

Washington Under the Calcium.

Second Baptist Lyceum is preparing to give a lawn fete.

Mr. George Silence has joined his brother in Duluth, Minn.

Chaplain T. G. Steward will pay the United States a visit soon.

Dr. E. W. Lampton is attending the commencement at Wberforce.

Mrs. Louis Cornish and daughter have returned from Philadelphia.

Mrs. Walter Timothy, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days here.

Hon. John S. Durham of Philadelphia, paid Washington a brief visit last week.

William H. Payne, a promising young tailor, has located at St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. A. U. Craig, of the Armstrong Manual Training School, is an expert electrician.

Mrs. Frank L. Cardozo, Jr., and little daughters have gone to Atlantic City for a season.

Miss Rosa Scott will succeed Miss Florence Matthews as clerk to Attorney W. L. Polard.

Galbraith A. M. Church is to hold open air meetings near the corner of 1st and L streets northwest.

Miss Mattie P. Reynolds is at home again, after spending some time in Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

Mrs. G. A. Fannie Mack, instructress in dressmaking, etc., is doing a prosperous business in New York.

Prof. Booker T. Washington spent Sunday and Monday of last week here, had an interesting talk with President and Roosevelt.

Dr. C. B. Purvis will put in a good part of the summer in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island and Quebec. He expects to return in September.

The Hawaiian Glee Club appeared at Metropolitan A. M. E. church last Sunday evening. They assisted in the Sunday school exercises in the evening.

Mrs. Mamie E. Camper, of Baltimore, is visiting her mother Mrs. Mary A. Camper, and brother-in-law, Mr. Louis T. Lomax, of 1622 Madison St., northwest.

Mr. W. H. Scott, of Alabama, was appointed to a position in the treasury department Monday, as the result of a civil service examination in which his standing was 98 per cent.

Miss Nettie Murray's rendition of "A Song of Triumph" as the offertory at St. Luke's Sunday morning, evoked many complimentary remarks from the large congregation present.

Miss Hattie E. Ricks of 313 Elm street, Le Droit Park, is making commendable progress as an elocutionist, under the tutelage of Madame Harris and Mrs. Thaddeus Grymes Johnson.

The River Queen's family excursions to Notley Hall on Sundays are growing in popularity these warm days. The best of order is observed, and Captain Weollen knows how to make his guests feel thoroughly at home.

Rev. O. M. Waller's sermon Sunday on "Education," was a highly profitable deliverance. He believed in a well rounded culture, and instruction adapted to the environment and special characteristics of the individual.

Dr. Samuel B. Vick, postmaster at Wilson, N. C., sent several days in this vicinity, going over some plans with the Hon. George H. White. Dr. Vick is president of the George H. White Land and Improvement Co.

Prof. R. R. Wright, president of the State College of Georgia, located at College, Ga., was in the city last week, and gave us a pleasant call. While here he attended the commencement of the High and Manual Training schools.

The report that the late Frederick Douglass was short in his accounts as chairman of the managing committee of the ball given in May by the Coachman's Association, is vigorously denied by the officers of the association.

The report that the late Frederick Douglass was short in his accounts as chairman of the managing committee of the ball given in May by the Coachman's Association, is vigorously denied by the officers of the association.

Mrs. Mary Church Ferrell expects to attend the meeting of the National Afro American Council and fill a place upon the program, if her lecture engagements can be arranged to admit of her making so long a trip at the time.

Rev. Owen M. Waller and family are at their summer home at Sea Isle, N. J., and will sojourn there until September 15th. Rev. Mr. Waller will remain personally in charge at St. Luke's and fill his pulpit until August 11th.

Mrs. B. K. Bruce, lady principal at Tuskegee, was in the city a few days ago, the guest of Col. and Mrs. M. M. Holland. She went to Boston, where she witnessed the graduation of her brilliant son, Mr. Roscoe Conkling Bruce.

At the High and Manual Training schools' commencement, special mention is due to the efficient faculty for their earnest solicitude for the comfort of the public. The young ladies who assisted, acquitted themselves also with noted ability.

Bishop Levi J. C. ppin returned here for a lecture last evening on the tribes and customs of South Africa. The Boer war being concluded, the eloquent prelate was able to speak more freely than was possible when he lectured on the subject early in the spring.

Mr. "Phil" Waters corporation clerk in the office of the Secretary of State, Charleston, W. Va., passed through the city Monday of last week, enroute home from Baltimore, whither he had gone to visit his mother. She had been seriously ill, but is now greatly improved.

Rev. R. D. Brister, who recently graduated from the collegiate and theological departments of Howard University is to become a benedict. He goes to Indianapolis and Cincinnati for the summer, after which he is to accept the chaplaincy of a normal and industrial school in Alabama.

The Armstrong Manual Training School will be dedicated in September, at which time the principal address will be delivered by Prof. Booker T. Washington. Dr. W. Bruce Evans is devoting his life to the manual training idea and hopes to make his school the Tuskegee of the District of Columbia.

Thursday evening of last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Dorsey, 946 E street southwest. Mr. William Lloyd Smith and Miss Christine Teresa Dorsey were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Father Dougherty of St. Augustine Roman Catholic church. Miss Cora Dorsey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Dr. J. Sumner Lenson was best man.

Don't wait to be dunned. Send in your subscription at once.

I WILL SET YOU UP IN BUSINESS

MY CONDITIONS ARE SO SLIGHT THAT THEY COME WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

I want you to write to me and send me your name and address on a postal card. I am in a position to put you in the way of making more money in one day than you can make in one month at the ordinary vocations of life. I don't care how well you may be doing or how good the job is that you already hold. I know that when you get my reply to your postal card that you will give up everything and work for me. If you will only do as I shall tell you, and follow the instructions that I shall give you, you will be your own "Boss," and sit at your own desk in your own office. This is no fake, but a true and honest chance that I offer to every man or woman, black or white. I make no discrimination as to color, race, or condition. If you are willing to work, I am willing to help you on to independence. This is the chance of your lifetime. Do not delay; send me your name and address to-day, and I will send you a VALUABLE PRESENT FREE!

Write to

WM. T. MARTIN,
1700 Lucas Avenue,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

H. K. FULTON'S Loan Office

314 9th Street Northwest.

(ESTABLISHED 1870.)

MONEY LOANED ON

Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware Etc.

Unredeemed Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry For Sale. Old GOLD and SILVER Bought.

The most Reliable Place in the City to Borrow Money.

JUST A LITTLE PRACTICE WORK

THE COLORED AMERICAN unbottles the pent-up vitrol of its wrath upon the much abused head of the Cleveland Gazette, last week. If you call that a calm and dignified summary. Bro. Cooper, we should hate to read your pages when you had decided to display your wrath. —Charleston (W. Va.) Advocate.

PUT DOWN ANOTHER "TALLY."

Last week the Washington (D. C.) COLORED AMERICAN issued as a supplement a four-colored engraving of Prof. Booker T. Washington. The engraving is a triumph of mechanical art and skill.

The American announces that it will issue these supplements at frequent intervals and that the series will include only those leaders of the race whose merits and services entitle them to prominence. Score another for THE COLORED AMERICAN. —Marton Blade.

HIP, HIP, HURRAH!

We believe in giving credit to whom credit is due, and for this reason we say three cheers for THE COLORED AMERICAN of Washington, D. C., for its get-up and get in journalism. It deserves the patronage of the people all over the country. —The Rock Hill Messenger. ...