

Things We Would to See, Hear and Know.

The republican states north adopt some old kind of a grandmother clause that would disfranchise enough democratic votes to offset the republican votes disfranchised by the slick grand father clause that is fast obtaining all over Dixie.

Free silver resurrected every four years.

District affairs administered by District people.

Why colored enterprises don't learn to do business.

A few leading colored citizens on the Centennial Commission.

A colored bureau of statistics with Mr. H. Y. Arnett as director.

The Hon. Chas. R. Douglass chief of a division in the Pension Office.

Why the colored people of Chicago let the commissioners get away.

A major place or two on the inaugural committee filled by colored citizens.

What they want to do poor Wilcox, Hawaii's native congressional delegate.

More of Dr. W. P. Napper's par-excellent Mandolin Club's public recitals.

Sum' thin doin' for the colored contingent when the pie counter is set to goin'.

A man who can throw more enthusiasm into any project than Prof. Jesse Lawson.

Where you can find a broader, more cultured and purer man than our own Bishop Lee.

Colored representatives in all public affairs commensurate with the Negro's merit to be represented.

More manual training in our schools and less industrialism—more Negro artists and fewer artisans.

Gov. P. B. S. Pinchback given proper recognition for his distinguished services to the republican party.

More substantial, hustling, successful, never-say-die business men like Dr. Murray the south side druggist,

A liberal distribution of government pork to the boys fought in the political trenches during the last campaign.

The Negro avoid controversies with the other race but being in, maintain his position with the courage of a man.

Whether Dr. John Turner's successor as Worshipful Master can maintain the very dizzy pace that he has set.

If T. J. Calloway don't wish that life was one continuous Paris Exposition—one grand sweet Exposition song.

Whether the churches of Washington are actually dead or only sleeping that they cannot support a Y. M. C. A.

What has become of Dr. J. N. Johnson and his little pen that was wont to stir up the animals and set them in a roar.

Our ministers come to the front and wield their unusual influence with the masses for the moral and material betterment of the race.

To what psychological phenomenon is due the average Negro's inordinate desire to make a full confession whenever he gets in trouble.

Our colored literary societies let out a couple o' links if they hope to solve all current Negro problems during the coming short session of Congress.

The vocal organs are said to admit of 3,405,060,598,003 changes. A persistent office seeker is believed to exhaust the whole repertoire and a few bunches over.

The rising generations forget—cut out some things and cultivate those virtues that will make them respected men and women and upright citizens.

Cloture is again talked of. If this could be applied to certain people's mouths which are so painfully in evidence in public places it would be a boon and a blessing.

What would be the consequences if it should develop that Sheriff Shea and his accomplices who are on trial at Rockville for rape, have a trace of Negro blood in their veins.

Mobs self-respecting and genteel enough to give the poorly paid coroners a chance to earn a living by leaving enough of their victims for the coroners to hold an inquest over.

What constitutes the constitution or what does the constitution constitute when a handful of contemptible wretches can burn a fellow citizen at the stake with impunity.

If the colored brother is entitled to anything more in the face of all this administration has done for him according to the figures and arguments of Congressman Grosvenor and the colored spellbinders during the recent campaign.

How would it do to put on the old-time mule cars at those hours when traffic is the greatest apropos of the present street car difficulties relative to tie-ups. One couldn't get to where he was going quite so quick but he would have the satisfaction of knowing that he would arrive when he was due.

Mr. L. J. Hayden, proprietor and manufacturer of The J. P. Kerr Indian Medicines, 620 N. Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir:—I saw your advertisement of your medicine some time ago claiming to cure any ailment or disease subject to man or beast or no charge therefore I sent to you for a bottle of your medicine and I received it by express. To tell you the truth it cured me of every ailment I was plagued with at that time. I had several complaints and the chief complaint was Diabetes of the Kidneys. I now praise your medicine to all of my friends, it is the best medicine for all complaints in the world. Yours, C. C. GIBBS.

Any one wishing the medicines will please direct all communications to L. J. Hayden, proprietor and manufacturer of The J. P. Kerr Indian Medicines, 620 N. Eutaw street, Baltimore, Md., where a cure is guaranteed.
