

IVINS ANGERED BY FLYNN.

THE CITY CHAMBERLAIN HURLING QUESTIONS AT HIS ACCUSER.

Flynn, in return, wants to know who is running the investigation—Not able to answer to his charges, Mr. Chamberlain then called Mr. Flynn to an opportunity to make an investigation.

Maurice B. Flynn and City Chamberlain William M. Ivins met today in the Commission of Accounts' office in the Stewart building.

Mr. Flynn was attired in a suit of dark clothes. A huge envelope protruded from the handkerchief pocket of his cutaway coat.

Mr. Ivins wore a new gray suit, yellow gloves and a brown Derby hat. He had no seconds. Mr. Flynn and Mr. Ivins did not speak to each other.

Mr. Flynn had charged that Mr. Ivins, as Chamberlain, had manipulated the public deposits in the banks for the benefit of the firm of William R. Grace & Co., and that Mr. Ivins pocketed fees which should be turned into the city treasury.

Mr. Flynn, in return, wanted to know who is running the investigation—Not able to answer to his charges, Mr. Chamberlain then called Mr. Flynn to an opportunity to make an investigation.

Mr. Flynn indorsed the interview published in THE WORLD in which he made the charges against Mr. Ivins, as a correct report of what he had said.

He did not furnish any evidence to prove his assertions, however, but asked for authority to examine the books of the Chamberlain's office and the accounts of the city depositories.

Mr. Flynn said that he had been told that the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank had been greatly reduced after Mr. Cornelius N. Bliss had retired from the Presidency and Mr. Edward Simmons had succeeded him. Mr. Bliss was said to have been friendly to the firm of William R. Grace & Co., while Mr. Simmons was not on good terms with Mr. Grace.

Mr. Flynn admitted in an interview that the amount of the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank has been greatly reduced since his accession to the position of Chamberlain.

Mr. Flynn then quoted law to prove that City Chamberlain Ivins was pocketing fees which should be turned into the city treasury.

He said that several of the most trusted lawyers in the city, who were adept in municipal law, had informed him that Chamberlain Ivins had no legal right to pocket the fees and emoluments of his office.

He received $25,000 a year for the expenses of the office, and the Chamberlain had admitted that his expenses did not exceed $18,000.

Mr. Flynn also said that he had been told that the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank had been greatly reduced after Mr. Cornelius N. Bliss had retired from the Presidency and Mr. Edward Simmons had succeeded him.

Mr. Flynn admitted in an interview that the amount of the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank has been greatly reduced since his accession to the position of Chamberlain.

Mr. Flynn then quoted law to prove that City Chamberlain Ivins was pocketing fees which should be turned into the city treasury.

He said that several of the most trusted lawyers in the city, who were adept in municipal law, had informed him that Chamberlain Ivins had no legal right to pocket the fees and emoluments of his office.

Mr. Flynn admitted in an interview that the amount of the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank has been greatly reduced since his accession to the position of Chamberlain.

Mr. Flynn then quoted law to prove that City Chamberlain Ivins was pocketing fees which should be turned into the city treasury.

He said that several of the most trusted lawyers in the city, who were adept in municipal law, had informed him that Chamberlain Ivins had no legal right to pocket the fees and emoluments of his office.

Mr. Flynn admitted in an interview that the amount of the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank has been greatly reduced since his accession to the position of Chamberlain.

Mr. Flynn then quoted law to prove that City Chamberlain Ivins was pocketing fees which should be turned into the city treasury.

He said that several of the most trusted lawyers in the city, who were adept in municipal law, had informed him that Chamberlain Ivins had no legal right to pocket the fees and emoluments of his office.

Mr. Flynn admitted in an interview that the amount of the city deposits in the Fourth National Bank has been greatly reduced since his accession to the position of Chamberlain.

Mr. Flynn then quoted law to prove that City Chamberlain Ivins was pocketing fees which should be turned into the city treasury.

He said that several of the most trusted lawyers in the city, who were adept in municipal law, had informed him that Chamberlain Ivins had no legal right to pocket the fees and emoluments of his office.

