FIRST BLOODSHED FOR STOCK-HOLDERS.

In the suit brought by Mr. Jas. T. Jones against Dr. John R. Francis and other stockholders of the Capital Savings Bank, the court decided in favor of Dr. Francis and the stockholders. This is recorded as a test case and a victory for the stockholders. The friends of Dr. Francis are particularly pleased because he had sold his stock in the bank many years before it failed, and in fact was not a stockholder when the bank went into insolvency.

From Rev. C. T. Walker, D. D., L. L. D., the Great Organizer and Race Leader, New York City.

I have read the Sermon. It is really a wonderful sermon. The exegesis is rich and learned and the English chaste and clean. I have learned some things from the book and I believe there are a great many preachers in this land who will learn many things from it too.

From Rev. W. P. Stevenson, D. D., L. L. D., (white) First Presbyterian Church, Yonkers-on-Hudson.

It is a unique sermon.

From Dr. Booker T. Washington, the Apostle of Industry, Founder of Tuskegee Institute.

I thank you for your kindness in sending me the copy of the sermon delivered by you last December in Africa. I have read it with pleasure and profit.
