PRICE, FIVE CENTS

A TYPE OF THE "RESPECTABLE" GEORGIA CITIZEN.

Our cartoonist presents the readers of THE COLORED AMERICAN with a mild picture of the so-called "respectable" citizen of Georgia, better known as the "cracker." Not satisfied with lynching and burning colored people in their own State, the Georgia Militia is carrying on its work on its way North, en route to Manassas. These same Militiamen who were cowardly enough to permit a mob to take their guns away from them are now engaged in their favorite "chivalrous" past-time of stoning helpless colored women and men; and yet, we are sending missionaries to other countries to Christianize and civilize the heathen.
