MGR. BOULAND'S CONVERSION

EPISCOPALIANS WELCOME HIS RENUNCIATION OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

And Regard Him as a Second Pere Hyacinthe—Deacon of the Restoration of the Gallikan Church, Free of Rome—Dignities Which He Surrenders With His Faith—To be Received by Bishop Potter.

THE RIGHT REV. LEON BOULAND.

The Right Rev. Leon Bouland is being welcomed into the Protestant Episcopal Church to-day as a second Pere Hyacinthe. He is a French priest, and up to about three months ago celebrated mass daily in the private house of R. A. Lynch, of Charleston, S. C., who is Librarian of the Supreme Court of that State and a devout Roman Catholic. He claims the distinctive titles of light Reverend and Monsignor by right of Apostolic appointment from Pope Leo XIII., and says that in 1881 he received the honorary appointment of Canon of St. Michael the Archangel, Rome, and in 1882 that of President General of the Society of the Avocats de St. Pierre in North America, and was made a member of the Academie des Sciences in Rome, Canon of the Metropolitan Church of Rheims, Commander of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre, and Private Chamberlain of Pope Leo XIII.

In June, 1888, Mgr. Bouland was also appointed by the Pope General Director in North America of the Society of Peter's Pence, his duties being to urge upon the Bishops of America the necessity of making this contribution, now the only means of support of the Church at Rome, a large one.

Mgr. Bouland first visited America thirteen years ago for the purpose of writing a history of the French in North America, a work now almost ready for the press. He has also occupied himself with the pastoral charge of a French Catholic Church at Camden, N. J., and he founded the French Catholic Church of Notre Dame des Victoires, in Boston. He has travelled all over Europe and America, and his last visit in America was the promotion of Mr. Lynch, in Charleston, of a plan for the emigration of French Catholics to America. This enterprise was indorsed by Gov. Richardson of South Carolina.

Three months ago he came to New York and has since been a guest at the Canada House. He came with a view of renouncing the Catholic Church, and accepting the Episcopal one. He intended, and he will be admitted, as "light Reverend," and he will be admitted to the Old French Catholic Church. Six weeks ago he called at the Episcopal House upon the Right Rev. Albert Mackay. He intended, and he will be admitted, as "light Reverend," and he will be admitted to the Old French Catholic Church. Then he said he was forty years old and had come to the mature judgment that he could not subscribe to the syllabus of 1864 or to the dogmas of the Council of Trent, and he offered his papers for inspection, and asked to be admitted to the Episcopal Church. The Episcopal Church recognizes the Catholic Church as apostolic, and the reception of a priest from the Church is without ceremony, the Bishop merely signifying that he will receive the convert. Mgr. Bouland's papers were found to be all right, and he will be admitted as a priest of the Episcopal Church by Bishop Potter probably next week.

Mgr. Bouland is a typical French scholar in appearance, short, stout, and bald. Archbishop Corrigan says that Mgr. Bouland's name has not appeared in the Church Directory for five years, and says he never heard of him before. He is a French priest, and he will be admitted, as "light Reverend," and he will be admitted to the Old French Catholic Church. He declines to speak of his plans for the future.

Such has been the happy result of the conversion. The moralist and the preacher have been happy. The moralist and the preacher have been happy. The moralist and the preacher have been happy.

THE WORST IN SEVENTEEN YEARS.

A Most Unusually April and Plenty of Colds to Catch if You Want Them.

Prophet Dunn, of the Weather Bureau, was thinking over his sins in his retreat on top of the Equitable Building this morning when an Evening World reporter called on him. He had some very interesting remarks to make about the unreasonable weather of this month.

"This April is a splendid month to catch cold in," he remarked.

The reporter assured him that he did not want to catch cold.

"Well, it's a fact nevertheless. Why, it has been 18 degrees colder this month than the mean temperature for April during the past seventeen years. Furthermore, it has been 2.68 degrees colder since January than the mean temperature for the first four months of each year during the past seventeen years. Do you know that we have had 4.34 inches more rain since January than for a corresponding length of time during the most severe winters? This is a very changeable one, take it all in all."