THE WALLACK TESTIMONIAL.

A HALF HOUR OF EXCRUCIATING AGONY FOR AN OLD MAN.

He fell out of a window of a Mott Street tenement and was caught on the spikes of a fence—Hanging by the calves of the legs until help came—Thought to have been walking in his sleep.

Mrs. Joseph Ranhofer, the housekeeper of the tenement-house at 181 Mott street, was awakened by the fall of a heavy body just outside her window in the rear yard at 2 A. M. to-day.

For God's sake! send for help! Quick! I'm gone! I'm gone!" She aroused her husband, who hastily lit a lamp and went to the window.

Directly in front of it is an iron railing with sharp spikes surmounting a brick wall about ten feet high which separates the court-yard from the adjoining factory.

Inspaled by the calves of both legs upon two of these rusty spikes hung old James Corrigan, a lodger on the floor above. He hung head downward on the further side of the railing, his only clothing being his night shirt.

He had fallen about four feet from the window of his bedroom on the third floor. Blood was trickling down the railing from lacerated wounds in his limbs, and pieces of flesh were sticking to the rough spikes.

The sight was so shocking that Mrs. Ranhofer was overcome for a moment. The screams and cries of the sufferer, however, urged her to take prompt action.

She called for Mr. Curley, who was living in the room above, and he came to the window and saw the man hanging from the spikes, and they were obliged to hold him in that position as well as they could until the police arrived.

It required the strength of several officers to get the man down from the spikes, and he was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital. He had suffered greatly from loss of blood, as well as from shock, and the surgeon gave little hope of recovery.

His wife, who has not been able to leave her bed for two years, was very anxious with grief this morning. She said her husband went to bed about 11 o'clock last night. About 2 o'clock she saw him get up, go to the window and open it.

Mr. Corrigan was nearly sixty years of age. He had formerly worked long hours and had saved up considerable money. For the last year he had suffered from rheumatism so that he could not work.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night. He had been in the hospital for some time, and he was discharged last night.

IMPALED ON IRON SPIKES.

A LITTLE TIME IN PROSPECT.

District Assembly No. 40 to Have a Red-Hot Meeting Next Sunday.

Sunday's trouble in No. 40 continues to be the all-absorbing topic of conversation in organized labor circles. The laws governing the order of the Knights of Labor are eagerly discussed, and strong partisan feeling crops out whenever the delegates happen to meet around Pythagoras Hall.

District Worthy Foreman McGrath has signified his intention of presiding at the meeting next Sunday afternoon. Master Workman Quinn says that he has possession of the charter and proposes to open the meeting in the regular way.

Quinn's opponents declare that he is a suspended member and that his entrance to the hall will be prevented, in which event a row will certainly break out. McGrath, undoubtedly, he called in, unless, indeed, they should be stationed at the doors before the convulsive begins.

Reference to the Master Workman says that his local (2,343), the American Labor Club, will also be suspended for not carrying out the judgement of the District Court against the Quinn and McGrath, sr.

Master Workman Quinn says that the District Court has no right to force a suspension of members of a local until the suspended members have appealed and obtained their names removed from the Executive Board. Mr. Quinn asserts that he has acted in strict conformity with the laws of the order, and he is now exercising and will exercise the same without regard to the Executive Board. The Board does not meet again until June 12, by which time the period of suspension will have expired.

Mr. McGrath, who is opposed to Quinn's administration on general principles, said to-day: "Martin went to District Assembly 2,234 for no other purpose evidently, for he is at several points with the Quinns and other so-called Home Club men."

"The local may have been in executive session when Martin presented his travelling card, and in that case no member of the Executive Board could have been present. The card would be admitted, nor would any member present be permitted to leave the assembly."

For the first time in the history of Broadway theatres, three houses are doing an enormous comic opera—"The Queen's Mate" at the Broadway, "The Lady or the Tiger" at Wallack's, and "Nadly" at the Casino, are all prospering greatly.

"The Pearl of Pekin," at the Bijou, also has not been forgotten, although it is shortly to be withdrawn for the present. The summer theatrical season looks extremely promising.

