

TAMMANY HALL'S STAND.

NO OBJECTIONS TO A UNION IP SHE GETS WHAT SHE WANTS.

The local politicians are beginning to discuss the question whether there will be a union between Tammany Hall and the County Democracy this fall. There is a difference of opinion among the camp-followers of the two organizations, while the leaders are not venturing their opinion. As far as Tammany Hall is concerned, its chiefs do not appear to be anxious whether there is or is not a union.

Fire Commissioner Richard Croker is the acknowledged chief of the Wigwam forces and as reserved as he is decisive. He may be said to be in favor of a union, but it may also be said that he will never consent to a union upon terms not satisfactory to himself and the other chiefs of the Wigwam machine. Although the coming local contest will be fought during a truce between Croker and gubernatorial battle Tammany Hall will not surrender its prestige, strength and offices just for the sake of peace and harmony.

While Tammany Hall will be ready to give up a union on an equitable basis, the old organization will not consent upon a division of the offices unless the County Democracy concedes what Tammany Hall thinks she is entitled to by right of conquest and possession. Tammany Hall has no idea of giving up either the Sheriff's office or the County Clerk's office, and Commissioner Croker will not give up the nomination of a partisan County Democracy man for Mayor. The Commissioner was recently asked: "Suppose the County Democracy insists upon naming the candidate for Sheriff or County Clerk, what will be the result?" The Commissioner thought for a few moments and replied: "Then there will be no union."

"They want the Sheriff's office," was next fired at the leader of Tammany Hall, and he quickly retorted: "Let's see them get it." It is true that there was no union in 1884, and that one of the hottest contests we ever had for Mayor occurred during the Presidential campaign of 1884. It is true that there was no union in 1884, and that one of the hottest contests we ever had for Mayor occurred during the Presidential campaign of 1884.

There is scarcely any doubt that if there is a union Tammany Hall will get just what she wants in the harmony arrangement. The County Democracy has passed into the hands of Richard Croker, Maurice J. Power, Croker and Power often meet each other and talk over party and organization policy. They understand each other thoroughly and they are in sympathy.

The County Democracy people could not arraign Tammany Hall as the Wigwam was arranged in 1884, because Tammany Hall will go to the Chicago Convention favoring the renomination of President Cleveland. It may be said right here that Tammany Hall is continuing to get involved in the national Administration. It is true that the County Democrats are getting jealous. The latest rumor is that the national patronage is now divided up half and half between the two camps.

The Alderman Dwyer says he will resign from Tammany Hall if Mayor Hewitt is thought of for renomination on a Union ticket. Alderman Dwyer says he will resign from Tammany Hall if Mayor Hewitt is thought of for renomination on a Union ticket.

The various machines are now busy preparing for the State conventions that elect delegates to the national conventions.

Papers in the O'Brien Case. (Special Cable to the Press News Association.) DUBLIN, May 2.—The trial of Edward Wm. E. O'Brien, under the Crimes Act, began last week, and after a day's hearing was adjourned until to-day.

It was brought to an abrupt conclusion to-day in consequence of the disappearance of the warrants and other indispensable papers in the case, which were stolen from the office of the Clerk of Petty Sessions.

The case will, in consequence, have to be reheard from the beginning.

ELSNER TO BE ARRESTED.

The Brewery Bosses Want to Prosecute Him for Conspiracy.

The State Board of Arbitration resumed its investigation of the brewers' lockout this forenoon in the Aldermanic Chamber. The announcement made exclusively in THE EVENING WORLD yesterday that ex-Senator Thomas F. Grady had been engaged as counsel for the locked-out men in conjunction with Lawyer Charles E. Elsnor was recalled to the attention of the Board.

Mr. Elsnor opened the proceedings by stating the situation in behalf of the locked-out men.

Lawyer Untermyer rehearsed the bosses' side of the lockout. He said that it was important that the responsibility for the issuing of the boycotting circulars be fixed.

After a legal tilt between ex-Senator Grady and Lawyer Untermyer, Chairman Purcell said that an investigation would proceed if they left off. Richard Elsnor was recalled to the stand.

Mr. Rushmore remarked that he hoped that the examination would proceed without delay, as the witnesses wished to leave for Milwaukee as soon as possible.

Mr. Untermyer said: "He will get away when he gives bail. A warrant is out for his arrest on the charge of conspiracy."

While the investigation would proceed if they left off, Richard Elsnor was recalled to the stand.

SPORTS OF TRACK AND RING.

FEATURES OF THE BROOKLYN ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION'S SPRING GAMES.

Mike Foley Wants a Match with J. J. Sampson or Tom Walsh.—Mr. Foley's tempting offer to Ed Holake—Conniff Ready to Meet All Amateurs—New Look Out for Sherrill and Banks.

THE annual spring games of the Brooklyn Athletic Association will be held on Memorial Day. There will be ten events, all but one of them one-mile bicycle races for novices—open to all amateurs.

The tug-of-war is for 640-pound teams. A fine gold medal will be given each member of the victorious team. Gold medals of superior design and workmanship will be given to first and second men in each of the other events.

The entries close with Secretary F. A. Keeney on May 23.

