THE JAPANESE AT HOME.

Of particular interest are the photographs of Japan which are shown in the May Delineator in the series Around the World in Eighty Pictures. They are not of a martial character, of which there is an abundance at this time, but they give an excellent idea of the brave little yellow people and of the beautiful country in which they live. Although the Japanese have made rapid strides toward progress in the last decade their civilization is still curious to Western eyes. It is a strange mixture of the modern and the old or things, and over all the nativeness of the people. The photographs are from the collection of a young bride who is making the grand tour. One of the special interest is a view of Seoul, Corea.

Dr. Booker T. Washington passed through the city this week east from the west.