Mme. Modjeska returned from her 80th home in Pennsylvania to play at the Wallack testimonial. She proposes leaving for her ranch in California, near Los Angeles, very shortly.

No regular attraction will be presented at the Academy of Music this week. The house will be devoted to colleges, societies, commencements and meetings.

Gustave Mortimer, manager of Louis James and Marie Wainwright was on Broadway yesterday. "I think that every tragedian ought to be a tragedian," he said.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

WILLING TO TAKE BACK THE MEN.

The Boss Brewers Ready to Meet Their Locked-out Employees Half Way.

The locked-out brewerymen met in the lecture room of the Clarendon Hall building this forenoon, when the announcement was made that a "grand mass-meeting" would be held to-night at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock at the Cooper Institute for the purpose of discussing the subject—"How to Push the Measures Against the Closed Shop."

CURRENT NEWS OF ACTORS.

MANAGER RICE'S DAUGHTER HAS ENOUGH OF THE STAGE.

She is pretty, winsome little daughter of Manager E. E. Rice, who was married two years ago with young Frank Tefft, son of one of the partners of the firm of Tefft, Weller & Co., will be remembered, appeared in the chorus of "The Queen's Mate."

Mrs. Tefft is barely eighteen years of age. She has always been very anxious to go upon the stage, but Manager Rice used every means of persuasion in his power to prevent her from doing so.

Since her marriage she and her husband have been living with his parents, with whom she is a great favorite. The young husband, who is not more than twenty-one and looks about fifteen, has an income of about $3,000 a year.

He is devoted to his charming little wife, and it is probably for that reason that he permitted her to appear in "The Queen's Mate." Each night he is to be seen at the stage door waiting for her, and the young couple were the object of a great deal of friendly notice.

Mrs. Tefft, however, has apparently had all the experience of theatrical life that she wishes. She voluntarily resigned, and Saturday was her last appearance. Said a theatrical wag yesterday: "Mrs. Tefft's husband and family did a very wise thing in permitting the girl to see what the stage was. Now she knows, and she is not likely to be lured back to the theatre all her life."

For the first time in the history of Broadway theatres, three houses are doing an enormous comic opera—"The Queen's Mate" at the Broadway, "The Lady or the Tiger" at Wallack's, and "Nadly" at the Casino, are all prospering greatly.

"The Pearl of Pekin," at the Bijou, also has not been forgotten, although it is shortly to be withdrawn for the present. The summer theatrical season looks extremely promising.

Mme. Modjeska returned from her 80th home in Pennsylvania to play at the Wallack testimonial. She proposes leaving for her ranch in California, near Los Angeles, very shortly.

No regular attraction will be presented at the Academy of Music this week. The house will be devoted to colleges, societies, commencements and meetings.

Gustave Mortimer, manager of Louis James and Marie Wainwright was on Broadway yesterday. "I think that every tragedian ought to be a tragedian," he said.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

John R. Rogers and his little wife sail for Europe on May 29. Mr. Rogers in Broadway is a very popular man, and he has a very good record. He has a very good record.

SPORTS IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

The Nassau will hold their annual set of games on July 1st.

The Nassau will hold their annual set of games on July 1st. The Nassau Athletic Club has decided to abandon its fifteen-mile amateur race set for this year, and hold instead a ten-mile race on Oct. 10.

A match race between Billy O'Neil, a well-known Harlem River oarsman, and Sam Smith, of Langford, will be contested on the Harlem River during the forenoon of May 28 for a purse of $100.

The Nassau Athletic Club, of Brooklyn, has entered Capt. Ira Baird, E. H. Hall, Charles W. Nelson and C. J. B. of the Nassau Athletic Association games at Philadelphia.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

The failure of Ed Lang, the Manhattan Athletic Club, to enter any of its members in the five-mile walk at their grounds on Sunday last, surprised to not a few of that club's members, who were disappointed to see that the walk was not held.

BIG VALUE.

MEN'S UNDERWEAR.

HERCULES JEAN DRAWERS.

BEST MADE, 3-PAT. BUTTON, PAT. REMOVABLE BACK TUCK, WARRANTED PEPPERED.