C., at Jacksonville, Fla., at Savannah and other points in Georgia, at Charleston and Columbia, S. C. He is making an aggressive financial campaign in the interest of his school.

After nearly two years of service as pastor of the Congdon St. Baptist Church, the Rev. J. L. Davis tendered his resignation Sunday evening, 6th inst., which was to go into effect Mar. 14, 1904. Much to the surprise of the church and congregation. The reason given for the resignation is strife and opposition in the work of the church among its members. Also for the lack of support on the part of the congregation. Mr. Davis is a very enthusiastic and energetic man. Likewise one of the ablest preachers of this city. It was not until just before the benediction was pronounced that Mr. Davis handed his resignation to the church clerk Edward S. Peters, and requested him to read it. After which "Blest be the Tie that Binds" was sung and the services ended.
