

LIEUT. WILL TYLER.

A Columbus Boy Wins Promotion in the Philippines.

Word has reached Columbus that William E. Tyler, sergeant major of the 49th U. S. V., has been commissioned a lieutenant.

Mr Tyler has been a military man for about three years and was in the hospital corps of the Ninth battalion. He joined the 49th regiment at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and sailed from San Francisco a year ago Thanksgiving since then the regiment has had a number of brushes with the insurgents.

Prof. Hershaw at Bethel.

An intelligent and appreciative audience listened to an address by Mr. L. M. Hershaw on "The achievements and disappointments of the Nineteenth Century" last Tuesday evening before the Bethel Literary and Historical Association. Mr. Hershaw characterized the century as one of progress in the physical sciences in machinery, in invention and in the growth of popular education and constitutional government. He expressed the opinion that on its moral side the century showed little or no advance over the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries. In proof of this assertion he cited the practices of the civilized world based upon race, the continuance of the differences between labor and capital, the decadence of interest in this country in the rights of the black man, and the failure of Christianity to make any national advance. The address was discussed by Rev. Chas. S. Morris, Mr. E. M. Gregory, Mr. R. S. Smith and Mr. W. T. Ferguson.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Mr. John W. Handy of Baltimore, Md. was quietly married to Miss Clara G. Jones of Washington, D. C., December 26th, 1900 at St. Augustine parsonage by the Rev. Father Bishoff. Mr. Jones, father of the bride gave her away. Miss Jones was a well known teacher in the public schools, having taught for ten years. Her principal, Miss Lewis was at loss to give her up. Miss Jones was dressed in blue broad cloth, tailor made suit, with hat to match, carrying a bouquet of white roses. Mr. and Mrs. Handy will make their future home in Baltimore, Md. Among those present were: Miss Lewis, Miss Martin, Mrs. G. Reed, Mrs. C. Jenifer, Mrs. M. F. Carroll, Mrs. L. Sullivan, Mrs. H. Warner, Miss J. Edelin, Miss R. Gross, Miss V. Burns, Miss J. Chapman.

A Birthday Party.

Last Monday Mr. and Jos. Jackson of 436 3rd st. n. e., gave their son Frederick a party and reception in honor of his eighth birthday. Quite a large number of little friends gathered to help him enjoy the good things prepared. A beautiful table was spread decorated with flowers and ferns, an eighteen pound turkey graced the center surrounded with all its accompaniments at the head a very handsome birthday cake. There was music, a grand march and cake walk for the little five year old tots. After refreshments were served them. The menu consisted of turkey sandwiches, hot cocoa, assorted cakes, ice cream, nuts, raisins and fruits. The little guests were then treated to a slice of birthday cake ending in a kissing and handshaking good night.

The friends and guests of the family were then invited to refreshments, the gentlemen under Mr. Jackson were escorted to the temporary buffet, while the ladies were cared for by the able hostess.

It Depends on the Color of the Brute.

Though five white women were brutally assaulted by white men last Saturday in Kansas City, and one eight year old girl fatally raped by a white fiend, not one lynching nor burning at the stake of the white fiends incarnate thus far has been reported from that locality. Had those crimes been committed by black men, being burned alive would have been their portion and such would have met public approval all over the country, but, being white men, the law can take its course. Who will now deny the fact that the heinousness of crime committed in the United States depends solely on the color of the skin of the brute committing the crime, instead of the actual crime?—Seattle Republican.

About Afro-Americans.

