

MORE BOODLE FOR FELLOWS.

LIQUOR DEALERS CHIP IN $30,000 TO HELP BOSS POWER OUT.

The Money Part of the Fund Raised to Carry Close Legislative Districts—To Be Used in This City to Save the Bosses' Tickets—Saloon-keepers Told They Will Be "Protected" if Fellows is Elected.

The liquor dealers of this city have a political, protective and legislative association which has a membership of over three thousand. There is a central organization and connected with it are twenty-four Assembly District associations.

The central body is always represented at Albany during the winter by a committee, whose duty it is to watch legislation affecting their interests. The Democratic party is in record as favoring "the enactment of just, wise and equitable excise laws," and its representatives have ever opposed the passage of arbitrary and puritanical laws.

For the past few years, however, the Liquor Dealers' Association has taken an active part in favoring or opposing excise laws.

After the adjournment of the last Legislature, the officers and prominent members of the association held a meeting and decided to raise a "boodle" of $100,000 for the present campaign. The money was to be spent in six close Senatorial districts and in ten close Assembly districts. All these districts were to be outside of the counties of New York and Kings.

The boodle, it was hoped, would result in giving to the association the balance of power in the Legislature, and thus enable the association to secure the passage of a law that would put the liquor dealers, or, at least, prevent the enactment of laws against their interests.

The sum of $60,000 was raised in this city by assessment and subscription. One week ago the boodle was to have been distributed for use in the sixteen rural and doubtful Senatorial and Assembly districts.

When a halt was ordered, Boss Power and ex-Mayor Cooper came to the front. They said that the boodle from this source could be used to better advantage in this city.

They argued that there were several doubtful Senatorial and Assembly districts south of the Bronx River, and besides to elect Col. John B. Fellows District Attorney.

The officers and prominent members of the Liquor Dealers' Association held a consultation a few days ago, and after a few minutes' consideration of Boss Power's request, decided to accede to his wishes. It was practically resolved that a boodle should be handed over to Boss Power to help him in his fight against the election of De Lancey Nicolli.

The effect was this: Last Wednesday Boss Power and the Finance Committee of the Bosses and the Boodlers were handed $30,000 to be spent for Col. Fellows. The members of the State Committee gave their consent to the transfer of the money.

Several prominent members of the Liquor Dealers' Association are "kicking" over the transfer of the fund they helped to raise. It was their opposition which prevented Boss Power from receiving the entire boodle of $60,000.

A number of brewers have organized for Col. Fellows and are telling their customers that they will be "protected" if Col. Fellows is elected.

Mr. Sheridan Shook, who is the Republican district leader and a brewer, is in favor of Mr. Nicolli's election, and is not taking any part in the brewer's campaign for Fellows. He thinks the brewers, as an organization, are making a mistake.

Mr. Shook is betting that Nicolli will be elected.

DAVID SCOTT STILL MISSING.

Vernon & Company Not Doing Anything Towards Finding Him.

Nothing has been heard from David Scott, of the firm of Vernon Bros., since the letter that he wrote Oct. 25. In that letter the missing man suggested that the firm be dissolved and that he withdraw. It is understood that the suggestion was at once acted upon.

Thomas Vernon, partner in the firm, still scouts the suicide theory and seems to take the disappearance philosophically. A representative of the firm when Scott's accounts were first investigated had a talk with Paul Scott, but they told him that there was little that could be done in the matter. The firm has not employed detectives to hunt Scott.

Green M. Beach, the accountant who is investigating the firm's books, says that the indebtedness between the Ivanhoe Company and Vernon Bros. is about $60,000, and Mr. Beach did not authorize the advance of $30,000 made by Scott to the Ivanhoe Company.

At the office of the Lawrenceville Cement Company, of which Scott was President, it was said that his accounts were all right and that he owed the company nothing.

BLAZED AWAY AT THE TRAMPS.

They Attacked a Peddler and Thomas McHugh Came to His Rescue.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 4.—A dozen tramps happened to meet near the depot at Berwick yesterday afternoon. They were noisy and disorderly and evidently under the influence of liquor. A peddler named Stanley, of Iowa, came along and the tramps attacked him. They took his wares and scattered them about promiscuously. The quarrel got so hot that Stanley's life was in danger.

Thomas McHugh, of Pittston, noticed Stanley's predicament and went to his rescue. He pulled a pistol and blazed away at the vagrants. Joseph Bruzman was shot in the arm, and died almost instantly. Two other tramps were wounded. McHugh surrendered himself.

