JAY GOULD THE WALL STREET SEE-SAW.

JAY'S LAST HOPE GONE.

Judge Benedict Denies His Motion for a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Judge Benedict, in the United States Circuit Court, to-day, handed down his decision on the application for a writ of habeas corpus made by Bookie Alderman Henry J. Jaehne.

After giving a long opinion upon the law in the case, Judge Benedict denies the motion for the writ.

EMBEZZLEMENT AND SUICIDE.

A Defaulting Collector, in Fear of Exposure, Blows Out His Brains.

Edward Bernhardt, forty years of age, 497 Perry street, Newark, was found last evening, with his back resting against a tree, on the old Bloomfield road, and a bullet through his brain. By his side was a 32-calibre revolver, with which he had taken his own life.

Bernhardt was employed as a collector for F. and M. Schreyer, the brokers, of Fifty-first street and Fourth avenue, New York, and last night the fact was developed that he had embezzled $4,000 of the firm's money.

It was probably fear of exposure that led him to suicide. A bunch of papers was found in his lap, with this letter:

MY DEAR WIFE: Repair drive me to death. I had three days were terrible for me. Those days I spent in the same way as I have done. I was not able to write any more. Tell my poor, miserable mother and all my sisters, relatives and friends. Adieu forever. Thine, E. Bernhardt.

Bernhardt was connected with a number of local German organizations, and has many warm friends both in Newark and New York.

GEN. SHERIDAN A LITTLE BETTER.

He Sleeps More than Usual Last Night and His Appearance is More Satisfactory.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—A. M. bulletin.—Gen. Sheridan slept more than usual last night. Towards morning he had an attack of coughing, followed by a short period of general depression, from which he recovered quickly and easily. At present his appetite is sufficient, pulse 100 and 102, respiration 27 and regular, temperature normal. His appearance is better.

We Stand by the Grocery Clerks.

It gives me great delight to see that your renowned paper has taken an interest in the just endeavors of the West-Side Tea and Grocery Clerks to get the stores to close at 7 P. M.

The hour would not inconvenience the general public in general, while it would make the gas bill of the grocers little or nothing during the summer.

By continuing to give us your support and advice you will have the everlasting gratitude of the tea and grocery clerks of New York, and also that of all honest grocers.

A Massive "Carver-Stone."

One of the largest blocks of stone ever seen in these parts was hauled up Myrtle avenue last evening and deposited on the grounds of St. John's College. It weighs some seven tons, and is to be the corner-stone of the great church which Father Hayes is about to erect.

The stone will be laid by the venerable Bishop Loughlin, on Sunday afternoon, June 16, and the occasion will be made memorable by the largest assemblage of Catholics that ever assembled at a similar ceremony in this city. A choir of some eight hundred voices will be in attendance to sing the beautiful hymns of the Catholic church, and the clergy of the diocese will render the psalms in the solemn and impressive Gregorian.

Has Blaine Written Another Letter?

A Statement That It Is in Chairman Jones's Hands.

And Will Be Read at Chicago Tuesday.

Blaine Said to Positively Decline Therein and Favor Sherman.

Will This Be a Quietus to the "Blaine or Bust" Boom?

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
PITTSBURGH, June 12.—The Leader says: "B. F. Jones, Chairman of the Republican National Convention, left for Chicago last night to establish his headquarters at the Grand Pacific Hotel. He was weighted down with a great secret and absolutely refused to be interviewed prior to his departure.

"In his possession was a letter but just received from James G. Blaine, which is to be read upon the assembling of the National Convention next Tuesday.

"It is stated in terms that cannot be mistaken Mr. Blaine's position in regard to the Presidency, and settles for good and all the question of his candidacy. In neither of his previous epistles from Florence and Paris did Mr. Blaine state positively that he would not accept the nomination if tendered him.

"In the letter which Chairman Jones has this declaration is most emphatically made. Under no circumstances, Mr. Blaine says, will he permit the use of his name at Chicago, nor would he accept were the Presidential nomination unanimously tendered him.

"He further goes on to indicate that Senator John Sherman, of Ohio, is his preference, and advises the convention to place him at the head of the Republican national ticket.

"Continuing, Mr. Blaine gives quite a lengthy dissertation on the tariff, predicting in glowing terms a glorious victory for the Republican party in November. He contrasts the campaigns of 1864 and 1868, and shows how this year all the odds are in favor of the Republicans."

The Leader further avers on what it claims to be excellent authority, that "Senator Sherman and Mr. Blaine have understood each other on the question of the Presidency for several months, and that even before the Maine man's departure for Europe an arrangement had been entered into between the two that, in case of the elevation of Sherman to the White House, Blaine is to be his Secretary of State.

It is also alleged that Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, was acquainted with all the details of the Blaine-Sherman agreement. Hence his active work in the former's interest.

