably among the dancers were Mrs. F. W. Taylor, elegant black satin, jet trimmings and jack roses; Mrs. Harde, Troy, N. Y., black brocade silk, decollete and red roses; Mrs. Maude Douce, black brocade silk skirt and cream satin waist; Miss Epps, of Waterford, N. Y., black and white striped silk; Mrs. Tillie Fulton, brown cloth suit combined with white silk; Miss Carrie Dixon, green satin over dress of white net, and many others that I have not space to mention.

Zita's full orchestra which furnished the music for the occasion is one of the finest musical organizations in Albany. Every one was loud in praise of its magnificent playing and none more than those who tripped the light fantastic toe. Hereafter Zita's orchestra will doubtless be in greater demand than heretofore among the pleasure going colored citizens of Albany.

Mr. James O. Commeraw, of Syracuse, N. Y., is one of the most courteous and gallant gentlemen in Albany. His deportment, language and conduct are such as to command the respect of refined people who are proud to honor him with their friendship.

A MOCK CONGRESS.

The Students of St. Augustine Inaugurate a Unique Entertainment.

Raleigh, N. C., Special.—One of St. Augustine's Literaries held a mock Senate on the 16th inst. Each member of the Literary except Mr. D. L. Ferguson who was president, the secretary and assistant secretaries, represented some Senator, and during the session, was called by the name of the same. Although there were few members, the proceedings were carried out exceedingly well and with much enthusiasm. The Senators represented were:

Senator Beveridge (James A. Reid); Senator Clay (Ed. G. Bouden); Senator Daniel (W. T. Wallace); Senator Deboe (Jacob Jones); Senator Depew (Nathan H. Styson); Senator Elkins (A. Goodman); Senator Hanna (Julius Green); Senator Hoar (David Dand); Senator McLauren (L. W. Grice); Senator Platt of Conn. (J. S. Simmons); Senator Prichard (H. J. Erwin); Senator Quay (H. H. Brown); Senator Sewell (Peter Edwards).

After prayer by the chaplain, Prof. C. H. Royer, Senator Platt made the statement that Senator Deboe of Kentucky was illegally appointed as Gov. Taylor who appointed him, is not yet Governor of Kentucky. He began a speech on the same, but was interrupted by Senator Daniels who raised the call for a quorum. Then the roll was called. A quorum being present Senator Platt resumed his speech and was answered by Senator Deboe who boldly defended himself; but finally the matter was handed over to a committee on elections. Then came the report of the Ways and Means committee consisting of Senators Daniels, Depew and Hanna. Senator Daniels, the chairman of the committee, read the report thus: "After a thorough and careful investigation the committee unanimously decided that the Nicaraguan Canal would be of immense value to the United States. It will afford a great protection to the Pacific Coast in the time of war.

"Whereas, we the committee, having been appointed to look after the condition of schools and colleges after a careful investigation present the following to wit:

Be it enacted by Congress that the Universities of Harvard, Yale and Princeton shall receive a yearly endowment of $2,000,000, and all schools and colleges for Negro education be liberally endowed according to their respective merits, and especially St. Augustine's Normal and Collegate Institute, of Raleigh, N. C., shall receive $1,000,000 annually." A motion was put by Senator Deboe and seconded by Senator Sewell that this report be also tabled, and was carried. Then came bills for discussion.

A WHOLE VILLAGE

Attacked by Grip—One Family Escapes by Using Pe-ru-na.

WINONA, STARK CO., IND.

During the winter I and my family of six were taken with la grippe. The disease was very prevalent at that time in the village where I resided, nearly everyone being sick with it. Our doctors treated it as best they could, but were very unsuccessful in the treatment of it. As soon as my family were taken sick I went to the drugstore and bought six bottles of Pe-ru-na, and we all took it according to the directions given on the bottle; and although our cases seemed to be more than usually violent in the outset, yet our recovery was prompt, and we were all well much sooner than those who were treated by the regular physicians.

Many people died of this la grippe during this epidemic, and few if any, were sick so short a time as myself and family. After we were all well we had one bottle of Pe-ru-na left.

W. West and D. G. Director T. J. Fields, Jr., to which M. V. P. W. L. Lignor responded. Over a hundred members of the Lodge and visitors were present among the latter of whom were M. V. P. W. A. Wells, Sr., and M. V. P. Alex. S. Howard, of Rising Sun Lodge 1365, and P. N. F. Robert Ruone, of Peter Ogden Lodge 1374. The speeches of the Grand Officers were heartily applauded, and the addresses of welcome and response by Messrs. Baltimore and Dr. Tigner were of a high order.

The speechmaking over a fine collation was served and heartily enjoyed by all. Among the strong pillars of this Lodge are Grand Secretary C. B. Walker and Prof. J. D. Baltimore, assistant principal of the Manual Training School.