Eastern Ball-Players Going West.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—This year's leading New England players are rapidly putting their names to contracts which will carry them to other sections next season. Yesterday morning Walter Burnham went out to Lawrence to see if young Bradley would like to play with the Worcester team next season, but he found that Tim Murnan had been there just ahead of him and signed the clever outfielder for the Kansas City team. It is believed that the Milwaukee, who are to be in the west Western league just formed.

Pending Trouble Among the Cherokees.

VERMILION, L. T., Nov. 4.—A special messenger has just arrived from Tahlequah and reports that the greatest excitement prevails at the Cherokee capital. He says over half the inhabitants of the city have left, taking with them their stock of household goods and their families in the timber from the impending war which is sure to begin Monday on the assembling of the Council. The dispute is over the election of the Chief of the Cherokee Nation. Both parties claim their candidate is elected.

HOW MAJOR WAY STOLE THE MONEY.

Many Poor People in New Jersey Suffer by His Defalcation.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 4.—Major A. M. Way, secretary for the Union and Empire Building Loans, and agent for a dozen fire and life insurance companies, has disappeared from this city, and is a defaulter to the extent of from $12,000 to $15,000.

The fact that he was a rumored defaulter appeared in THE WORLD two weeks ago. He was seen to board a Western express train at Jersey City on Saturday night last, since which time he has not been seen by many anxious people here.

As Secretary of the Empire Loan he hypothecated its certificates of stock to poor people who desired to deposit their earnings in the loan. The loan has been established fifteen years, and its certificates are about to be sold by the directors instituted some quiet inquiries as to its real condition. This occurred some months ago, but their discoveries only leaked out recently.

THE WORLD reporter the story of Way's doings were exclusively told today. "Eleven years ago," said the informant, who owing to his connection with certain city institutions requested the withholding of his name. "Henry L. Janeway, a prominent wall paper manufacturer, resigned from the presidency of the Empire. Way was the Secretary, and he and the old veterans like St. Paul, Northwest, Louisville & Nashville and Union Pacific I point or more. Even Missouri Pacific wheeled into the game on the book of certificates. The eager buyers this morning. From all accounts the railroads in the Northwest are patching up a peace for the purpose of getting all the revenue they can out of the great movement this winter. Some of the managers now in this city say that the new lines which have been making all the trouble are satisfied that the only way they can get the interest on their bonded debts is to get paying rates, and that they are more disposed toward a higher tariff than for some time. Rates between Minneapolis and Chicago have already gone up 25 cents, and it is expected that this action will induce the Transcontinental lines to make an earnest effort to settle their differences and get better rates.

The brilliant promises held out to holders of Western Union have not materialized, and from present indications George Gould will see no more of the cable. The stock in the stock in the eighties. It looks to go as if the insiders were sitting on Telegraph in order to tire out speculative holders.

THE DAY IN WALL STREET.

BEARS CAUGHT NAPPING AND PRICES TAKE A JUMP.

Key Promises of a Rise in Western Union Not Fulfilled—Railroads in the West Patching the Peace for the Purpose of Getting Grain Business—Grains on the Street To-Day—Tips from the Ticker.

Whatever doubts were in the minds of speculators of the rag and bollard order in regard to the probable course of the stock market were quickly dispelled after the opening of business at the Stock Exchange this morning. While the old bear crowd were coupling their sales with statements about a general smash-up of rates at the West before long, the bulls were quietly handling in all the stocks they could lay their hands on. This process went on for awhile without influencing prices very much, but when the time came to whoop things up, the shorts found to their cost that the Generals on the other side had calculated to a nicety as to the proper moment to make the charge upon their enemies.

As soon as the order was given stocks—good, bad and indifferent—marched on towards higher figures with wonderful alacrity. Memphis & Charleston led off with a sale at 92, a rise of 6 points from yesterday's price. The Santa Fe advanced 3 and the old veterans like St. Paul, Northwest, Louisville & Nashville and Union Pacific I point or more. SHOT DEAD BY HIS KEEPER.

Thomas Wallace Killed While Trying to Escape from Jail.

NEWARK, Nov. 4.—Great excitement exists in Essex County over the shooting of Prisoner Thomas Wallace at Caldwell Penitentiary last night. The affair divides public attention with the election. Wallace had only been sentenced Sept. 15 to one year in the penitentiary for stealing. It was not his first offense. He was nineteen years of age and the leader of a gang of young criminals who have defied the police for several years.

Warden Spicer, knowing the man, hesitated to put him to work outdoors and he was kept in his cell. Prior to his sentence he had boasted that he would emulate the example of thieves like Silver, Downing, Kennedy, and effect his escape.

