FRANCIS RICHMOND BEATEN.

Not Placed in the Handicap Sweepstakes.
The Bard, However, Captures the St. James Hotel Stakes.
Prince Royal, Belvidere, French Park, Goldfish and Maid Also Win.

GRAVESEND TRACK, May 24.—Haver and the Bard. The hopes of the crowds of race lovers who packed the trains and boats for Gravesend were a little dashed. They came to see the struggle between two-year-olds for the May Stakes, and the great battle between Haver and the Bard, Volante, Haverwood, Bannock, Sir Dixon and other high class names for the St. James Hotel Stakes. But rumors that were rife on the journey to the track that both the Dwyer Bro's cracks were scratched in the chances of French Park and Oregon, both winners this week, the latter at bookmakers' odds of 10 to 1 in the third race. The May Stakes were fully discussed, as were the merits of the cracks in the fourth race.

However successful the Brooklyn Jockey Club may be in management and attractions, its weather department is not always the best conducted, and the visitors who went down early had to consider the chances of their favorites left the track should be a morose by the time the first bell rang, for the outlook was certainly threatening. The scene was one of the busiest of the meeting. The grand stand was packed, and the bookmakers—though more than one suffered from the vicissitudes of Cypriote and King Cray yesterday—looked cheerful as they shovelled in the money and marked the odds. The track is a good one, and the fast. Home of the scratching of Haver for the St. James Hotel Stakes. A cold east wind was blowing, and the horses were in the first race.
