"THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE NATIONAL NEGRO BUSINESS LEAGUE"

Which held its first convention in Boston, Mass., August 23-24, 1900.
BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, President and Founder.

This convention was the first National Convention of colored business men ever held in this or any other country. Every line of business was represented: the farmer, the banker, the educator, the doctor, the lawyer, the manufacturer, the author, the merchant and rulers of municipalities. The addresses delivered and papers read are all in this book besides over fifty cuts of delegates and others, which makes it a valuable souvenir of the convention.

The Greatest Negro's Greatest Book. Booker T. Washington's Autobiography

"THE STORY OF MY LIFE AND WORK"

Mr. Washington, more than any other writer or lecturer, has solved the "race problem." The historical value of the book, and its uplifting influence give "THE STORY OF MY LIFE AND WORK" a prominent place in modern literature. It is a volume for the family library along with the Life of Franklin, Emerson's Essays and the great autobiographies. There is no greater stimulus for self-help, for Mr. Washington forged his way to the front by his own efforts.

Sent by Mail Postpaid for Only $1.50

The book contains about 450 pages, handsomely bound in cloth, and beautifully illustrated with 58 full page half-tone engravings. No student of the race can afford to be without this great work. Order it today. If you are not satisfied after receiving the book we will promptly refund the money. The manufacturers have sold about 50,000 on this guarantee and not a copy has been returned. Don't hesitate, it's the most helpful and inspiring book of the age. Everybody wants it. We also send a Large Portrait of the grounds and buildings of Mr. Washington's great school free with the book.

A WONDERFUL INSTITUTION. The publishers of Mr. Washington's Autobiography conduct one of the most remarkable institutions in existence. They co-operate with thousands of individuals in this and other countries, who market the products of this firm. Each individual is in business for himself or herself, as much so as the parent establishment. The most cordial co-operation exists between the two and success has been multiplied thousands of times as a result of this method. It is a well known fact that the publishing business furnishes employment for the greatest number of competent individuals who earn unlimited incomes.

SPECIAL TO OUR READERS. If you desire to improve your condition financially, order a copy of Mr. Washington's book from us and instruct us to refer you to this publishing concern for at this time they are prepared to "set up" in business at their own expense a limited number of honest men and women. If you cannot order the book at once write us anyway and we think we can do something for you. But please write immediately as this opportunity may not be open long. Your chances are better if you can order the book.
