

BRIEF HOURS OF PLEASURE.

MEMBERS OF ST. CECILIA'S LYCEUM ENTERTAIN THEIR FRIENDS.

The Rev. Father Flannelly Looks On While His Young Parishioners Enjoy Themselves—Turn Hall Filled with a Jolly Crowd at the Reception of the Phoenix Lyceum—Clarendon Hall Employees Have a Dance.

The members of St. Cecilia's Lyceum last night gave at the Lexington Avenue Opera House their annual entertainment and reception. The hall was filled with the members and guests and everything passed off smoothly and pleasantly.

The first part of the entertainment consisted of a farce called "Hamlet in Black" by the two-act comedy, "Handy Andy." Then Prof. McAlister and his orchestra helped the merry crowd of dancers.

The toilets of the following ladies were among those which attracted notice: Miss Annie French, heliotrope silk, with white more trimmings.

Miss Kate Delaney, white empress cloth, with passementerie trimmings and diamonds. Miss Kate McGowan, silver tulle, over white satin; bodice sleeveless.

Miss Jennie Ryan, black silk, with white satin trimmings. Miss Frances Delaney, white nun's veiling, with white more trimmings.

Miss Maggie Cedar, white lace over satin; Jacquenot roses. Miss Kate Manning, pearl gray silk, with Persian trimmings.

Miss Kate Smith, black broadcloth satin. Miss Kate Fannely, terra-cotta silk and diamonds. Miss Ella Condon, white satin and more; diamond ornaments.

Miss Anna Welch, black silk, with a lace over-trim. Miss Emma Burtzell, blue green silk, with a duchesse lace over-trim.

Miss Kate Manning, white lace, with satin trimmings. Miss Jennie Ryan, black silk, with white satin trimmings.

Miss Helia Delaney, white lace, with a garniture of ribbons. Miss Helen Schmitzgen, pale blue silk, with white more trimmings.

Miss Annie O'Neil, white over dress, with more trimmings. Miss Mary Harriet, pearl satin, with white lace trimmings.

Miss Lottie Burtzell, cardinal silk skirt and a black velvet bodice. Miss Kate Manning, white lace, with white satin trimmings.

NAME THE CLUBS!

Here is a Chance for the Baseball Prophets—Chronological Schedules of the Games.

There are in all communities a large number of baseball prophets who think they can name the final standing of the eight clubs in either the National League or American Association before the season is half finished.

As the race for the two pennants this year will probably be more interesting than ever the EVENING WORLD offers two prizes of $25 each to the person or persons who will arrange the clubs of either the League or the American Association in the order in which they shall finish this season.

A list of the names of the following conditions will be required: 1. All the guesses must be written on the slips out from the EVENING WORLD.

2. The names and addresses of every person entering the contest must be written in full on the slip, and no person will be permitted to enter more than once.

3. The entries for this contest will close June 1, and must be received in the office of the EVENING WORLD on or before that date.

4. The slips must be addressed to the Baseball Editor of the EVENING WORLD. They will be duly placed on file at the close of the season and distribution will be made, and the lucky contestants will receive the notice of their success. If there be more than one successful guesser, each will receive an equal share of the $25.

5. The entries for this contest will close June 1, and must be received in the office of the EVENING WORLD on or before that date.

6. The slips must be addressed to the Baseball Editor of the EVENING WORLD. They will be duly placed on file at the close of the season and distribution will be made, and the lucky contestants will receive the notice of their success.

FROM BOX OFFICE AND STAGE.

BOLOSSY KIRALPY TO GIVE HIS NEW DRAMATIC STORY NEXT AUGUST.

"The Pearl of Pekin" is to stay at the Bijou all summer. The "National Star" Company to have a Rehearsal—Col. Masterson to have a Benefit—How Louis Harrison Employs His Moments of Leisure.

BOLOSSY KIRALPY has a "dramatic story" with spectacular effects for next season, and on Aug. 20 he intends to produce at Niblo's, "Matthias Sandorf," which has been running at the Theatre de l'Ambigu, in Paris. It is a dramatization of Jules Verne's story, by Busnach and Maurens.

There was no ballet in the French version, but the word Kiralpy has come to signify "ballet," and an elaborate specimen of this entertainment will be given. It is said that between four hundred and five hundred people will be seen upon the stage at one time.

The tableaux are to be particularly realistic. One of them will show Sandorf escaping from a tower at the edge of a lake. There is to be real water into which the gentleman, to save himself, will plunge. In another tableau a ship will be launched, while still another picture will show the eruption of Mount Etna—the volcano belching forth flames, the snow, under the influence of the heat, falling down its sides, and the accumulated streams of burning lava.

Bo-lossy goes to Europe the most sincere and friendly consideration, a number of gentlemen, through the generosity of Mr. Miner, will confer upon me the highly appreciated honor of a testimonial benefit.

NEWS ABOUT PUGILISTS AND ATHLETES.

A WONDERFUL RESULT.

The Improvement of the Club is making a number of improvements on its already fine grounds this spring. The Twenty-second Regiment will have a fine meeting at the armory, in Fourteenth street, on Saturday evening.

The new Amateur Athletic Union is to start a new paper, "The A. A. U.," to be edited by Dr. Green. It is to be the official organ of the union.

The lawn-tennis clubs of Hackensack, N. J., have organized a fine league among themselves. They will open the season on Memorial Day with a club tournament.

Washington, D. C., seems to be the Law-Tennis center. It is the only place where the game is played earlier and ends just as much later than at almost any other place.

The "Natter" is the 28-pound Boston and New York dogs which are to fight for stakes of $1,000 the last part of the first week in May, at the Madison Club. This will be a heavy fight.

Harvard College will send a team of athletes to compete in the Coleridge games, N. G. Wells has organized a fine league among themselves. They will open the season on Memorial Day with a club tournament.

The "Natter" match at Peterson between William Pepp and an unknown, was won by the unknown, who turned out to be James Dawson, the Philadelphia sport, "aligned" to this club when the match was announced.

Athletes hereabouts are much pleased with the Coleridge plan of giving the place instead of prize money. The general change from giving medals to prize money or ornamental articles would stimulate the athletes.

John Johnson complains bitterly of the bad weather, which keeps him from practicing his favorite game. The first practice game will be at the Madison Club, on Saturday afternoon, at 12 o'clock. It will be between the Nassau Athletic Club and Steven's Institute team.

Not one of the reporters who wrote up the Twenty-second Regiment's games at the armory in Fourteenth street on Saturday night was aware of the fact that the game was a match between two points between representatives of the big athletic club was a feature of the sport that night.

The contest in the afternoon, with a score of 10 points, and was awarded the cup. The Pastime Athletic Club came second.

A purse was offered recently of $300 for a club battle between the Nassau Athletic Club and Sparrow's team. The refusal of the men to fight for less than $500 was a big surprise to a very prominent middleweight.

The champion said that he had often fought for $100, and he could not see why he should fight for $500, and he would certainly go a long way from championship letting $300 escape them when they had nothing to show for it.
