DEATH SEEKS A SHINING MARK.

Mrs. Blanche Estelle Williams, the wife of Mr. Harry D. Williams, in the city, died very suddenly Sunday, Feb. 23d, at 12.30 p. m. The funeral services were held at the Fifteenth street Presbyterian church, Tuesday, March 1st, at two o'clock, where the many friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Williams assembled in large numbers to pay the last respect to the deceased. Mrs. Williams, who was Miss Blanche Turner of Baltimore, died in her twenty-fifth year after a very brief illness. After her marriage to Mr. Williams, they came to Washington to live, where she made a host of friends and was loved and admired by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was greatly beloved and most popular in social circles. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her demise. Mr. Williams and the children have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. The B & O Railway people, by whom Mr. Williams was employed, sent beautiful floral offerings as a token of their sympathy and high regard for Mr. Williams.

MR. PRIOLEAN'S CASE.

The case of Mr. A. P. Priolean, who is contesting for his seat in Congress through the 7th Congressional District has not been decided, but is still in the hands of Committee No. 3, of the House of Representatives. It is within the jurisdiction of the House of Representatives as well as its power to give Mr. Priolean his seat, to which he was honestly elected and the Republicans of the entire country are watching the case with more than passing interest. According to the decision of the Supreme Court in the Alabama case, which states that it is in the jurisdiction; as in the Giles case and the similar ones, then it is incumbent upon Congress to take such a stand as will insure to the colored voters of the country, their rights as American citizens.

OF INTEREST IN THE KITCHEN.

Matters of varied interest to the housewife is provided in the April Delineator. An article on serving the formal luncheon and dinner contains many practical suggestions, and is illustrated effectively. Dainty Dishes for Easter, illustrated, is of seasonable interest. Luncheon Dishes and Entrees from Left-overs will prove a valuable aid to economy, and Delaware Hot Breads seem tempting enough to dispose of even the objections of cold bread advocates. Delicious Sweet Fritters and Novel Oyster Recipes are other culinary topics.

PUPIL'S RECITAL AT THE WASHINGTON CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC.

Last Friday evening a recital was given by the pupils of the Washington Conservatory of Music at the rooms of the school, Twelfth and U streets NW., and a brilliant showing was made by the students for their enterprising school. Quite an audience of the relatives and friends of the young performers were present, and showed by their appreciative applause their pleasure at the progress of the pupils. Hon. John P. Green, on behalf of the audience, made a few remarks commendatory of the work of the school and expressing high appreciation of the superior grade of work done by the efficient corps of teachers.

Lawyer John W. Patterson is in Wheeling, W. Va., settling up a large real estate deal. He returned to the city today.