Ed McDonald writes that he is now manager of a Brooklyn light-weight named Mike Foley, whom he will match for a trophy, which he will donate, against J. J. Sampson of the Pastime Athletic Club, in a ten-round contest.

McDonald will match his protégé against Tom Walsh, who recently beat Bagley at the Nassau Athletic Club's meeting in a finish fight for a purse or the gate money.

Richard K. Fox offered Ed Holake $150 yesterday to write out the true inside history of the Sullivan-Mitchell prize-fight.

Conniff can be matched for a trophy to run any amateur in the world from one to five miles on the flat.

Gus Sacks says that Harry Crumley, the Western amateur that has been trying to secure for the "Cherry Diamond" Club, did a hundred the other day in 10 1/2.

Billy Edwards says that he will get up a fight between Jim Flee and George Le Banche if they will agree to battle for any reasonable purse.

One of the prominent members of the Gentlemen's Driving Club said after the big race last Saturday: "It's a good thing for the club, and for the horsemen, and well to have a set of games up here every now and then."

The Brighton Athletic Club has secured new grounds at East New York. The grounds are one and a half miles long, and with a baseball ground in the infield. F. A. Merrick has just rejoined this club.

The Brooklyn Athletic Association will hold a smoking concert at the club-house on Thursday evening.

The splendid victory of Sherrill, of Yale, now a New York Athletic Club man, in the 120-yard race at Fleetwood on Saturday, marks him as the 100-yard runner of the year. H. M. Banks's getting third from the three-year mark in this race goes to show that he will be the great quarter and half miler of 1888, as it shows that he has speed, the only thing that he lacks is endurance. Another remarkable feat at the meeting was the return to sprinting form of the ex-intercollegiate champion, S. J. Derickson.

J. T. Morton, of the Brooklyn Athletic Association, has joined the Manhattan Athletic Club. He will run in the quarter at the Cedarhurst meeting.

What a handful of money any one who thought that Lloyd of the Prospect Harriers, could get second place in the recent cross-country championship could have made! The Prospect Harriers started nine men in the race, and every member of it ran the distance. This club deserves much credit. It has weekly or semi-weekly runs in the interest of weather. It will probably come in for a championship in another year or two.

That Nailer-Cribb dog fight for $1,000 will come off this week. It ought to be a tremendous battle. A large Boston delegation is expected on to back Nailer.

The Paterson Athletic Club announces a light-weight amateur boxing competition to take place at its gymnasium, 187 Main street, Paterson, N. J., on Thursday evening, May 17. Handsome gold and silver medals and cups will be given to the victors. The contest will be held at the residence of George Harris, 82 Ellison street, Paterson, on or before May 12.

Inspector Seery Repeats in Favor of their Storage Tanks. Inspector Seery has made his report in favor of the Standard Oil Company storing oil in the tanks at One Hundred and Fifteenth street. The Fire Commissioners, however, refuse to grant permission to store oil in the tanks until they have tested the explosive qualities of the oil on May 10.

Where the Suggestion Came From. (From the Chicago Tribune.) It is said the native maidens of Shuair, in Hants, England, have organized a marriage ring, and have pledged themselves not to marry till all are engaged. The idea was suggested to them by a thoughtful young female missionary from Massachusetts.

English Social Distinctions. (From the Washington Critic.) American in London—Is that a gentleman over there? Old Stager—Oh, no, that's the Prince of Wales.

DISSENTING FROM THE WHEEL. An Interesting Bicycle Exhibition by Wm. H. Harrison, of Brooklyn. No one knows how it started, but in some way or other William H. Harrison, who is famed among his fellow-citizens of Brooklyn for his good nature, became imbued with the idea that his 200 pounds would sit gracefully on a wire wheel, and in company with a friend he went to Charlie Schwabach's to hire one.

Without the aid of a derrick, which the accommodating proprietor offered to furnish, he finally succeeded in getting into the saddle. His friend and George, the teacher, holding the handles, he accomplished the circumference of the 150-foot track several times, and then his supports thought it time to dismount, and instructed him how to accomplish it without falling. Theoretically, Harrison had the idea right, but the practical test proved a failure, and when his friends had succeeded in dismounting him from the wheel, nothing would satisfy him that he had not been made the victim of a cowardly trick.

He persevered until he thought he had mastered the business sufficiently to give a private exhibition to a chosen committee of friends. Thoughtfully deposing his watch and loose change with David Healy and calling on Schwabach for a fine 32-inch billiard wheel, he started with his friends for the Boulevard. After a few explanatory remarks regarding the "Use and Abuse of the Bicycle," Harrison gave place one foot on the step and began a sort of jig with the other, meanwhile advancing about twelve or fifteen feet up a slight grade. Then, remembering the laws of gravitation and momentum, he requested the party to walk up the grand staircase to a chosen committee of friends. He thought he could ride better down hill.

There the previous performance was repeated, with a few trifling changes, such as a private exhibition to a chosen committee of friends. He thought he could ride better down hill.

When the dust had settled, what was once the natty Harrison was seen rubbing the gore from his begrimed countenance. He said he thought he was coming to a bad end, but no sooner was this done than a series of extraordinary manœuvres commenced, such as figure eights, S's and grave-diggers, winding up with a grand ratchet movement.