Prophet Dunn then produced several books and said that about here there are for about days this month. It rained on the 1st, 2d, 5th, 6th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 14th, 16th, 17th, 20th, 23d. On the 21st it actually snowed, but melted before it had time to settle, though, to-day will be fair and warm in New York. He will use his influence to have the winds blow from the west and later on from the south.

The temperature was: In New York, 37 degrees; Boston, 36 degrees; Jacksonville, 64 degrees; Washington, 36 degrees; Philadelphia, 36 degrees; Chicago, 42 degrees; St. Louis, 42 degrees; San Francisco, 50 degrees. The coldest spot is Parry Sound, Canada, at 29 degrees; the warmest Key West at 75 degrees.

Prophet Dunn also remarked, as a parting pleasantry, "a big rain and wind storm is brewing in Dakota and Montana and will reach us in a few days."

DIED OF HIS INJURIES.

Another Life Lost at the Suspicious Fire in East Twenty-eighth Street.

All sorts of rumors are afloat regarding the origin of the fire which occurred late last night in the dwelling-house at 158 East Twenty-eighth street.

Captain Hyatt's detective, as well as the Fire Marshal and the Superintendent of Fire Insurance Patrol are making a vigorous investigation.

The husband of Mrs. Cook, who died from suffocation, was not in the room at the time of the burning building, died at Bellevue Hospital at 1.30 o'clock this morning. He received shocking injuries in leaping from a window of the burning building, being impaled on the points of an iron railing.

Kate Mahoney, his cousin, whose ankle was broken in dropping from the front window, and James Baker, another tenant of the third floor, who was badly burned about the face and arms, are still at the hospital. Their condition is not serious.

Assistant Foreman Gormley, of Truck 7, says that when he reached the house the fire was bursting from the windows as if there had been an explosion, and big bunches of burning excelsior were shot out with the force of a gun. He is a lot of burning bedding in all the rooms.

Mrs. Alice Green, who has rented the second floor for two years past for the overflow of the house, says she was in the room at the time of the fire, and she knew many of the origin of the fire.

The lodgers from Barnum's, nine in all, had their things packed up and left the house at 1.30 o'clock this morning. She thought that the fire might have started from the laundry below. She said her furniture was worth $300 and was insured. A fire occurred in the same rooms last August. The entire loss is less than $2,500.

EMPEROR FREDERICK'S CONDITION.

BERLIN, April 25.—Emperor Frederick's condition at 9 o'clock this morning was satisfactory.

AN INSANE FATHER'S AWFUL CRIME.

KANSAS CITY, April 25.—A despatch from Licking, Mo., says James Smalley, proprietor of the Smalley House, murdered his two children, aged five and three years, and then shot himself with an axe. His wife escaped by jumping out of the window. Her insane husband had previous to the murder barred the locked all doors.

SMALLEY THEN CUT HIS OWN THROAT WITH A HUGO CARVING KNIFE, BLEEDING TO DEATH.

Smalley then cut his own throat with a huge carving knife, bleeding to death from his family having to go to the almshouse, although he was considered well to do.

KERR'S TRIAL SET FOR MAY.

His Counsel Refuse to Enter Any Plea to the Indictment.

The second dilatory motion interposed by Thomas B. Kerr, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, to prevent his trial on the indictment for bribing the Board of Aldermen of 1884, was decided adversely to him to-day.

Judge Patterson held that the special plea that Mr. Kerr had not been properly indicted could not be received.

Messrs. Coekran and Rollins, counsel for the defense, thereupon renewed their motion to set aside the indictment on the ground that there was insufficient evidence thereon and the grand jury on which the indictment was issued.

Assistant District Attorney Scampl, objected to the motion, and Judge Patterson ordered the defendant to plead.

The defendant refuses to plead other than his already pleaded plea. Judge Patterson ordered a plea of not guilty to be entered.

Ex-Surrogate Rollins here announced that unless an adjournment were had for about a month he would be unable to continue in the case, as he would necessarily be employed in the trial of the Stewart will case.