Quay is ambitious to preside over the Republican National Committee and to dispense the federal patronage of the Keystone State in the event of the election of a Republican President, and for these reasons he has taken hold of some of Sherman's canvass. All this is stated on the most reliable authority.

Chairman George M. Von Donhorst, of the Republican County Committee and a Sherman delegate to Chicago, denied all knowledge of such a letter, but did not think it unlikely that such an epistle had been written.

"Mr. Blaine and Senator Sherman understood one another," said he, "and I think Sherman will be the nominee at Chicago."

THE "BLAINE OR BUST" BOOM.

Steve Elkins's Letter Revives the Blaine Men Everywhere.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
KANSAS CITY, June 12.—The publication of Steve Elkins's letter to Sam Scott, of this city, saying that Blaine would be the nominee of the Convention, is the political sensation of the day.

Blaine club 400 strong has been organized and will leave for Chicago Sunday. The Blaine Knights, another strong organization, has engaged a special train for the same evening.

The feeling to-day is running very high. Elkins is pulling the wires with a strong hand in this section of the country.

Here is the significant letter from Steve Elkins, Blaine's lieutenant, which seems likely to be like a match applied to a gunpowder magazine. It was written after the Paris declaration:

Blaine has a majority of the delegates to Chicago. HE WILL BE NOMINATED.

Blaine, June 12.—I have an Evening World reporter met Jesse Gove, "the original Blaine man" from Massachusetts, in the City Hall. He was getting ready to depart with the Republican delegation for Chicago to-morrow evening. "Who is going to be nominated, Alderman?" asked the reporter.

"Blaine, sure," was the reply.

For the first time since the first mention of James G. Blaine's name in the Republican Convention here yesterday by Judge Wiswell, the Chairman caused the wildest excitement among the delegation.

Blaine was thrown high in air and the voice

YESTERDAY'S BOWLING CONTEST.

How the Prizes Went in a Successful Event of New York's United Club.

At Guttinger's Cosmopolitan Park, One Hundred and Sixty-ninth street, the contest of the united bowling clubs of New York was finished yesterday. The attendance was large and the battle very exciting. Eighteen clubs were present, of which the following were the winners:

Glendale Club first, Spartans second, Fifth Ward Club third.

Two individual prizes for the best bowlers of all the teams were won as follows:

First, a gold medal, by Mr. Kerr, of the Seventeenth Ward Club; second, a gold-headed cane, by Mr. Schulz.

Individual prizes were open to all members of any club connected with the association, were also bowled for.

The affair was a success in every respect and will be repeated next week. It concludes with dancing.

Will Be Cremated.

The body of John Otto Husted, of 127 East Eighty-first street, this city, will be cremated at Fresh Pond, L. I., this afternoon.

Mr. Husted's funeral services took place to-day in St. Peter's church, at 127 East Eighty-first street and Park avenue. The stage was decorated with plants and flowers and the casket was covered with floral offerings. The music was by Prof. Liebold's orchestra, singing by a large chorus and addressed by Dr. Senner and Aschel F. Vitch.

Register Steve Presses His Suit.

Register Steve's libel suit came up again before Justice O'Reilly, in the Essex Market Police Court, this morning. Counselor Strahan appeared for Mr. Steve and Frederick E. Conard for Louis Saunders, John T. Lohman, Edwin Cogswell and John Weber, the defendants.

Mr. Steve's attorney gave his name as Stewart in a check on May 12 and that he received it three months later. The expedited searches named in by him during that time had been promptly received.

THE OLD, OLD STORY

New York Beaten by the Men From Detroit.

Where Will the Giants Be at the End of the Season?

New York 6
Detroit 8

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
POLO GROUNDS, June 12.—A strong easterly wind caught up the loose dust and dirt of the streets this afternoon and whirled it up and over the high fence which surrounds the Polo Grounds, and then sent it down upon the devoted heads of the crowd upon the bleaching-boards, into the eyes and mouths of the players, and even sent it sitting in upon the grand stand occupants. And the same ill wind wafted sarsaparilla and lemons down dusty throats and blew nickels into the pockets of the vendors of these fluids.

Whenever the wind did not prevent the usual large crowd from assembling at the field long before the time set for the opening of the game.

The Detroit came unostentatiously upon the field a little before 4 o'clock, looking big, burly and dirty in white stockings, dark blue knickerbockers and blue and white striped shirts and caps. They had reached the town early this morning. Despite their two defeats at Boston, at their noon-time meal to-day Manager Watkins remarked, perhaps facetiously, that he had seen the Giants play ball yesterday and added: "You fellows ought to be kicked if you don't win to-day."

Big Dan Bronner's injury still incapacitated him for playing, while from the New York Ward and Center clubs absent and O'Rourke was placed in the third. Conway, the young man who has his attention proved too passing for the Giants, did not play for Detroit, while Titcomb, after a week's rest, was in the box for New York. About 3,500 people were present. Bunting order:
