During the recess the National Committee has ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to admit uniformed clubs to a view of the hall.

STEVEN M. WHITE'S ADDRESS.

Words of Democratic Wisdom from the California Orator.

Following is the address of the temporary chairman:

MR. CHAIRMAN AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: Profoundly grateful for the distinction just conferred upon me, I am conscious that I have been forechosen for this position because of your appreciation of that important section of our country from whence I came. I can answer, that those who are in heart present will regard with a feeling of recognition which they have thus received because of any unconcerned ability of influence of mine, but for the reason that the only instance in the history of our National Convention in which the Pacific Slope has been accorded such a honor.

California was acquired under Democratic rule. It became a commonwealth under Democratic auspices. It is therefore fitting that the best of its favor should emanate from the organ of a Democratic party, and that the party which has removed by time and thought and honest opinion in spite of illegal force openly and notwithstanding original efforts directed by the public will as expressed at the ballot box; has driven unworthy servants from office and has summoned to power an Administration to which no stain of suspicion has ever attached.

This was done when the world doubted whether a free government could be maintained here and whether our citizens were strong enough to control the agents of their own selection who defied the power of those from whom their authority proceeded.

It was accomplished despite the perpetration of that crime against the Republic which deprived the Democracy of the fruits of victory and the whole people of the services of our noblest statesman and true American, Samuel Tilden. Here where he was nominated let it be said: "Peace to his ashes; he discharged his duties bravely. His name shall be transmitted as an example of one who, rather than disturb public tranquility, sacrificed upon the altar of his country the noblest aspiration of an American citizen.

Unable to retaliate themselves upon any meritorious, honest, corrupt politicians, whose transgressions have excluded them from office, seek restoration to authority by endeavoring to revive the buried hopes of past generations, but these unemphatic efforts have failed. "Who who participated in the struggle are not anxious to renew it. The agitators of today are in most instances non-combatant. A new generation has come upon the scene. The younger voters know not the way only through tradition and history. They are ardent, ambitious and enlightened. They look with aversion upon every attempt to lead them into imperial misadventure; they are anxious for present success and future honor and happiness.

They are too busy with the practical affairs of life to engage in useless controversy. They love their country better than the delusion of an empty name.

They know that the glory and advancement of the Republic is dependent upon general co-operation. While they are proud of their fathers' heroic deeds, they yet believe that unaided words and resolutions are of little avail. They are not promoters of present hypocrisy or future happiness; and that an Administration which treats all these and resolves that there is no distinction before the law of race and nation, is best calculated to further the general interest and to perpetuate the best type of liberty.

The intelligent elector whose judgment is unclouded by prejudice is prepared to assist in the work of the Democratic party. That that organization has accomplished as much notwithstanding the continued opposition of its foes is ample evidence that during the next four years its policy will be finally and completely adopted.

DEMOCRACY WILL TRIUMPH.

The coming convention is the triumph of Democracy. Non-violence of this convention will be the cause of it, and if we do our duty the Republic will be restored to its former glory and the progress of our country.

REPUBLICAN OBJECTION.

If the tariff as now modified it was because of Republican objection. The existence of an economic struggle in the Treasury and the industries of the country and is a constant source of injury to the consumer and to the producer alike because of the withdrawal of a large portion of the circulating medium from the industry of the country, which has been attributed to the policy of the Republican party, who aim to have their own interests protected by a tariff.

During the Republican dominancy many millions of acres of the fertile domain passed into the hands of corporate and foreign syndicates formed for the creation of artificial fortunes.

The oligarchy imposed as conditions precedent to the investment of title were perjury and violation of the forfeiture, thus rendering to those seeking homes in good faith more than forty millions of acres which had been withheld by the Republican party for the benefit of a few.

NO ALLEN LAND GRABBERS.

In accordance with the views of the President, a statute has been enacted preventing the acquisition of lands by those not citizens of the United States, and restricting the power of corporations to obtain title to realty in the Territories. If the preceding Republican administration had adopted the present Democratic policy, there would have been preserved a home for as many laboring men in good faith on the immense tracts of fertile soil now in the hands of the corporations and foreign speculators.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE CHINESE.

For years universal attention has been directed to the dangers of Chinese immigration. The advent of hundreds of thousands of Chinese laborers and the least of them, the occasion of the rights of the Chinese laborer, has always been a subject of debate in the United States.

The Administration has entered into a treaty with the Chinese Government which must result in the bringing of the Chinese laborer to the United States in great numbers, and which for the first time make it possible to prevent the perpetration of the crime upon our restoration laws now practiced by that race, and to preserve us from the evils of servile competition.

The Democratic party has failed, and we have had a success of settlement of the question which justly states a vast number of our citizens, and that the party which has removed by time and thought and honest opinion in spite of illegal force openly and notwithstanding original efforts directed by the public will as expressed at the ballot box; has driven unworthy servants from office and has summoned to power an Administration to which no stain of suspicion has ever attached.

This was done when the world doubted whether a free government could be maintained here and whether our citizens were strong enough to control the agents of their own selection who defied the power of those from whom their authority proceeded.

It was accomplished despite the perpetration of that crime against the Republic which deprived the Democracy of the fruits of victory and the whole people of the services of our noblest statesman and true American, Samuel Tilden. Here where he was nominated let it be said: "Peace to his ashes; he discharged his duties bravely. ## ACCUSED.

Alderman Conkling's 'Flat-Footed Charge.'

He Directly Accuses Alderman Dowling of Bribery.

Is It the College Point Ferry Franchise?

Alderman Dowling Says Conkling Has Gone Too Far.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

ST. LOUIS, June 5.—District-Attorney Fellows received a dispatch to-day from Assistant District-Attorney Semple, stating that Alderman Conkling had preferred bribery charges against Alderman Dowling. Col. Fellows says he will investigate the matter upon his return to New York.

"As I understand it," said Col. Fellows, "Alderman Conkling called at the District-Attorney's office and preferred the charges. He also submitted the names of witnesses and asked that the evidence and witnesses be placed before the Grand Jury."

"I have not seen Alderman Dowling to-day, although I hear he is looking for me," Alderman Dowling was seen later by an Evening World reporter. The Alderman said, in answer to questions:

"Alderman Conkling has gone too far. I never minded his attacks before, but as he has gone to the District-Attorney's office with his trumped-up accusations, I will make it hot for him when I get back. I understand the charges bribery on the ferry franchise, the College Point Ferry franchise."

The Alderman would not say anything more, as he was on his way to the convention and wanted to get a front seat.

The younger voters know not the way only through tradition and history. They are ardent, ambitious and enlightened. They look with aversion upon every attempt to lead them into imperial misadventure; they are anxious for present success and future honor and happiness.

They are too busy with the practical affairs of life to engage in useless controversy. They love their country better than the delusion of an empty name.

ST. LOUIS DEFEATED.

Chris Is Sad and Charlie Is Happy To-Night.

Latham's 'Fancy' Work Lost the Game.

St. Louis 4 Brooklyn 5

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, June 5.—Despite the fact that Von der Ahe's champion Brown defeated the home side in the first game of the series, at Hightwood, Sunday, fully four thousand people congregated at Washington Park to witness the second contest between the rival clubs this afternoon.

BROOKLYN. ST. LOUIS.

Pinkey, 8th b. Latham, 8th b.
McClain, 9th b. O'Neill, 9th b.
Orr, 1st b. Conkling, 1st b.
Fitz, 2d b. McCarthy, 2d b.
Smith, 3d b. McCarthy, 3d b.
Pittsburgh, 4th b. McCarthy, 4th b.
Radford, 5th b. McCarthy, 5th b.
Caruthers, 6th b. McCarthy, 6th b.
Hudson, 7th b. McCarthy, 7th b.

Umpire—Mr. Gaffney.

First inning—St. Louis' worthy Latham grounded to Smith and Lyons struck out. O'Neill hit safely and stole second, but Conkling ratted an easy one to McClain.

Pinkey for Brooklyn ratted to McClain. McClain tied to O'Neill and Orr rolled to the box.

Second inning—Caruthers was on his merit. The first three balls he pitched struck out Robinson, McCarthy on the leather across the green to McClain, who did not lumina. McClain got to a passed ball, but was caught at the plate trying to score on the play.

Fitz hit to Lyons. Smith failed to hit the leather. O'Brien ratted slowly to Robinson, who was playing out and made a hard run for it. He got to the base and stole second, but was caught second. Had he got to first on a hit about a foot from the plate, and Darby went to third. Bushong ratted out.

Third inning—Smith guided Milligan's bouncer. McClain hit to Lyons. O'Neill hit safely and stole second, but Conkling ratted an easy one to McClain.

Pinkey hit hard to Latham, who, in his attempt to be fancy, lost the ball between his feet. Pinkey's second, McClain's sacrifice to McClain and Robinson ratted slow to first and left. Conkling, who was at the center of the diamond brought Pinkey home. Four hits to Lyons and Smith to O'Neill. One run.

Fourth inning—McClain took Lyons' bouncer. O'Neill pitched to Pinkey. Conkley dropped the bat on the ball in an attempt to take second. Had he hit through Latham for two bases, Robinson made a glory catch of Caruthers' fly to left. The New York City politicians are discussing the Dowling episode. Many of them appear to be more anxious to get particulars of the bribery charges than to hear the latest news about the tariff plank.

When told of the above dispatch this afternoon Alderman Conkling said: "I have nothing to say for publication. The District-Attorney Semple also refused to be interviewed."

MOVING FORWARD.

New York Snatches Another Game from Indianapolis.

Some Batting in the Seventh Inning Did the Business.

New York 2 Indianapolis 1

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)

POLO GROUNDS, June 5.—Over three thousand people saw the third game between Indianapolis and New York at the Polo Grounds this afternoon. The grounds were in an excellent condition and everything was favorable for good ball playing.

The positions and batting order were as follows:

NEW YORK. INDIANAPOLIS.

Gore, 1st b. Steery, 1st b.
Ward, 2d b. Glascock, 2d b.
Swing, 3d b. Sims, 3d b.
Conor, 4th b. Denn, 4th b.
Mastery, 5th b. Bassett, 5th b.
Hickson, 6th b. Esters, 6th b.
Hatfield, 7th b. Buckley, 7th b.
Kerf, 8th b. Shreve, 8th b.

Umpire—Mr. Valentine.

Indianapolis took the field.

First Inning—For New York, five balls gave Gore first, but he was caught napping by Steery. Ward went out. Shreve to Esters. Swing took first on base and stole second, but was caught nearly a moment later by Buckley.

For Indianapolis, a Kefe gave Steery a base. Glascock batted close to the line to first and was out. Kerf to Connor. Hines hit to Hatfield, who touched Steery out. Denny was third out, Richardson to Esters.

Second Inning—Five balls again and Connor took first. Steery's sacrifice sent him to second, but he was caught on a fly for Hatfield. Steery was the fourth man sent to a try for Shreve. He ratted second on a fly to left, Richardson going out, Bassett to Esters.