The judge adjourned the trial for about a month, and set down for next Monday morning. After some consultation between counsel it was set for Wednesday, May 2.

The District Attorney John R. Fellows was at his office to-day. He said his trip of nearly a week had done him good.

"Were you in Canada?" he was asked.

"I was in Buffalo and Niagara Falls," he replied.

"Did you cross over the line?"

The District Attorney smiled, but begged to be excused from answering the question.

It is hinted that the District Attorney may have spent part of his trip in Canada. If he did there are many people in this city who would perhaps think that he met some of the hoodlums.

MRS. W. D. BISHOP, JR., HAS THE SMALL-POX.

Visited by Prominent People Who Did Not Know the Nature of Her Illness.

Barnegat, Conn., April 25.—Mrs. William D. Bishop, Jr., daughter of the late Senator Elhu Washburne, ex-Minister to France, and daughter-in-law of W. D. Bishop, ex-President of the New York and New Haven Railroad, is very low with the small-pox. She has been under physicians' care at Hotel Normandy for nervous prostration, brought on by the death of her father, mother and brother.

She was attended by a nurse from the New York Hospital. She returned home April 17. Her family doctors were unable to discover what her complaint was.

The patient having many friends in high social position was called upon throughout the week.

Monday Mrs. Janeway and Buckley, of New York, were summoned, and instantly pronounced the disease small-pox. The Board of Health has placed the patient in quarantine and quarantined the handsome residence on Cortlandt Hill.

Fears of the dread disease by callers has caused a rush to physicians' offices for vaccination.

Mrs. W. D. Bishop, Jr., left the hotel on the 22d inst. for her home in Bridge Street, and in the hotel about a month, much of the time ministering to her sick sister, Mrs. Fowler, whose husband had died of the disease. Mrs. Bishop was in deep mourning when at the hotel and did not go into society.

ROUSED UP BY FIRE.

Guests of the Madison Park Hotel Almost Thrown into a Panic This Morning.

The guests of the Madison Park Family Hotel, at 33, 35 and 37 East Twenty-third street, were roused by fire in the roof of No. 37 early this morning. When the firemen came they cut away the roof and quickly extinguished the flames.

The occupants of No. 37 were in a state of violent excitement when they found the house was on fire, and many of them began to dress and pack up their possessions. It was some time before quiet was restored and new quarters were provided for those who had been roused out of their rooms by the firemen.

Your Saturday Half Holiday Is in Danger.

Help Circulate the Petition to Gov. Hill to Save It.

Manufacturers and Their Men Have Praised the Compromise Bill by a Single Vote—It Will Now Go to the Governor—A Monster Petition to Be Sent Him by "The Evening World."

The enemies of the workmen and workwomen have succeeded in passing through the Assembly the Senate bill restricting Saturday half holidays to the months of June, July, August and September. Notwithstanding that capitalists, monopolists, manufacturers, bankers and the lobby used their powerful influence with the members of the lower house, they only succeeded in having the compromise bill of the upper house concurred in by one more vote than was absolutely necessary. The compromise amendment came up in the Assembly yesterday afternoon, and Robert Bay Hamilton, the blue-blooded representative of the aristocratic Eleventh Assembly District, championed it. Sixty-five votes were required to pass the iniquitous measure, and Mr. Hamilton had to rush around to drum up the Assemblymen who have no sympathy with the wage-earners of this State. He finally succeeded in securing sixty-six votes in favor of the Four-Months Saturday Half-Holiday measure, and the tally-sheet will show that these sixty-six men are either rich men, sons of rich men, or representatives of moneyed institutions, corporations or laboring men who are employed by the farmers have a lazy time of it all winter and have no sympathy or fellow-feeling for mechanics, artisans, clerks, working-men or laboring men who are employed in shops, manufactories, stores and offices all year round.

Only two of the twenty-four members of the Assembly from the city voted for the measure. His action will be availed with great interest by hundreds of thousands of the honest toilers of both sexes of this State. Gov. Hill has always proved himself the friend of labor, and the working-people have the strongest hope that he will veto the enactment which strikes at their rights, comfort and health.