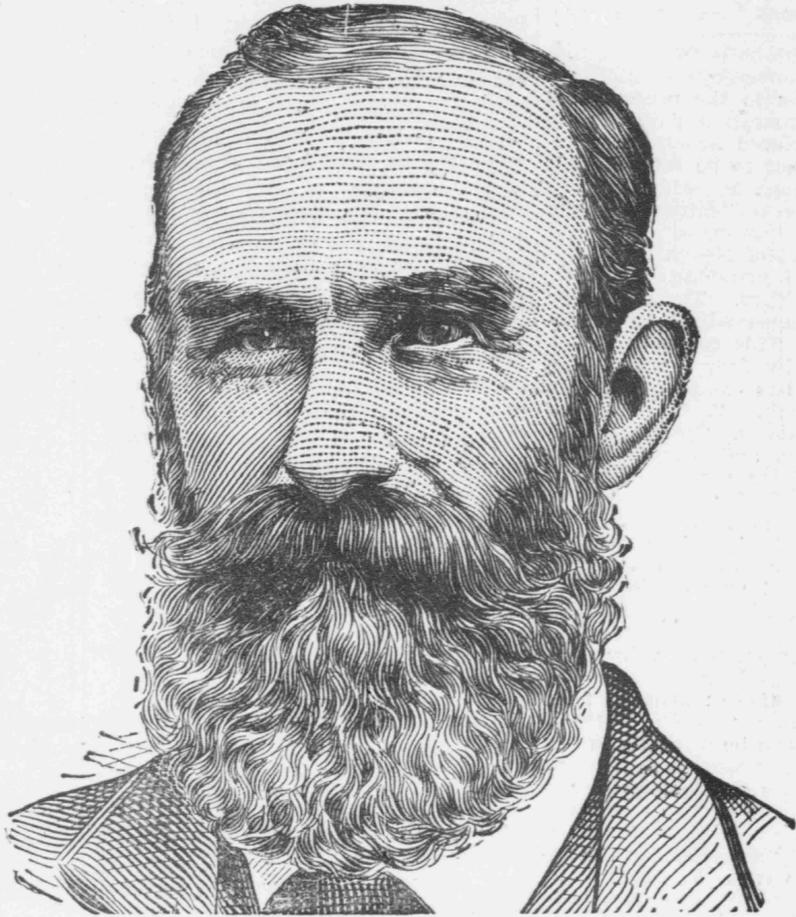

A meeting was held at Cape May, N. J. on the 8th inst. by prominent Afro-Americans to discuss the question of establishing an industrial colony in Cape May County. The purpose is to give each colonist a farm and stock it upon an agreement to pay for the same in ten years. A wealthy Afro-American has agreed to give the ground.

In one of the leading carriage factory in South Bend, Ind., the boss blacksmith is Pheneas Cartwright, a Negro. At the immense machine works of Frasier and Chalmer in Chicago, the boss patternmaker is R. M. Hancock, a Negro. A foreman of Pullman's car upholstery shops at Chicago is a Negro. Under each of them large numbers of white men and women are said to have been employed for years. They are skilled men in their line of business.—Pittsburg (Pa) Independent.

Among the Schools.

Model lessons were given this week as follows: Jan. 15th Miss M. Taylor, Garnett School; January 17, Miss M. Brooks, Magruder School; Jan. 18, Miss A. E. Bush, Giddings School. Main subjects for consideration were: First, Introduction of print to children; second, story telling; third, gem work. Teachers were requested to discuss these points: First, What kind of stories and gems do children need? Second, what is the educational value of stories and gems? Third, How should stories and gems be presented to the children. All meetings were largely attended and much good was obtained by all teachers.

DOCTORS USE PE-RU-NA.

DR. J. W. PENCE, NEWARK, OHIO.

NEWARK, OHIO.

S. B. Hartman, M. D., Columbus, O.:

It is now seventeen years since I received the first edition of your book entitled "The Ills of Life." I received it in the evening mail, and before I retired I read and pondered over every word in the book. I was greatly impressed with your candor and sincerity. The book left no doubt in my mind as to the remarkable virtues of your Pe-ru-na. It was because of this impression that I resolved I would test your assertions, and test them in a way that could leave no doubt.

I began prescribing Pe-ru-na, as recommended in your book, and prescribed it precisely as you directed. As you know, the prevailing diseases are inflammations or irritations of the internal organs of the body, either of the head, the throat, the lungs, bowels, etc. I prescribed it hundreds of times for these diseases during all the following seventeen years, and I have never lost a single case during all this time, although I have often related this to my medical associates, who at first expressed their doubts, and sometimes very emphatically, but after I had treated a large number of cases that had been given up, and cured them, they began to believe what I said.

I rely so wholly upon Pe-ru-na in every disease that affects the mucous membranes lining the internal organs, that I never for a moment think of prescribing anything else. Since using Pe-ru-na, I have never had a patient die from inflammation of the lungs, bladder, bowels, stomach or kidneys. Every case recovered in a very short time. In other words, I prescribed Pe-ru-na for all cases of catarrhal diseases. I believe you are right in classing all irritations and inflammations of the internal organs as catarrh. Catarrh means irritation and inflammation of some mucous surface, and also that such irritation and inflammation are caused either by taking cold, or by some local cause.

Dr. J. W. Egbert, of Neosho, Mo., a graduate of three schools of medicine, uses Pe-ru-na in his practice with gratifying results.

I see that you generally use a portrait when you publish a certificate, and as I have just had some pictures taken, I enclose you one. You can use it and this letter, one, or both, just as you wish, if you think it will promote the use of Pe-ru-na. If you would like special cases that I have treated with Pe-ru-na, I can give you hundreds of them.

Very truly yours, Dr. J. W. Pence.

A. W. Perrin, M. D. S., 980 Halsey street, Brooklyn, N. Y., in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman says the following:

"I am using your Pe-ru-na myself, and am recommending it to my patients in all cases of catarrh, and find it to be more than you represent. Pe-ru-na can be had now of all druggists in this section; at the time I began using it, it was unknown."

Send for winter catarrh book. Address The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
