DR. MILLER'S GREAT WORK.
He Harmonizes His Congregation and Brings About Active Work in Church — Rally Week.
On October 1, 1896, Rev. A. P. Miller, B. D., pastor of Lincoln Memorial Congregational church, took charge of that religious organization, and though the work was then in a demoralized condition, "Lincoln" to-day stands in the community as a shining light, having a united official board, and a membership practically united on their popular, public-spirited and eloquent pastor. Dr. Miller, during his four years' pastorate here has won his way into the confidence and hearts of all classes in Washington. While bold and outspoken in his preaching, he is conservative, broad and sympathetic in his dealings with men. Both young and old find in

The Tuskegee, Ala. Notes.

President George Sale, of the Atlanta Baptist College visited Tuskegee last Sunday, and spoke very interestingly to the students in the chapel at night. President Sale is very much interested in the work at Tuskegee, and his presence is always highly appreciated by the teachers and students.

Renewed efforts are to be put forth by Principal Washington this year to raise the $500,000 endowment fund, of which he has already secured $167,000. The demand for our graduates from all parts of the country, and even from foreign countries, is very great. In fact, the one of the most embarrassing parts of our work is not being able to supply a larger proportion of the many pressing demands that come to us for workers.

Mr. Paul Laurence Dunbar, who has won the admiration of the people all over the country by his pleasing manner of reading his own poems, will appear on the program at the Clarence C. White violin recital November 21.

The public reception last week to Rev. Sterling N. Brown, the popular and scholarly pastor of University Park Temple, was one of the finest and most enjoyable functions ever held in this city. Prof. Robert H. Terrell made a Chesterfieldian presiding officer and eloquent and complimentary speeches were delivered by Rev. W. V. Tunnell, Rev. W. J. Howard, Dr. A. M. Curtis, Mrs. Mary Church Terrell, Messrs. R. W. Thompson, H. C. Bruce, and A. B. Thomas. Dr. Brown's remarks were a literary gem and embraced a comprehensive outline of the plans for Park Temple's future and the progress of the institutional idea. Music was furnished by the church choir, under the direction of Mr. W. B. Hayson.