Yesterday he went out with a gang and all worked steadily until 5 p. m., when the order to file indoors was given. All the prisoners gathered their tools together and fell in line, and when the warden called the line, and when near the entrance of the jail he rounded and ran, dropping his tools. The keeper did not notice his escape until about three seconds afterwards, as none of the other prisoners gave the alarm.

The warden in charge, whose name is kept a secret at present, fired once. His aim was perfect. Wallace dropped dead. His body was allowed to remain in the County Jail until Williams and a jury will visit the remains to-day.

The warden is under arrest, but it is not expected that any punishment will be visited upon him as the Board of Freeholders recently instructed the keepers that if any prisoners escaped the man in charge would be dismissed. Escapes have been very frequent from the Essex County Institution. Wallace's family is respectable.

BURIED BEFORE HE WAS DEAD.

A Shocking Murder in Florida Comes to Light—Five Men Arrested.

BROOKFIELD, Fla., Nov. 4.—John Shope, Oscar Higgins and Shaw Thompson were arrested here last night, and D. J. McGuire in Sumter County, and William Bledsoe in Georgia, all accused of the murder of John Holderfield, Nov. 15, 1894.

These five men are said to have conducted an illicit distillery. Holderfield had $5,000 in cash, and suddenly disappeared, these men giving out that he had gone to Texas. Sam Mays, who is a member of the distillery, suspected foul play from something he overheard and saw, and becoming frightened moved to Georgia. In September last he gave his information to N. B. Rhodes, chief United States detective in the South, and he worked up the case.

It is openly stated among a certain lawless element that a price has been placed on Mays's and Rhodes's heads, and that they will be "killed" soon. They both, fearing assassination, have made out duplicate statements, one deposited with the County Judge and the other with their wives. Rhodes has had the skeleton of Holderfield exhumed from the swamp where it was concealed. It is rumored that the murder was a most brutal one, and that Holderfield was buried before the breath had left his body.

It is believed two other prominent men in this section will be implicated.

SUCIURE OF A POLICEMAN.

Head Trouble Cured With a Pistol by James H. Placer, of the City Hall Squad.

Policeman James H. Placer, of the City Hall squad, committed suicide this afternoon at his home at 16 East One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street by shooting himself in the mouth with a 38-calibre pistol.

He was fifty-seven years of age and had been a member of the police force twenty-six years. He had been complaining of head trouble for the past year and reported sick two days ago.

Placer was a jovial temperament, and was very much liked by his comrades. He leaves a widow and three grown-up sons.

WATERLOO LOST AND ABANDONED.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Nov. 4.—Schooner E. M. Bronson, of 10 tons, of Ellsworth, Me., was towed into Laneville yesterday, waterlogged and abandoned. She sailed from Portland Tuesday for Lynn, but ran aground shortly after she had begun to blow heavily from the north. She was struck by a heavy sea which threw her on her beam ends. When she righted it was found she was nearly full of water. The crew were washed to the windward side to keep from going overboard, while the sea made a clean sweep over the disabled vessel. Capt. Leonard of Ipswich, Light, saw the vessel, came to the rescue and landed the men at Ipswich.

Killed Herself by Slow Strangulation.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Nov. 4.—Miss Sallie Hopkins, daughter of Wm. M. Hopkins, who had been ill for some time, suddenly disappeared from her home yesterday. Search resulted in finding her body in Dooling Park, where she had been thrown from a cliff. She had gone on the little steambath on the park lake to commit suicide by drowning, but changed her mind. When she righted it was found attached to the side of the boat twice around her neck, and resting on her knees on the bottom of the boat, in a position which would have caused slow strangulation. Mental aberration.

INGALLS' FIGURES GREW LARGER.

Wild Excitement in Gray County, Kan., Over the Result of a Recent Election.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 4.—Citizens of Gray County, Kan., are wildly elated over the result of the recent election. It was at first stated that Ingalls had only won by 21 votes and Cimarron intended to contest. Now, however, new figures are produced, showing Ingalls, 798; Cimarron, 822.

Charges of ballot stuffing are freely made. It has come out that immediately after the close of the polls the boxes were deposited in the safe of the Cimarron Bank, but later were removed to the upper story of the same building.

Men armed with needle-guns took possession of the bank and erected a barricade of boxes of hay around the building. Two ladders have been laid side by side on the stairs to prevent access to the boxes.

Serious trouble is feared, as an armed party from Dodge City, sympathizers with Ingalls, has arrived at Cimarron.
